MERCURY IS UP OVER 100 IN 18 CITIES

Fifty-seven Persons Drown In Efforts to Escape From Heat in Four Days

LITTLE RELIEF IS SEEN

Acute Suffering Reported In Most Sections of Country Since Sunday

CHICAGO, July 10.—(UP)—A scorching sun beat down on the entire central part of the United States from the Alleghenies westward to the Rocky mountains today, continuing a heat wave that has taken more than a score of lives, created acute suffering in the congested metropolitan areas and indirectly contributed to a heavy toll by drowning.

Eighteen cities in 14 states sweltered under temperatures of 100 degrees or more yesterday, according to official weather bureau reports and in many of the cities, the marks were new records.

Little Relief

Most of those cities obtained little relief today, the only cooling spots in the country being the northwestern and east central areas and parts of the far west, all of which had escaped most of the baking.

United Press reports today accounted for a total of 27 heat deaths since the mercury began sizzling on Sunday. Added to these fatalities were 57 deaths by drowning, including the loss of four lives in an excursion boat accident on Lake Michigan.

In the middle west, the deaths were distributed as follows:

	Heat	Drowning
Ohio	1	9
Indiana	3	5
Michigan	0	3
Illinois	5	3
Wisconsin	3	10
Iowa	1	2
Missouri	4	0
Minnesota	3	5
North Dakota	0	1
Nebraska	5	0
Kansas	2	1

Free Ice Distributed

Free ice and milk were distributed among the poorer families of Chicago and infant welfare stations extended their hours to care for seasonal ills.

Almost all beaches in the parks were occupied last night by lightly clad persons unable to obtain sleep in stuffy apartments and flats.

Lake breezes held down the temperature to a maximum of only 86 in Chicago, but the humid atmosphere belied the official readings.

Ruinously dry conditions for crops were reported in parts of the near northwest, with fields browning. Illinois farmers were anxious about their corn crop, which was suffering from firing.

Stunt Flier Ends Life With Crash

OAKLAND, Calif., July 10.—(UP)—Alfred O. Smith, 41, student pilot and retired manufacturer of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was dead today, the victim of a "stunt flight" that ended in a disastrous plunge into the San Francisco bay.

The accident was witnessed by hundreds of spectators yesterday afternoon.

GASOLINE WAR STILL RAGING IN CALIFORNIA

BULLETIN

FRESNO, Calif., July 10.—(UP)—Fresno motorists today were buying gasoline at the lowest prices ever sold here.

Competing Standard and Shell stations at a downtown intersection had 6-cent prices posted while several stations on Golden State highway were selling at 6 and 7 cents.

The lowest price yet heard of in the San Joaquin valley was accepted by several hundred motorists who clogged the state highway at Kingsburg when they bought Shell gasoline for 5 cents a gallon, 3-cent tax paid, from a retailer. The offer lasted only a few hours.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—Persistent rumors that major oil companies intended to restore gasoline prices to former levels had failed today to end the economic warfare on the Pacific coast, and motor fuel continued to sell all the way from 7½ to 19½ cents.

The top price was asked by a number of independents in Los Angeles who banded together in an effort to halt the price cutting, claiming it was suicidal to the $100,000,000 independent oil industry in California. The major companies, despite rumored increases, continued selling at from 10 to 14½ cents. At some stations it was offered as low as 8 cents.

Seeks Conference

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce took a hand today with a statement by President John C. Austin that he will immediately call a series of conferences with leaders of the industry to seek an end to the conflict. His action came on the heels of word from Herbert MacMillan, official of the independent company bearing his name, that he will ask for an investigation by the U. S. department of justice if the war does not end soon.

An independent dealers' organization in San Francisco, which previously asked Governor C. C. Young to act, threatened to sell gasoline at wholesale prices next week unless the market was stabilized. The association asked the governor to declare all producers and distributors as public utilities, placing them under the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission.

Major concerns, however, had no

STATE DEPARTMENT OPENS ROAD BIDS

SACRAMENTO, July 10.—(UP)—Bids for state highway and bridge projects totaling $558,741 were opened here yesterday by the state department of public works. The projects and low bidders included:

Los Angeles county—surfacing 12.6 miles north of Castaic school, Valley highway; Southwest Paving company, Los Angeles, $134,330.

Riverside county — widening 6.2 miles roadbed between northerly boundary and point west of Beaumont, San Bernardino-El Centro highway; Steele Finley, Santa Ana, $34,402.

Body of Cardinal In Dataria Palace

ROME, July 10—(UP)—The body of Vincenzo, Cardinal Vannutelli, law in state today in the throne room of Dataria palace, where the dean of the sacred college had lived the latter part of his 93 years of life.

All Rome grieved at the death of the aged cardinal, although it was not unexpected. He had been in poor health many months, but appeared on the way to recovery when he suffered a relapse, lingered a week, and died yesterday, conscious to the end.

Funeral services will be held Saturday in St. Ignatius' church it was announced at the palace. Full details for the ceremonies were not disclosed.

Suspect Police Of Freeing Lingle Slayer

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—Three Los Angeles police officers were under fire today when investigators learned that the slayer of Alfred J. Lingle, Chicago newspaperman, may have been released by them after he was arrested.

The inquiry was linked with the disappearance of three specially made revolvers similar to the weapon used in the Lingle killing. Frankie Foster, Chicago gangman indicted in the slaying and held here pending extradition hearing Tuesday, allegedly was the original owner of the murder gun as well as the three others. These latter mysteriously disappeared from Foster's luxurious Los Angeles apartment after his arrest in a raid by police.

ALEX PANTAGES SLANDER SUIT IS DISMISSED

Attorney for Russian Actor Drops Suit to Collect $500,000

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—The $500,000 slander suit brought against Alexander Pantages, millionaire theater owner by Nicholas Dunaev, Russian actor, was dismissed today.

Dunaev's suit was based on the charge that Pantages, on the day he was arrested for assertedly assaulting 17-year-old Eunice Pringle, claimed publicly that he was the victim of a conspiracy engineered by the young co-ed, Dunaev and others.

The dismissal was filed in superior court by S. S. Hahn, attorney for Dunaev. Hahn declined comment on the cause of his action claiming that the confidential relations between client and attorney prohibited explanation.

It was rumored, however, that Dunaev received no settlement from Pantages who now is out of jail on $100,000 bond pending the result of his appeal to conviction on the assault charge.

Dunaev, in his action, accused Pantages of having said in the presence of witnesses: "Dunaev is the master mind in this conspiracy to blackmail me."

The dismissal of the Dunaev suit will have no effect, Hahn said, on a similar suit for $250,000, filed by him in behalf of Frederick Wise, state's witness in the Pantages assault case.

In addition to Wise's suit, Miss Pringle has a million dollar action against the showman.

Pantages was convicted of assaulting Miss Pringle when she called at his office seeking a booking for her vaudeville act. He is under sentence of from one to 50 years in San Quentin.

Dunaev was a close friend of Miss Pringle's and was the author of her vaudeville sketch. He was a state's witness at the trial of Pantages.

MACDONALD IS VICTORIOUS IN THREE ATTACKS

British Prime Minister and Labor Government Win In Strong Tests

LONDON, July 10.—(UP)—The labor government's survival of three strong attacks in the house of commons yesterday was believed in political quarters an assurance that Prime Minister MacDonald would remain in office at least until the summer recess late this month.

Two other dangerous political reefs must be crossed before the recess, but MacDonald was considered sure of success in both instances, if only by a narrow margin. The conservatives propose a vote of censure of the government's failure to erect what they regard as effective safeguarding barriers, but since a motion would be against the liberals' free trade policy, the liberals undoubtedly would support the laborites, and defeat the motion.

Another attack may be made in the house of lords when it considers again its oft-introduced amendment to the coal bill. The amendment was rejected by the house of commons yesterday for the second time, constituting one of the government's three victories.

The amendment would have spread miners' working hours over 90 hours in a fortnight instead of a straight 45-hour week, as at present.

Commons rejected the amendment by a substantial majority of 296 to 238, but the government's victory on one of the other two measures, both relating to the finance bill, was won by only three votes.

That was on a motion proposed by E. L. Bergen, liberal member, which was rejected 278 to 275. The government would have been defeated if several liberals had not abstained from voting.

Burgin introduced his motion after the commons, by a vote of 278 to 156, had rejected another finance motion by the liberal member, Major H. L. Nathan.

Continue Search For Howard Lamel

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—The belief that Howard Lamel, 18, lost his footing and plunged to death down the steep east side of Mt. Whitney, was strengthened today when searchers no longer were able to find foot prints of the missing youth.

A trail which trackers had been following through the snowpatches and up the rugged side of the mountain, ended suddenly today at the base of the uppermost ascent.

Searchers prepared to divert their attention to the crevassed rock below, hope that young Lamel ever will be found alive having virtually subsided.

The youth was lost last Saturday when he separated from a group of companions with whom he was scaling Mt. Whitney. He planned to attempt the difficult east side of the peak while the balance of the party took the easier west side.

GIRL CLAIMS LOVER FORCED HER TO TAKE POISON WHEN SHE REFUSED TO MARRY HIM

Forced to swallow poison from the hand of her supposed lover, Miss Louise Goemer, maid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Loescher of 910 East Chapman avenue in Orange, was recovering this morning from the strange happenings at the Loescher home last night.

According to available information, Carl Becker, recent arrival from Germany and unable to speak English, had called on the maid yesterday evening. After leaving, he returned, took some tools from the Loescher garage and pried off the screen to the window of the maid's room. He then asked the girl to marry him and when she refused, he made her swallow poison from a bottle.

Miss Goemer was found this morning in a very serious condition and Dr. W. S. Wallace was summoned. After using a stomach pump to extract the poison, the young girl recovered sufficiently to tell her story. She also is a recent arrival from Germany, coming here last September.

Police authorities have been unable to trace Becker, although every effort is being made to locate him.

Guggenheim to Aid Work On Rockets

NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—For 15 years Professor H. Goddard has been experimenting with rockets to discover for science the mysteries of extreme altitudes.

His tests have proved so successful that Daniel Guggenheim has announced a grant to aid him in continuing the work. Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh is a member of the committee under whose direction further experiments will be made.

Although the immediate object of his rocket tests was to develop a means of getting information about altitudes of from 25 to 250 miles above the earth, Goddard feels that inter-planetary communication by means of large rockets is not impossible.

PAROLE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO TWO RADICALS

Billings Joins Mooney In Declaring That Full Pardon Wanted

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—(UP)—Warren K. Billings, the obscure member of the Mooney-Billings combination, today joined Tom Mooney in declaring that a parole from prison is not desired.

The statement was made in commenting on the recent act of the supreme court in refusing to recommend him for a pardon, this being followed by Gov. C. C. Young's refusal to grant Mooney a pardon.

Mooney has said many times during the years he has been in San Quentin that he does not want a parole, that a pardon or nothing was his goal.

Billings never before committed himself on the parole phase, although his applications for freedom have been requests for a full pardon and not for a parole.

Makes Statement

Billings' statement was made at Folsom prison where he has been for 14 years since conviction of complicity in the 1916 preparedness day bombing at San Francisco.

SHIP BODY OF FILM STAR TO NEW YORK

HOLLYWOOD, July 10.—(UP)—The body of Archie Selwyn jr., 19-year-old son of the noted theatrical producer, will be taken to New York for burial, upon the arrival here of his mother, now flying from the east.

The youth died late yesterday at the Hollywood hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident July 4, when he sustained concussion of the brain. An inquest was to be held today.

Selwyn junior, despite his youth, already had begun a motion picture career as an aide to Samuel Goldwyn, film producer.

Mystery Wound May Solve Murder

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—(UP)—A seemingly incongruous head wound led police today to believe that an aged man found dead at the foot of Van Ness avenue may have been murdered before he was thrown from the docks.

Papers found on the body established his identity as John Thurman, 65, of Oakland.

Besides a broken leg and internal injuries, indicating that he may have fell from the docks, there was a gaping head wound, which detectives believed was caused by a gunshot.

Other papers on the body contained such phrases as "you'll have to answer questions if you want the money."

Chas. Carroll Suicides By Taking Poison

Body of Wealthy Man Is Found in Den of His Home By Employe

CHARLES CARROLL, 40, wealthy and prominent Anaheim rancher and member of the pioneer family of Carrols at the Mother Colony, committed suicide yesterday afternoon, although the means used had not been determined this afternoon by Coroner Charles D. Brown and Sheriff Sam Jernigan, who were making an investigation of the case.

The body was found this morning by a Mrs. Pazle, who resides on the Carroll ranch, on Lincoln boulevard, just at the city limits of Anaheim. She called J. D. Wallace, Ed Pullman and Paul Yoriby, employes of the ranch and they in turn notified the sheriff's office.

Mr. Carroll's body was lying in the den of his home on a couch. That he had been dead for approximately 15 hours was determined through a statement made by Tim Carroll, his nephew, to the effect that he saw his uncle lying on the couch late yesterday afternoon, but thought he was asleep and did not disturb him.

Leaves Note

All doubt about the death being other than suicide has been removed with the finding of a note left by Carroll, addressed to his wife, Mrs. Rose Carroll, who at the present time is visiting relatives in Maryland, according to Coroner Brown.

According to the coroner, the note simply asked his wife to forgive him for the deed, stating that he was ill and despondent. There had been no family trouble and Carroll and his wife were on the best of terms, Brown said.

Took Poison

Carroll ended his life with some kind of poison in the opinion of Sheriff Jernigan and Coroner Brown, although there was nothing found in the way of a container near the body. Coroner Brown said that the body probably would be posted this afternoon to determine the kind of poison used.

The body has been taken to the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral parlors at Anaheim, and Coroner Brown said that in view of the note left by the man, that he probably would not hold an inquest.

Carroll was the son of Tim Carroll, pioneer of Orange county and well known throughout the state. He was the inventor of the present method of loading beets into railroad cars and his invention made him known throughout the beet growing communities of the nation.

YELLOW-BIRD FLIER SUES FOR DIVORCE

PARIS, July 10. — (UP)—The trans-Atlantic romance of Jean Assolant and Pauline Parker, which started at Old Orchard Beach in Maine, ended in a Paris divorce court today with all concerned agreed that a divorce decree would be granted in eight days.

Lawyers for both Assolant, who piloted the Yellow Bird on a flight across the Atlantic ocean, and his wife, who formerly was a New York chorus girl, argued separate divorce suits, the result of quarrels between the couple.

Mme. Assolant has been in Paris since shortly after the successful flight of the Yellow Bird.

YOUNG SCORED IN MOONEY DECISION

NEW YORK, July 10.—Governor C. C. Young's refusal, in California, to pardon Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings brought a denunciation today from the Socialist party as "a thinly disguised act of vengeance."

Comparing the action to "the frightened and defiant conduct of Governor Fuller in the Sacco-Vanzetti case," Morris Hillquit, national chairman of the party, declared:

"When a ruling class becomes brutal and reckless in dealing with its opponent it is always an infallible symptom of weakness. The cases of Sacco-Vanzetti and Money and Billings may yet serve to stimulate a powerful movement of revolt against the powers of oppression and injustice."

RESIGNATION OF HUSTON IS MISSING

PROMISES REPORT

Two Hour Session Today Is Adjourned at Noon Until Later In Afternoon

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(UP)—The meeting of Republican leaders here with Claudius H. Huston, chairman of the national committee, recessed for lunch shortly after noon today, after a two hour session. Huston promised a statement later today. The session was to reconvene at 2 o'clock.

Huston declined to say whether the statement would touch upon his resignation, which is demanded by Republican leader.

The chairman in a conference with newspaper men after the morning meeting, said the subject of his resignation was not mentioned, and said that if it is brought up at the afternoon session today I will release a written statement to the press."

"Will that statement touch on the subject of your resignation?" he was asked.

"I haven't anything to say about that now," the chairman replied. "I will issue my statement later."

After the morning session, Daniel E. Pomeroy, N. J., vice-chairman of the committee, James Francis Burke, general counsel and J. R. Nutt, treasurer, went to the White House to report to the president. Others present at the meeting were J. Matt Chilton, Kentucky national committeeman, Earle S. Kinseley, Vermont national committeeman, Senator Moses, New Hampshire and Representative Wood, Indiana, chairmen of the senatorial and congressional campaign committees, respectively.

Administration Upheld In Vote On London Pact

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(UP)—The senate overwhelmingly supported the administration today in the first test vote on the London treaty by voting 38 to 17 to modify the McKellar resolution which would have made an unqualified demand upon President Hoover for production of secret papers pertaining to the London treaty.

The senate adopted an amendment by Democratic Floor Leader Robinson, Arkansas, a London conference delegation requesting that the president submit only documents whose publication would be compatible with the public interest.

The amended resolution was adopted, 53 to 4.

Arraign Carroll For "Vile" Show

NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—Earl Carroll will have to wait until tomorrow to learn whether he must stand trial on a charge of exposing too much female epidermis on the stage of the new Amsterdam theater where his "Vanities" are playing to crowded houses.

His hearing was postponed until 11 a. m. tomorrow, when called today in Jefferson Market court. Carroll, true to his promise to surrender, appeared in court with Jimmy Savo, chief comedian, and seven other members of the cast, who were arrested after the matinee yesterday.

Alfred Beekman, Carroll's counsel, pleaded for more time to study the complaint which charged violation of the statute against presenting a "vile and indecent theatrical performance."

NO SUMMER MEETINGS

PLACENTIA, July 10.—No social meetings will be held by the auxiliary of the Placentia American Legion post during July and August, it was decided at the regular business meeting held in the chamber of commerce hall Tuesday evening.

Routine business was taken care of and plans were completed to attend the state convention at Sacramento. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, August 12.

Allocate $100,000 Of Delinquent Tax Collections

PAYMENTS FOR YEAR APPROACH 100 PER CENT

Of the total amount of $125,105.57 which was collected through the office of County Auditor W. C. Jerome during the fiscal year which closed June 30, as redemption of delinquent taxes, a report prepared by Lester Eckels, deputy auditor, shows that $101,866.13 has been apportioned to various county funds. The balance, according to Jerome, goes to the various cities and special funds whose tax collections are handled through the county. The amount collected during the past year was $21,745.28 greater than that collected through the same channels in the previous year, when the total was $103,360.29.

The payments made on delinquent taxes bring collections for the year 1928-29 almost to the 100 per cent figure in many localities. Search of the accounts reveals that of the taxes for the city of Santa Ana in 1928-29 only one seventh of one per cent of the total taxes levied remains outstanding on the books and unpaid. This amount to $508.85. In Placentia, the uncollected balance amounts to only $11, according to the county auditor.

The cities which share in the distribution of the delinquent taxes and the amounts they receive are as follows: Santa Ana—city, $6,603.02; street improvements, $11,332.01; weed tax, $464.12. Fullerton—city, $1889.57; street lighting, $59.27; weed tax, $28.74. Seal Beach—city, $342.87; street improvements, $440.84; weed tax, $35.33. Laguna Beach—$552.64. Laguna Beach water district, $1106.59. San Clemente—$185.21. La Habra, $65.85. Placentia, $5.72. Tustin, $127.66.

The apportionment to county funds as shown includes the following amounts: county general, $59,212.73; county school, $31,391.59; cemetery districts, $389.92; fire districts, $250.84; county free library, $279.02; special drainage districts, $3302.37; special protection districts, $1237.63; special road improvement districts, $1673.03; special sanitary districts, $767.87; and special county improvement districts, $1713.36. There were also several other accounts which received part of the amount realized from the collection of delinquent taxes, including lighting districts.

MC GEAN SUSPENDED BY STOCK EXCHANGE

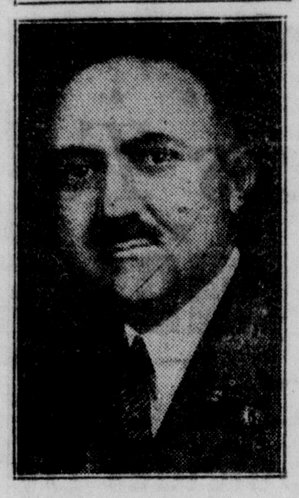
NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—James H. McGean, floor member of Sutro and company, one of the largest commission houses in the country, was suspended today from the New York stock exchange for three years, according to an announcement from the rostrum of the exchange.

Sutro and company were immediately retired as clearing members which practically eliminates the firm from stock exchange privileges. Logan and Bryan company will assume open exchange contracts of Sutro and company, the announcement said.

Sutro and company in addition to local offices have branches in Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco.

HONOR GUEST

O. D. Brundige, international president of the Loyal Knights of the Round Table was the guest of the local table at a dinner at Ketner's cafe this noon.



HEAD OF ROUND TABLE HONORED BY LOCAL CLUB

O. D. Brundige, of Dallas, Tex., international president of the Loyal Knights of Round Table, was the guest of honor at the noon-day luncheon of the Santa Ana Round Table held today at Ketner's cafe. The occasion was enhanced by the presence of visitors from the Long Beach and Los Angeles tables. A. G. Green, president of the local organipation, presided.

Today's meeting was a repetition of the customary spirit of good fellowship that has long been identified with the social activities of the Santa Ana table. The usual jokes and bits of horse play, in which even Brundige took an eager part, dominated throughout.

Brundidge's address was confined to a resume of the work the order of Loyal Knights of the Round Table is doing not only in this country but in Canada and Mexico as well. He congratulated the Santa Ana table on its progressive spirit and cited as an instance the manner in which the organization helped to make possible the boys camp at Osceola.

"The splindid work the Santa Ana Round Table has done in promoting the interests of those boys who otherwise wouldn't have been able to take advantage of the summer outing, is in itself a true criterion of the sort of things we naturally expect from those who will continue to carry on the standards and principles of our organization."

International President Brundige also reviewed the work of the Phoenix Round Table and the part it has played in helping those tubercular victims who have migrated to the vicinity of Phoenix, hoying that through its beneficial climate, they may be restored to health. He said that the Phoenix table had acquired funds among its own membership and with this money built homes and provided food and clothing for those unfortunates who had no income.

Mr. Brundige closed by saying "Once you visit Southern California, you can't help wanting to come back. I want to thank you for the many kindnesses you have extended me."

In addition to Mr. Brundiges' talk there were short addresses by George Roalfe and G. H. Burlinghame of Long Beach, and Joseph A. Clemmons, lieut. governor of District No. 2, from Los Angeles.

Two well rendered vocal selections by James H. Sewell brought forth rounds of applause. Mr. Sewell was accompanied on the piano by Miss Helen Lutz.

A highlight of today's meeting was the formal welcome tendered seven new members recently admitted into Knighthood. This ceremony was in charge of James H. Sewell and Herman Powell. Those upon whom this honor was conferred were Dr. Edwin D. Kilbourne, Frederick Eley, Lynn Crawford, Al Jones, Earl Wyman, Elmo N. Owen, W. H. Wright, and Walter Swansberger. The latter newcomer was unable to attend in person but his application was read by Secretary Clarence Oleson and endorsed by the assemblage.

It was also announced that the Rev. O. W. Reinus, pastor of the Bridgeville Avenue Methodist church, and delegate to the national convention at Milwaukee, will leave here Monday via plane for the convention city.

Next week, Earl Wyman is scheduled to give an address. Another musical program, in keeping with the occasion, is being arranged.

Last night, 17 members of the Santa Ana Round Table journeyed to Hollywood to participate in the charter program of the recently organized Hollywood Round Table. A pretentious program, enlivened by the presence of President Brundige, marked the formal admittance of the motion picture colony table.

Santa Ana was represented in the musical entertainment by Miss Kathryn Kilbourne who presented two violin solos. Miss Kilbourne was accompanied on the piano by Franz Darvis, well known musician of Los Angeles.

Pearls are produced by meleagrina (speckled) oysters only, the products of others being declared not genuine by a recent decree in French courts.

that I will get a parole if I ask for it.

"Aside from everything else, I do not deserve a parole in the eyes of the law. I am not penitent, not contrait. I am not sorry. I have done nothing wrong so I cannot be penitent."

Another reason for not wishing to ask for a parole, Billings said, was that he desired to talk with Tom Mooney, who is in San Quentin. The "talk" would be through mutual friends.

Claims Innocence

"Tom and I have been prisoners for 14 years for a crime in which neither of us is guilty," Billings said. I won't change my plans until I hear of Tom's desires."

Billings refused to become excited about the search for John McDonald, waiter witness who helped send him to prison and who later, by affidavit, repudiated the testimony.

In refusing Mooney's pardon Governor suggested that McDonald be returned to California and tell his repudiation story to the state supreme court. The supreme court, in refusing to recommend Billings' pardon application and Governor Young, in denying Mooney's pardon application, placed faith in McDonald's trial testimony but declined to believe the repudiation affidavit.

ANAHEIM OPENS BIDS ON ROAD CONSTRUCTION

ANAHEIM, July 10.—Opening of bids on bonds for the proposed Lincoln avenue and West Center street improvement projects at the Anaheim city council meeting Tuesday evening resulted in the offering of a premium of $226 for a bond issue of $39,274.85, against acquisition and imprvoement district number two, for the purchase by condemnation proceedings of property to permit the widening of West Center street between Palm and West streets, Redfield, Van Evera and company of Los Angeles being the low bidders and consequently were awarded the issue.

G. W. Bond and Son of Santa Ana were awarded the issue of $16,700 for acquisition and improvement district number three, the widening of Lincoln avenue from West street to the city limits. The premium offered was $11. This same company bid $181 for the above issue.

Other business included in the session was the second and final reading of a new fire hazard prevention ordinance No. 542, regulating the inspection of the fire hazards and prohibiting the transfer of gasoline over certain streets in the business section. The ordinance was passed.

Specifications calling for bids on 15,000 pounds of copper wire, 2000 feet of black and white wire, and 2500 feet of cable were approved and city clerk was authorized to advertise for bids on same to be opened at 8 p. m. Tuesday, August 12.

Approval was made of an agreement with the United States Industrial Alcohol corporation for the leasing of a parcel of land for the purpose of erecting a chlorinator for city use. Approval was also made by resolution of a deed to property sought by the city for alley purposes, north of West Center street and east of North West street, from Jacob and Lydia Wittmer.

Reports from the various departments were heard. Outstanding among which was the report through the accounting department of L. E. Middleton, manager of the city plunge, which revealed that 4425 persons had availed themselves of the use of the plunge during June, with total receipts of $576.10.

Continue Quiz Of Bay City Murderer

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10. —(UP)—The preliminary examination of Theodore Cilley, 20, confessed slayer of David Lindsay, continued today, with the probability that it will be concluded before night.

Cilley, former inmate of Preston Reform school, pleaded guilty to murder yesterday. H esaid that he went for a drive with Lindsay, held him up and shot him when Lindsay tried to flee the automobile. He then put him back in the car and drove to Fleishhacker pool, where he threw him out and escaped in Lindsay's car.

public announcement on their future policies, and the result was that today gasoline on the Pacific coast sold approximately as follows: San Francisco, 11 to 14 cents; Portland, 8½ to 12 cents; Seattle, 11 to 13; San Joaquin valley cities, 8 to 10. Prices included three cents tax in California and four cents in Oregon and Washington.

"Utter chaos," was the description of the war by garage owners in San Francisco. C. F. Butterick, of the San Francisco Garage Owners' association, said, "Tank wagon prices vary hourly. Many more days of such business will force many station owners to the wall."

Observers of the situation regarded the recent gas conservation program inaugurated in California as the underlying cause of the war.

Producers Join

Major companies agreed on a plan of production curtailment designed to prevent the profligate waste of gas resources. In taking crude oil from the ground millions of feet of natural gas were being blown into the air daily in California fields.

Practically all the producers joined the move, but some few refused and continued unstinted production. This failure to cooperate, it was believed, may have led to the coast gas war, starting in Los Angeles and spreading elsewhere.

Equipped with storage facilities to care for surplus stocks, and well backed financially, major companies are able to stand the war, but the smaller independents are being slowly forced out of business, officials of the latter charged. MacMillan's statement asserted the war "obviously was to injure competitors."

Washington was not a member of the Continental Congress when the Declaration of Independence was adopted and consequently he neither voted for it nor signed it.

China has passed a factory law restricting employment of women and children and establishing an eight-hour day for adults.

LODGE LEADERS ARE INSTALLED IN GETTY HALL

At an interesting meeting of Wah Conda council, No. 202, Improved Order of Red Men, held last night in Getty hall, new officers for the coming year were installed, with Florence Mackel as Pocahontas, the head of the official staff.

A degree team whose members were assembled from various Los Angeles branches of the order, put on the installation work in a manner that elicited much praise.

Officers installed to serve with Mrs. Mackel, were Jennie Lewis, prophetess; Bertha Thorp, Wenonah; John Kolb, Powhatan; Grace Gettle, keeper of records; Jewel Jameson, keeper of wampum; Aura Hunton, collector of wampum; Gladys McDonald, Florence Merriman and Charlotte Adams, first, second and third trustees; Persis Branson, first scout; Lucille Carter, second scout; Maynard Thorp, Frank Hess, Laurence McMinamin and Nate Dunstan, first, second, third and fourth warriors, respectively; Julia Ann Hess, first runner; Alberta Duryea, second runner; Nellie Dunstan, first councillor; Dorothy Kolb, second councillor; C. C. Lewis, guard of tepee, and Morris Mackel, guard of forest.

The most distinguished guest of the evening was Lotta Hughes, of Majella council, Los Angeles, a past Grand Pocahontas, who remained for the evening of dancing which followed the business session. Refreshments were served as a finale.

RESIDENT HERE FOR 29 YEARS ANSWERS CALL

Santa Ana, and Lester Tubbs, both of whom reside in this city.

Mrs. Tubbs was born at Plano, Ill., in 1857. Accompanied by her family, she came to Santa Ana from Emerson in 1901, and had continued her residence here during that time.

She was a member and past matron of Hermosa Chapter, O.E.S., and was a life member of the Ebell club.

Mrs. Tubbs was the widow of W. L. Tubbs, who was prominent here in civic affairs prior to his death in 1909. He was a charter member of the Santa Ana lodge of Elks and was the first exalted ruler. Membership card No. 1 was issued to him by the local lodge.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

The fact that you may not believe in the sort of a future life which some of your neighbors expect, does not mean that you do not believe in any life beyond the grave.

It is futile to attempt to draw a picture of an existence of which you do not know the details.

Form your own conception of Paradise, if you choose, but do not stiflie your instinctive conviction that your dear one lives and loves and knows. True love binds souls together forever and your lives can never become completely separated.

Each one of you goes on developing the finer qualities of your natures and at length you shall walk together again.

TUBBS—In Santa Ana, July 9, Mrs. Alice Nancy Tubbs, aged 73 years, Mrs. Tubbs, who had been a resident of Santa Ana for nearly 30 years, was the widow of W. L. Tubbs. She is survived by two sons, John W. and W. Lester Tubbs, both of this city. No services will be held here, services and interment to be in Emerson, Ia., under auspices of the Order of Eastern Star. Shipment from the Winbigler Funeral home. It has been requested that friends knidly omit flowers.

KAI—Passed away July 9th, 1930, Koichi Kai, age 7 years, of Stanton, Calif. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. at the Japanese Church, Bolsa, near Garden Grove road, under the direction of Harrell & Brown. Cremation Sunnyside Mausoleum, Long Beach.

INQUEST WILL BE CONDUCTED IN BEACH CITY

F. P. Rowland, 76, of Smeltzer, who was fatally injured yesterday morning when he was reported to have been run down by an automobile driven by J. W. (Pinky) Williams, of 910 Orange avenue, Huntington Beach, died yesterday afternoon at the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

Death was said to have been due to a fractured skull and internal injuries. The body was removed to the Dixon Funeral parlors at Huntington Beach, where Coroner Charles D. Brown said he would hold an inquest this afternoon.

Rowland had stepped across the road near his home to get his mail from the box at the time of the accident. He hesitated and Williams, thinking that he would wait until the car passed, did not stop his car. Rowland then stepped out in front of it. according to a report made here.

The injured man was taken to Dr. Hawes' hospital at Huntington Beach for first aid treatment and then was removed to the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

Beulah Brightwell Secures Judgment

On stipulation of counsel, Judge G. K. Scovel today rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the damage action of Beulah Brightwell vs. G. P. Barus, et al, in amount of $219. The plaintiff had brought suit in superior court asking damages in the amount of $525 for alleged failure to carry out an agreement to purchase certain property on East Fourth street in Santa Ana.

The agreement was entered into on Dec. 23, 1929, according to the plaintiff, and a check for $20 was given as a down payment. This check later was returned marked "account closed" and other terms of the agreement for sale of the property were not complied with, the plaintiff asserted.

BOY DIES AFTER FALL FROM TRUCK

Kaichi Kai, 6-year-old Japanese boy, who was seriously injured Wednesday when he fell from a truck, near Anaheim, died at the Orange County hospital last night, from a fractured skull and possible internal injuries.

The body was taken to the Harrell and Brown Funeral parlors here, where Coroner Charles D. Brown announced that he would hold an inquest at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The child was not believed to be fatally injured when first taken to the hospital, although a skull fracture was apparent, it was said. The lad was riding on a truck with his father when he tumbled to the pavement.

Car Theft Suspect Is Arrested After Chase By Officer

Suspected of grand theft, William F. A. Cullen, 19, of the Waldorf hotel, Los Angeles, was arrested this morning by Motorcycle Officer Lentz and is being held in the county jail. The car he was driving at the time was said to have been registered to Alex Lopez, of Agua Caliente.

Suspicion was drawn to Cullen when he speeded through Santa Ana, officers said. Lentz chased him from Seventeenth and Main streets almost to Orana before the arrest was made.

Cullen claimed that he borrowed the machine from Lopez early this morning and was on his way home in Los Angeles.

Injured Stanton Man Jailed For Asserted Assault

Rafael Lopez, 39, of Stanton, who has been in the Orange county hospital for the past several weeks, recuperating from knife wounds alleged to have been received in a Mexican brawl at Talbert, today was removed to the Orange county jail, where he is being held on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Lopez is said to have shot Ignacio Savala, also of Talbert, through the head, during the fight. Savala also was in the hospital, but recovered sooner than Lopez. Officers declare they do not know who stabbed Lopez but are not of the opinion that it was Savala, who is not being held by officers.

Police News

Reginald Placentia, wanted in Los Angeles county on a charge of violation of his parole, was arrested by Santa Ana police officers, Wolford and Adams, at noon today and was lodged in the county jail. He was found at Fourth and French streets. Placentia has been the object of a search for the past three months, officers said.

Charged with non-support, Leland Saunders, 22, of Norwalk, was arrested by Officers Mozley and Forgy of the sheriff's office this morning and lodged in the county jail.

OFFICERS MEET LAST NIGHT IN SAN CLEMENTE

A dinner meeting of the Orange County Peace Officers association was held yesterday at 6:30 p. m. at the Travaglini cafe in San Clemente. Following the dinner hour, the gathering adjourned to the Social club, where a number of interesting talks and a program of musical entertainment were presented. Chief John Stanton, of Tustin, presided, while Hal Warner, of San Clemente, was program chairman.

Mayor Thomas Murphine, in one of the principal addresses, stressed the importance of courtesy being employed at all times by police officers in their attitude towards the public. Capt. Fred Vallejo, police superintendent of this district, also delivered an interesting talk on the necessity of the schooling of officers at Sacramento if the public is to be afforded any degree of uniform state law enforcement.

Captain Henry Meehan, head of the California highway patrol of Orange county, was another speaker, as were two representatives of the Peoria and Missouri Mutual Life Insurance companies.

Included among the prominent guests who took an active part in the program were Sheriff Sam Jernigan, Sam Collins, candidate for district attorney, Bert West, present district attorney, W. F. Menton, and Lew Wallace. Here and there throughout the audience a generous gathering of ladies was observed.

A report on the proceeds of the vaudeville show held recently at Anaheim was given, showing a large profit.

Walker Case To Be Heard Today

The case of Jack Walker, Santa Ana man who manages Jimmy Rivers and several other well known Santa Ana boxers, was continued in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning until this afternoon.

Walker is charged with grand theft in connection with the alleged theft of a high priced automobile. He was arrested on a warrant at Denver, Colo., several days ago and returned to Santa Ana by sheriff's officers.

The complaining witness in the case is Eugene Douglas, of Fullerton.

Many changes are noted in the ratings of candidates in the big Fox-West Coast-Santa Ana Daily Register popularity contest, following the second counting of ballots last night.

Mario Mercurio, who led last week, again holds the top position among the boys with 241,050, doubling his number of votes since last week, while Norman Paul, who was in second place last week, showed considerable strength during the week. Ted Newcomb, a newcomer want into third place.

Sue Verburg, Santa Ana American Legion Drum corps candidate, went into first place in the girls' division with 92,350 votes, while Luvina Layton Schade took second place in the contest, just 10,000 votes behind the leader.

Dorothy Aileen Loyd, who was the leader of the girls at the end of the first counting, was down to third place in the contest, although all three of the leaders were in a bunch at the top of the column.

Ballots in the contest are to be counted each Wednesday and Saturday and the standings of the candidates given at that time, it was announced by Norman Sprowl, Fox theaters manager, who is conducting the contest.

Three New Entries

Three new candidates entered the contest late yesterday and will be in the running by the time the ballots are counted next time, hey announced. The new candidates are: Everett Conkright, of 356 South Center street, Orange; Martin Bowman, of Mitchell avenue, Tustin, and Marjorie Adams, of 1220 South Ross street.

With the additional candidates, there are now a total of 24 entries in the big prize winning campagn, a total of 14 girls and 10 boys. Several more are expected within the next few days.

The contest is just getting under way. It runs until August 24, and there is plenty time for any contestant to get into the campaign and win. The contest is only 10 days old at this time.

Nine big prizes have been offered, the first prize being leading parts in a big feature motion picture which is to be made in Santa Ana by the Fox West Coast theaters. Votes can be obtained by purchases from any of the merchants offering prizes in the contest, through subscriptions to the Santa Ana Register and through admission tickets to the two Fox theaters here.

IN SECOND PLACE

BRIDE WHOSE 'DOUBLE' GOT LICENSE FOR HER TO SOLVE PUZZLE WITH NEW MARRIAGE

Solution of a tangle that developed recently when one girl substituted for another at the office of County Clerk J. M. Backs in securing a marriage license, seems to be well under way, according to developments today.

Hassell Maguire, 17-year-old Whittier girl, whose anxiety to marry Frank Stratton, 21, also of Whittier, in spite of parental objection, led to the application for the legal papers by her chum, Ophelia Montgomery, who used the Maguire girl's name, has filed again through the clerk's office, this time appearing in person. The first effort resulted in conferences with the district attorney's office by the Maguire girl's father, who signed a complaint in the matter, after his daughter and Stratton had been married on the papers obtained by the appearance of the Montgomery girl in place of the bride-to-be.

Re-marriage after securing the legal documents in the regular manner, was the solution recommended by authorities as the best way out of the tangle, and the fact that the couple has filed the notice of intention to marry is regarded as proof that this advice is being followed.

New Libel Trial Will Be Sought

Included on a full calendar for superior court tomorrow is the motion of Attorneys W. F. Menton and Nick Meyers on behalf of Charles Carillo for a new trial of his libel action filed against the Orange County Printing and Publishing company, publishers of the Register, which Carrillo lost several months ago, after a trial in superior court before Judge Ruben H. Schmidt, of Los Angeles. Judgment in the case was entered for the defendants by the court and costs totaling $434 were assessed against Carrillo. A motion to re-tax the costs is also scheduled to be heard tomorrow.

TUSTIN JUNIOR BOOSTERS HEAR J. C. NAPERMAN

J. C. Haperman, of San Clemente, addressed members of the Tustin Junior Chamber of Commerce in the K. of P. hall last night. Haperman, a world traveler, spoke on the progressiveness of the people, and their future prosperity.

The meeting was in charge of A. H. Holford, president, who also introduced Mr. Stateler, of Los Angeles, a representative of the Union Metal company, who spoke on "Ornamental Lighting Systems." His speech was heartily endorsed by memebrs, who went on record as suggesting a new lighting system for Tustin. It was also voted to install a new sewerage system in Tustin in the near future.

A good attendance was recorded, as the meeting was open to the public.

HUME WEST HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Hume West, 27, son of Attorney L. A. West, of 2117 Victoria drive, was badly injured at 9:30 o'clock last night when the automobile he was driving ran off the road and crashed into a telephone pole on Ocean avenue, west of Garden Grove.

He was brought to the Santa Ana Valley hospital, where it was said he suffered a fractured jaw and severe cuts and bruises about the head. His skull was not fractured.

West was alone at the time, on his way to Long Beach. Another machine forced him from the road and in trying to turn back onto the pavement, the car left the highway and struck the telephone pole, it was reported.

Court Notes

C. A. Branch today filed a complaint against Lena Branch, asking the court to dissolve the bonds of matrimony. The plaintiff charges desertion as basis for the granting of a divorce.

The trial of Kathryn Sullivan vs. G. C. Richardson, W. A. McCord, S. H. Woodruff and the Dana Point company, in which the plaintiff seeks $20,250 as damages for injuries sustained in an automobile accident, got under way today in the court of Judge James L. Allen. The accident occurred Jan. 30, 1930, at the intersection of Tustin and Fairhaven roads when cars operated by McCord and Richardson crashed. It is alleged that McCord was an agent for the Dana Point organization. Mrs. Sullivan, who was riding in the McCord car, is alleged to have sustained severe and painful injuries, including three fractures of the pelvis. She is represented in court by Col. M. B. Wellington.

The jury which heard the evidence in the trail of the damage action brought by Price Bullock against G. H. Morrison, in which the plaintiff is seeking to recover $21,000 for alleged malicious prosecution, received the instructions of Judge G. K. Scovel and retired to consider its verdict at 10:30 o'clock this morning, but had not returned a verdict at noon.

The United States frigate "Constitution" maintained American rights on every ocean and sailed 500,000 miles in her 84 years of active service. The ship was one of the first three built for the American Navy.

EXCESS ACID SICKENS—GET RID OF IT!

Sour stomach, indigestion, gas. These are signs which usually mean just one thing; excess acid. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. Too much acid is making food sour in the stomach and intestines.

The way to correct excess acid is with an alkali. The best form of alkali for this purpose is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Just take a spoonful of this harmless, almost tasteless preparation in a glass of water. It works instantly. The stomach becomes sweet. You are happy again in five minutes! Your heartburn, gas, headache, biliousness or indigestion has vanished!

Know Phillips Milk of Magnesia and you're through with crude methods forever. It is the pleasant way—the efficient way to alkalinize the system; to relieve the effects of over-acidity.

Phillips Milk of Magnesia has been standard with doctors for over 50 years. 25c and 50c bottles at all drug stores. Be sure you get the genuine.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered trade mark of the Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—Adv.

HER ESSAY WINS

Lona Barry, eighth grade, San Clemente grammar school student, whose essay on "Temperance," won the city, county and state honors. Her essay was entered in national W. C. T. U. contest.

In 1902 a 100-mile automobile endurance test was held on Long Island. The average speed was about 15 miles an hour.

ANNUAL CHURCH CONCLAVE WILL BEGIN FRIDAY

The First Evangelical church of Santa Ana, of which the Rev. E. W. Matz, is pastor, will observe its annual summer assembly July 11 to 20 at the Evangelical church assembly grounds, Bristol and Fairhaven streets. Bishop L. H. Seager, D. D., of La Mars, Ia., has been secured as the assembly speaker.

The conference will open formally tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. and full programs have been arranged to follow for the next two weeks. Starting Monday, the California convention will be in session and there will be point meetings afternoon and evening. Mrs. L. H. Seager will be the special assembly speaker and in addition other well known figures in the church world will grace the various programs.

Bishop Seager will conduct daily Bible studies, chief among the themes selected for these sessions being "The Supreme Imperative," "The Conservation of Faith," "The Soul's Answer to Love," and "How to Live in This Present World." More than ordinary interest has been aroused in their feature of the assembly and it is assured that large audiences will greet Bishop Seager.

The annual assembly serves to combine the camp meeting with a joint convention of the Sunday school, Evangelical league, Woman's Missionary society and the School of Leadership Training. No detail has been overlooked by the committee in charge and one of the most successful conventions in years is openly predicted.

Sunday's program will commence with Sunday school at 9 a. m. followed by the regular morning service at 10:30 a. m. Bishop Seager will speak at this time. There also will be two additional services afternoon and evening, together with a young peoples meeting.

Various phases of educational church progress will be studied carefully and various methods devised to stress the widespread importance of conscientious religious training.

Ralph Stull Is Held To Answer

The case of Ralph Stull, Orange man, charged with failure to render aid after an automobile accident and with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was heard in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday afternoon, after which Stull was held to answer to the superior court on both counts. Bail of $1000 was demanded in each case, which the defendant made.

Stull was arrested by state traffic officers on July 4 after the car he was said to have been driving crashed into three Santa Ana persons at Newport Beach, injuring two Santa Ana girls.

ORANGE LIONS HEAR TALK ON BANK HISTORY

ORANGE, July 10.—Frank Was, of the Santa Ana branch of the Security First National of Los Angeles, was the speaker at the regular meeting of the Lions club here yesterday. Was spoke on banking, giving an interesting history of banking methods of the past and present. Roy Edwards was the program chairman.

It was announced that Joe Woodside, club secretary would leave Friday for the national convention in Denver, Colo.

In the absence of Dr. J. E. Riley, president, Ivan Swanger presided. Oscar Leichtfuss acted as song leader.

Police News

James S. Elliott, of 116 East Chestnut street, reported to police last night that a man had been seen peeping into the windows of his home for the past several nights.

Fayette D. Blower, of 1720 Poinsettia street, reported to police last night that his automobile was stolen from a place on East Third street, where he had parked it.

Court Notes

G. A. Rathburn, arrested yesterday on a charge of disturbing the peace, was dismissed in the city police court later for lack of evidence.

Three motorists were fined a total of $75 in police court yesterday on speeding charges. They were Lenerde Martinez, Delhi, $25; Silverio Martinez, Los Angeles, $30, and Dawes Weber, of 116 East Fourth street, $20.

Charged with failure to observe the law regarding boulevard stops, Jess Fuller, Santa Ana, was fined $3 in police court yesterday, and George W. Maag and J. E. Melvin were fined $2 each on charges of violation of the city parking laws.

REPORT ATTACK OF PARALYSIS TODAY

Jane Flinn, 14, residing at the corner of Orange and Broadway, Costa Mesa, is the latest reported infantile paralysis patient, it was announced this morning by Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health offices. The girl's condition was reported favorable, although she has been placed under quarantine.

The condition of Jose Peralez, 12, Stanton, who wsa removed to the county hospital Tuesday in a serious condition, remains unchanged.

BREAKFASTERS HEAR TALENTED CHILD ARTISTS

A group of talented children entertained the members of the Breakfast club at its meeting this morning, when dancing, readings and musical numbers, the participants evidencing remarkable art in their respective parts.

The greater portion of the program was offered by pupils of Miss Gertrude Stebbins, operator of the Santa Ana School of the Dance and Expression. Mrs. T. R. Wood presided at the piano.

The entertainment included a reading, "Seeing Things at Night," by Gwendolyn Griffin; an old fashioned dance, and a recitation, "An Hen" by Betty Ellen Mitchell; readings, "Grandma Stepping Out For Tea," and "I Am An Uncle," Helen Nenbold; hula dance and mokery dance, by Lucille Andrew; military tap dance, Beverley Weindorff; and reading, "Betty at the Baseball Game," and a pianologue, Lois Nenhold.

The program was concluded with two well executed piano numbers by Olive Schweitzer, the talented little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweitzer. The little miss executed in excellent manner "Idylle in D Major" (Andre) and "The March of the Little Tin Soldiers" (Pierne).

Decision was made to put on an initiation at the meeting next Thursday morning and Jesse Elliott, P. S. Roper and R. G. Cartwright were named to the committee to complete the arrangements.

The program committee for the next meeting is composed of Jess Elliott, Sam Jernigan and Dave Wettlin, all candidates for office in the coming election.

TEMPERANCE UNIT MEETS IN CHURCH

Members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union heard Mrs. Elizabeth Clark review the life of Mary H. Hunt, founder of temperance instruction, at a meeting held recently in the Congregational church. There was an estimated attendance of 50.

Following Mrs. Clark's address, prizes were awarded the winners of the essay and poster contests which were sponsored by the local organization during the recent school year. Students in grades three and nine were eligible.

The essay contest was won by Ruth Dohner, whose work was favored over that of 3154 other aspirants. Miss Dohner was also awarded the county prize. The poster contest was won by Virginia Mustol. Both girls are ninth grade students in Santa Ana.

SPANISH NIGHT BAND PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Lovers of vividly colorful Spanish music and dancing are looking forward to the program which will be presented for public enjoyment in Birch park today at 7:30 p. m., by Santa Ana Municipal band, under the direction of D. C. Cianfoni.

"Spanish Night" will be featured at this time, with band selections chosen from the works of Spanish composers, while appearance of Miss Faustina Lucero, well known Spanish dancer, and Miss Louisita Yorba, soprano of San Gabriel Mission play, will be added features of special attraction.

The program that has been arranged by the band follows in full:

1—March—"La Sorella," Borel.

2—Overture—"Il Guarany," Gomes.

3—Suite Espagnole—"La Feria," Lacome, (a) Los Toros; (b) La Reja; (c) La Zarzuela.

6—Spanish dances—"La Jota," "Estudiantina," Miss Faustina Lucero.

7—(a) "Horas de Melancolia"; (b) "La Golondrina."

8—"Valse Espanita," Rosey.

GARDEN GROVE FARM CENTER WILL MEET

A meeting of the Garden Grove Farm center will be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the women's clubhouse of that place. A. A. Brock, county agricultural commissioner, will be the principal speaker and has chosen as his subject, "War on Pests." W. W. Cory, acting county farm advisor who is on the speaking program and his talk will deal with the "Underground Water Table."

A musical program has been arranged to precede the speakers and at the conclusion of the talks, refreshments will be served. Due to the unusual amount of interest created by these meetings a capacity turnout is assured.

MARATHON PASSES 350 HOURS TODAY

Still going strong and with new events coming up, the marathon contest at Third and Ocean avenue, Huntington Beach, passed its 350th hour of continuous motion at noon today. During the past week two more contestants dropped out, leaving eight couples still on the floor.

Every night the contest is broadcast over KREG for an hour's time.

Every night there will be a specialty number. Saturday night is always "whoopee" night. In addition to "whoopee" making on Saturday, July 12th, the manageemnt is going to sponsor a kiddie kar contest. The contest is open to anyone over 18 years of age. Contestants mustbring their own vehicles, and must be in good physical health. It is to last 30 hours, with a rest period of 20 minutes each hour.

The winner is to receive a silver loving cup. Contestants ride the baby cars around the same floor that the marathoners are using. Tuesday, July 15, will be a fashion show, featuring all the latest gowns. Wednesday night is athletic night, boxing, tumbling and other features. The program for Thursday will be announced over the radio.

DELEGATES TO BE PICKED BY LEGION GROUP

Election of delegates to the state convention of the American Legion at Sacramento August 17, 18 and 19, and nomination of candidates for officers of Santa Ana Post No. 131, American Legion, will feature the meeting of the organization to be held at the Legion hall, starting with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., today, to be served by the auxiliary.

Officers of the organization and those directing the campaign for new members will stress upon the membership tonight the necessity for increasing the membership by at least 35 if the post is to have the same number of accredited delegates to the convention as it had at the annual conference last year, according to Lester Steinkopf, second vice commander. The membership today stood at 590 with 625 necessary to entitle the post to 14 representatives, the number for last year. Steinkopf pointed out that July 17 is the last date upon which members can be admitted to have influence upon the number of official delegates.

"Self-introductory" buttons will passed to the members who attend tonight's meeting. Entertainment will be provided by the "Old Fiddlers."

Students Are To Tour Farm Areas Of Orange County

University of California students pursuing summer school work at the citrus experiment station at Riverside will hold a special session Saturday under the direction of Professor R. W. Hodgen, head of the division of sub-tropical horticulture.

The class will make an extended tour through various Orange county farm centers, chief among which will be a visit to the Santiago Orange Grower's association packing house and the San Joaquin Fruit ranch. A complete inspection of orange groves, avocado and persimmons plantings in the district will occupy a major portion of the day's program. It is also planned to visit the La Habra Heights district and the Orange county insectary.

The proposed tour of inspection is part of the summer school routine and affords students an opportunity to study at close hand conditions that might otherwise be merely a matter of classroom theory.

FREEDOM FROM STOMACH DISTRESS

Mateer's Drug Co. Has the Remedy and Gurantees it to End Indigestion or Gastritis

You can get one bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin and if after you take it you do not say it did you more good than anything you ever used before, your money will be waiting for you.

This delightful and effective elixir not only gives instant relief from gas, fullness, acid stomach and distress after eating, but taken regularly for a short time will turn your weak, run down stomach into a strong, healthy one able to perform its duties without help.

It ends indigestion, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach and does it in a surprisingly short period of time.

Dr. Wm. W. Morgan, a prominent dentist of Bridgeton, N. J., writes: "After suffering severely with gastritis and other stomach troubles, a friend gave me a bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin. I had obtained little relief from other remedies, but four bottles entirely ended the trouble." Get it at Mateer's Drug Co. and all regular druggists everywhere.—adv.

FIND McGUFFY READERS FROM MANY SOURCES

CHICAGO, July 10—The famous old McGuffey readers and spellers, contrary to popular opinion, are not extinct, although it has been many years since they were as much a part of the schoolroom as birch rods and slates.

The fact that these ancient educational aids still are saved, if not used, is attested to by the Ohio Society of Chicago, which has received more than 300 of the readers and spellers. They came by mail and even special messenger in response to an appeal published in newspapers of Ohio and other states offering to purchase the works collected and published by Professor William McGuffey.

These texts were wanted for an old fashioned school stunt to be used in conjunction with the recent "McGuffey Night" celebration of the society.

Charles E. Sherman, president of the society, was just as surprised as were the other members.

"We expected a few and we got hundreds," Sherman said, "some of them dating back to the '30s and '40s, with boyish inscriptions scrawled all over them.

"We have a letter from Miami university at Oxford, O., where McGuffey once was a professor stating that a copy too valuable to mail is on the way in the hands of a messenger."

Although the McGuffey readers contain many of the classic works still used in modern editions, they were more complete in content. They were styled "electic," in as much as their contents were culled from the works of many prominent writers. Thumbing through the pages, one could read the remarks on temperance of Henry Ward Beecher, a 'moral' story of Jacob Abbott, or a number of articles from domestic and foreign magazines.

Wadsworth, Bryan, and other contemporary poets were spread liberally through the pages of the early McGuffey. Scripture was sometimes deemed worthy of attention from the student of reading.

That pronunciation was a problem even in that early pre-radio age is shown in the inclusion of "errors" at the end of lessons in the readers. Pupils were warned to avoid saying 'kivered' when they meant covered. 'Tle' was likewise deplored as a careless substitute for the word, oil. And one was entirely out of order if he said 'jestice' instead of justice.

"Invaluable" Say Society Women

MELLO-GLO Face Powder is preferred by beautiful women because it leaves no trace of flakiness, pastiness or irritation. Stays on longer—no shiny noses! Made by a new French process—prevents large pores. Spreads more smoothly—gives a youthful bloom. Very pure. Use MELLO-GLO Face Powder. It's wonderful Santa Ana Drug Co.—Adv.

GRETA GARBO IN "ROMANCE"

An entirely new Greta Garbo is seen and heard in the star's newest all-talking picture, "Romance," which comes to the Fox Broadway theater here next week, starting Monday. Greta never has been seen in a role where she portrayed the demure type. In "Romance" she is just the opposite of the Garbo that the world knows. The film is said to be one of the best she ever has produced.

HALF MILLION GIVEN SCHOOL DISTRICT HERE

The Santa Ana high school district building fund was enriched by the amount of $519,715 today when a check for that amount was received by County Auditor W. C. Jerome for the bonds of this district which were delivered today to the representatives of the successful bidders, the National Bank of Italy company, the Anglo-London-Paris company and Weedon and company.

Jerome commented on the fact that the entire amount realized from the sale of the bonds, including the premium of $25,715, was made available for the building fund under the new school code, which was enacted by the 1929 state legislature. Previously the amount of the premium was required to be used in the fund for retirement of bonds and interest. The provision of the new code which makes the entire amount available for use of the district building program is contained in section 4.1026 on page 229 of the school code for California as compiled by the state superintendent of public instruction, Vierling Kersey, according to Jerome.

The county official also referred to the school code as authority for his recent statement that the high school tax rate was restricted to 75 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. "The code specifically sets up the limit in section 4.563 on page 201," Jerome said. "This section reads as follows: 'The total tax for high school purposes shall not exceed 75 cents on each $100 assessed valuation, exclusive of bond and interest rate'."

Prior to the enactment of the new school code, Jerome pointed out, the state supreme court made a ruling based on certain provisions of the political code, which held that the 75 cents limit held for the first year after the formation of a district but did not apply thereafter. The legislature specifically repealed the three sections of the political code on which the court based its ruling and set up the limit in the new code, on which there has as yet been no rulings, he stated.

Jerome declared that he did not render an opinion on the law, but that he had merely made a statement concerning the law as it stands on the statutes since the enactment of the school code by the last legislature.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wooley are entertaining as guests Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Dunn, Mrs. Delta Gregory and son Bill of Sultana. Mrs. Agnes Wooley of Prosi, mother of Mr. Wooley is spending the summer at the Wooley home, 305 Sixth street. Last week Mr. and Mrs. Wooley entertained Mrs. H. L. Owen and Orrell Owen of Riverdale, and Harry Owen of San Francisco.

Rev. John Condon of St. Simon and Jude's church announced this week that the hours of morning mass had been changed from 8 to 10 a. m. on Sunday mornings to the earlier hours of 7 and 9 a. m. Mass will be held each Sunday morning beginning Sunday July 13, first mass at 7 a. m. and second mass at 9 a. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Patterson of Greeley, Colo., were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Patrick, 643 Frankfort street. Mr. Patterson is county treasurer of Greeley county.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Norcroff of Beaumont were stopping at the hotel Evangeline last week. Mr. Norcroff is a prominent peach and cherry grower of Beaumont.

Mrs. Lillian Abbott of Corona is spending the summer at Huntington Beach and is stopping at the Hotel Evangeline.

B. H. Dulaney is entertaining his brother C. C. Dulaney and wife and son of Roanoak, Va., who are touring the Pacific coast in their auto. It is the first meeting of the brothers in 20 years. During the war one joined the navy and the other the army and they never met and since the war one has resided in the east and one in the west. The reunion was a keen pleasure to both the brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Long returend last week from a 10 days camping trip at Idlewild and Fullers Mill Creek camp, 11 miles above Idlewild. They report a wonderful trip. Mr. Long was the champion trout fisherman at the camp, having caught almost the limit each day, rainbow and speckled trout. Some of them measured 13 and 14 inches long. They report seeing lots of deer in the tall pine timber surrounding the camp.

Tells How Fat Men Can Lose Half a Pound a Day

Here's a simple way to get rid of that corporation and quickly feel in both body and mind the joy of living.

It's the safe way, too—for every day you continue this easy method of losing unwanted and unneeded flesh you'll gain in energy, vigor and endurance.

Nine times in ten obesity means inactivity—It means that your blood is starving for the six vital salts your internal organs need to keep you youthful, active, ambitious and keen in mind.

When you take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts every morning in a glass of hot or cold water you get these six vital salts which modern foods and cooking do not supply.

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

The urge for activity will be so marked that even at the end of a hard day's work you'll feel ready for any social activity or recreation—you can play as hard as you work.

And after two weeks your excess flesh starts to go—you'll know it—feel it—see it—the scales will tell the story.

As one, once corpulent man remarked—"I feel so energetic that I want to get up with the lark and I'm just as lively as a cricket."

Kruschen Salts is not a purgative or a cathartic, but a real system conditioner and for those who are the victims of constipation or toxemia, its daily use soon means blissful regularity.

Get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—last 4 weeks—at Mateer's Drug Co., and Givens & Cannon, or any druggist in the world.—Adv.

Radio Burlesque Given To Kiwanis

Frank Shumacher of Buena Park and Bud Paschall of Olive, presented a musical skit representing a radio broadcasting station, as a program feature of the Buena Park Kiwanis club meeting, Tuesday evening in the women's clubhouse. L. T. Wilsey was program chairman.

President Arthur Corey gave a resume of an address on International Relations with reference to Chile, South America, which was delivered before the Whittier Kiwanis club, Tuesday noon.

A telegram from Kiwanis International was read, giving list of the new officers and the awards of prizes for the year. The California division received a large percentage of the awards.

Announcement was made that the next meeting, July 14, will be held in Irvine park.

Town Complains of Too Many Births

EL CENTRO, Calif., July 10.—(INS.)—Fire hazards in this near-border town have been reduced to a minimum, but by comparison, financial "losses" incident to repeated visits of Doc Stork have reached alarming proportions.

During April there were but two fires, total damages amounting to less than $50.

In the same period, the stork paid 41 calls. The cost per visit, it was estimated, was $350, or a total of $14,350.

"It's driving us bankrupt, but we like it," said City Clerk John C. Neale.

PIANIST WILL TEACH PUPILS WITH DIRECTOR

Josephine Powers, pianist, who will play over KREG from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. today on a program with Velma Browne, singer, recently came to Santa Ana from the San Francisco bay district and will be associated with Eugene Browne, KREG program director, in handling the growing class of piano students which he meets at 122 South Birch street.

The pianist, who has exceptional ability as an artist and teacher, will begin her work with Browne in teaching the Waterman method, on August 1. She has been associated with him in musical activity for a number of years, having appeared as relief organist for him at a number of theaters in which he formerly played.

On tonight's program she will play three selections, while Velma Browne, daughter of the program director, will sing three numbers in the appealing manner which has characterized her work over KREG, and which was amply recognized at her last appearance, when she received nearly a score of individual requests.

A woman can legally qualify for the presidency of the United States or any other federal office.

Very Embarrassing Eruptions on Face. Healed by Cuticura.

"I noticed my skin getting rough and pimples broke out on my face. The pimples were hard, large and red, and scaled over. They sure burned and itched, causing me to scratch. Scratching caused disfiguring eruptions which were very embarrassing. The trouble lasted about three months.

"I tried everything I heard of but without success. I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment and in a month I was completely healed, after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment." (Signed) George Harry Pavlic, 8219 Kosciuszko Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

IS THIS YOUR FUTURE SHADOW?

"Coming events cast their shadows before"

Be moderate—be moderate in all things, even in smoking. Avoid that future shadow* by avoiding over-indulgence, if you would maintain that modern, ever-youthful figure. "Reach for a Lucky instead."

TUNE IN—The Lucky Strike Dance Orchestra, every Saturday and Thursday evening, over N. B. C. networks.

When tempted to over-indulge

"Reach for a Lucky instead"

Lucky Strike, the finest Cigarette you ever smoked, made of the finest tobacco—The Cream of the Crop—"IT'S TOASTED." Lucky Strike has an extra, secret heating process. Everyone knows that heat purifies and so 20,679 physicians say that Luckies are less irritating to your throat.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*In his famous book entitled "Foods For the Fat," Dr. Yorke-Davies gives this advice: "Any system for reducing fat will be of no avail if the patient persists in eating between meals." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

KANSAS KAL'S TRIO WILL BE HEARD TONIGHT

Kansas Kal's old timers, a trio featuring novelties and music on the violin, guitar, steel guitar, banjo, mandolin and harmonica, will make their debut over KREG at 8 p. m. today, with a program which will keep listeners entertained for an hour. The group has approximately 250 members in its repertoire and will welcome requests, particularly old time numbers.

They will pick on the announcer and spring "gags" on themselves, so that there will be plenty of fun along with an exceptional musical entertainment.

Velma Browne, daughter of Eugene Browne, KREG program manager, with Josephine Powers, pianist, will present a program from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. Velma will sing and Josephine Powers will present piano selections.

The children's hour, with Inez Moore, will be on the air from 4 to 5 p. m., followed by the Shoppers' Guide, with music, from 5 to 5:45 p. m. News of the day will be read from 5:45 to 6 p. m.

From 6 to 6:15 p. m. Dr Dean's health program will be on the air. The Scheffer sisters, vocal duo, will entertain from 6:15 to 7 p. m. The regular 4-H club program will be heard from 7 to 7:15 p. m.

Following the program by Velma Browne and Josephine Powers, Elizabeth Reeves Hubbard will broadcast piano and song numbers from 7:30 to 8 p. m. And after Kansas Kal's Old Timers are on the air, Jack Tapscott, with guitar and song selections, will be at the microphone from 9 to 9:30 p. m. The American dance marathon contest will be on the air by remote control from Huntington Beach, from 9:30 to 10 p. m.

Farm Problems To Be Discussed On Radio Broadcast

Beginning each day at noon and continuing 10 minutes, talks of interest to farmers, growers and producers will be given during the week beginning July 14, under the auspices of the agricultural extension service, co-operating with Radio Station KFI, as follows:

July 14, "Walnut Question Box," M. H. Kimball, assistant farm advisor, Los Angeles county; July 15, "Boys' Bedrooms," Miss Mary Richardson, home demonstration agent, San Bernardino county; July 16, "Sugar-Beet Wireworm and Its Control in Ventura County," A. H. Call, agricultural commissioner, Ventura county; July 17, "Timber Resources of the National Forests in California," by one of the rangers of the U. S. Forest service; July 18, "Farm Board Release," M. B. Rounds, farm advisor, Los Angeles county, and July 19, "Work Methods in the Home," Miss Nancy Folsom, home demonstration agent, Santa Barbara county.

KREG PRAISED BY WINNER OF FROLIC PRIZE

A tribute to KREG, Voice of the Orange Empire, was received today from Billy Ayers, of Butte, Mont., who won a $20 prize when the Santa Ana radio station staged a special test frolic recently and offered an award to the listener from the most distant point who wired the station that he had heard the program.

Ayers telegraphed the station while the program was on the air and won the prize. His letter of thanks follows:

"I want to say I consider myself lucky. Was testing out a new tube and picked up four stations in California. But you were the only generous one on the air.

"The program had plenty of pep. I especially like Hawaiian music and the trio came in great. In fact it was all fine—real artists, and I wish to thank one and all for this check.

"I have my mail general delivery as I am traveling, selling radio and automobile accessories."

Ayers added a postscript complimenting Marie Dolor, under whose direction the Santa Ana Merchants program is put on the air over KREG, and also praised the voice of Tiny Burkholder, another KREG entertainer.

'THREE BEARS' TO BE HEARD TONIGHT

"The Three Bears" will talk tomorrow to the children who listen in on KREG for the daily children's hour program, under the direction of Inez Moore, from 4 to 5 p. m.

Two talented young entertainers will present the famous story. Frances McInteer, a pupil of Alice Folsom, will provide the piano "atmosphere" for the story as it is told by the Three Bears themselves, through Phyllis Luther, a pupil of Estelle Card Beeman. Phyllis will do the talking but her listeners will be surprised, for her imitation of the Three Bears will thrill them.

WOMEN'S CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL PARK PICNIC

ORANGE, July 9.—Members of the second household economics section of the Orange Woman's club enjoyed a picnic dinner at Irvine park Tuesday. Dinner was served on the long tables in the pleasant shade of the live oaks and bridge was played during the afternoon.

First prize at the bridge game went to Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake and second to Mrs. Gwendolyn Thompson. The picnic is an annual affair.

Plans were made for the next meeting of the section which will be held at the summer home of Mrs. Ernest Ross, 113 29th street, Newport Beach, on July 12. Members are to meet at the Woman's club house at 10:30 a. m.

Those sharing yesterday's enjoyable event were Mesdames Scott Elmer, A. E. Schooley, John Hirst, Ernest Ross, N. T. Edwards, Raymond T. McCarthy, Edgar Chapman, Frank Drumm, George Smith, T. Condon, C. C. Bonebrake, Gwendolyn Thompson, Clarence Lush, James F. Lewis jr. Guests included Mesdames Frederick Durbin, Mrs. J. Shafer, of Santa Ana; Mrs. M. Callahan of Orange, and Miss Shirley Workman and Miss Barbara Lewis.

LA HABRA

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker have returned from their vacation in the northern part of the state. Their motor tour was shortened by the illness of their daughter, Evelyn, who broke out with measles en route.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Church and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Colley with their respective families will leave Friday for two weeks' motor tour of the northern part of the state.

Postmaster George Eaby and wife will leave Monday for Portland, Ore., to attend the postmasters' convention. They expect to visit several points of interest before their retun.

Miss Irma Gabriel of Fullerton is working at the local post office during the vacation period.

Several La Habrans enjoyed a camping trip near Oceanside, having returned this week after spending the holidays there. In the party were Mrs. E. R. Hanson, Mrs. Birdie Ramos, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Enyart, Mr. and Mrs. John Estill, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooley of Bellflower.

Nelson Khehbiel of the U. S. S. Oklahoma was a guest at the C. L. Strong home Wednesday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. Dundas, pastor of the Methodist church, left this week for a vacation in the Bay district.

Mrs. R. Salling was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Marthea class of the Baptist church held at her home. Mrs. W. P. Mills, vice president, was named president of the class and Mrs. H. A. Luallin was named vice president. Following the short business meeting conducted by Mrs Burt Hampton, teacher of the class, a social hour was enjoyed and was followed by the serving of refreshments by the hostess. Fourteen ladies were present.

Light Noon Rain Dampens Orange Trees and Grass

ORANGE, July 10. — A light shower yesterday noon sent people taking a noon day rest in the plaza, hurrying to benches under the trees. The shower was slight but enough rain fell to spatter the walks and to slightly dampen hats and clothing.

Rain pattered on the roofs the night previous, a number of residents declare, and the shower was hard enough to wake them from their sleep.

68,000 PEOPLE USE SCALE IN ORANGE STORE

ORANGE, July 10.—In the past six months 68,000 persons have weighed themselves on the weighing machine in front of the J. F. Lewis clothing store, 118 North Glassell street, according to a record automatically kept by the machine. More than the entirepopulation of the city is weighed monthly in this spot, says J. F. Lewis jr., who watches the process of weighing each day with interest.

One of the most unusual occurances observed by Lewis was that of a woman who was evidently determined not to weigh quite so much as the scales indicated, and who therefore held up her skirts in her hands in an effort to bring down the weight recorded.

Many persons take off their coats and hats and then get on scales and hold these articles in their hands,, says Lewis.

About the same proportion of men as women are interested in determining their weights, Lewis believes, after an observation of half a year's time.

BREA

BREA, July 10.—Mrs. George White and daughters, Phyllis and Loraine, are leaving tomorrow for a summer vacation with Mrs. White's parents in Rattoon, N. M. They will return for the opening of the fall school.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ward are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, of Oregon, the former a brother of Mrs. Ward. The Nelsons are visiting in several points in Southern California for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gordon and family have moved from Date street to the Ross property on South Walnut, the home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller. The Millers are now on a motor trip through Yosemite and the Lake Louise district, a trip which is eventually to end at their old home, Pittsburgh, where they expect to reside in the future.

MOVIE PEOPLE GET COSTUMES AROUND ORANGE

ORANGE, July 10.—That a number of the coats and gowns seen in moving pictures are purchased in Orange, is a fact not generally known. Owners of ready-to-wear shops here state, however, that buyers for the film companies make regular trips to this city and nearby towns in search of garments they need for studio wardrobes.

These buyers, who are experts in judging materials, are constantly on the lookout for unusual models or garments fashioned of materials especially needed for production purposes.

Sometimes the gowns they buy are a bit too unusual to appeal to the ordinary woman customer, sometimes they may be of unusual proportions, or for some other reason they may not move readily and consequently are snapped up by the picture company representatives.

OLIVE BOOSTER GROUP ENTERS COUNTY C. OF C.

OLIVE, July 10.—An important step was taken by the Olive Improvement association this week when it passed a resolution to join the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county, giving the activities of the Olive association a wider scope. President L. A. Bortz presided at the meeting.

Several important committees were appointed, including membership, Thomas Broderick, H. L. Stinchfield, Gus McClintock; entertainment, C. O. Heim, Don Feemster, Fritz Meyers; public improvement, H. L. Stinchfield, Jake Imken, Robert Cole; auditing, Ben Cole, M. Payan, August Lemke; finance, C. O. Heim, H. T. Moennich, Fritz Meyers.

Much time was given to the consideration of eliminating the traffic danger at the intersection of Canyon Way and Anaheim boulevards. Last week a survey of the intersection was made by Willard Smith, chairman of the county supervisors, and William F. DeWolf, engineer of the Orange County Road department. Several improvements have been recommended including several signboards, telephone poles and trees, which obstruct the view to be removed, curbing installed, and the speed limit reduced from 20 to 15 miles per hour. Pedestrian lanes are to be painted on the street, and no-parking signs to be erected, to give the west-bound traffic a clearer view of the intersection.

The Association took steps to endeavor to secure a reduction of telephone rates for the Olive community. August Lemke, Ben Cole and H. T. Moennich will work together with President Bortz in an effort to gain this purpose.

Providing a public tourist camp in Olive, fire and police protection, and uniform parking regulations were other items taken under advisement.

The completely revised laws of the association were presented and adopted. Dr. J. D. Thomas, one of the oldest residents of Olive, and the Rev. E. H. Kreidt, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, were presented with an honorary membership in the association.

The next regular meeting will be held at the hall on August 4.

Abandon Plans To Move Bible Class From Orange Show

ORANGE, July 10.—Plans to move the meeting place of the Men's Community Bible class which has been under consideration for some time, have been abandoned as the necessity for the contemplated change has been removed, it was learned this morning. The class has been meeting in the Colonial theater since it was organized.

RETURN FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Sherman Gillogly and daughter, Helen, returned Sunday evening from a trip to San Francisco having left last Wednesday. They visited at Berkeley, Sacramento and Roseville. At Sacramento they were joined by Miss Florence Gillogly, who has been in the Pease Conservatory of Music for the past year. Miss Florence Gillogly will spend her vacation at her home, 137 East Maple street.

FIRST MEETING IN HALL HELD BY NEIGHBORS

ORANGE, July 10.—Members of the Royal Neighbor lodge met yesterday afternoon in the A. R. Smith hall on South Glassell street. The meeting was the first to be held in the new quarters and the attendance was the largest for some past.

The hall has recently been refinished making a pleasant setting for the event. Walls have been retinted and the hardwood floors refinished. Mrs. M. Fletcher, district deputy of Long Beach was a guest of the organization.

Slater, oracle, who is in the east, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Amanda Amos.

Plans for several coming events were made during the business session. A Royal Neighbor party was held this afternoon in the home of Mrs. Gladys McDonald with Mrs. Fred Baier as co-hostess. A picnic is planned for July 30, at the Anaheim city park. A plunge party and dinner will be pleasant features of this occasion.

Another social occasion for which arrangements were made, was an all day affair in which lodges of the county will take part and which will be held soon at Irvine park.

SCEPTER CHAPTER TO MEET

Scepter Chapter O. E. S. No. 163 of Orange will meet Thursday at 8 o'clock at Masonic temple. This wwil be Brother's Night of the order.

The Spirit of Progress is a famous statue on the original Montgomery Ward & Co. Building, Michigan Boulevard, Chicago. For generations it has been a symbol of leadership and inspiration for this great world-wide organization.

The Spirit of Progress Guides Montgomery Ward & Co.

18,000,000 people will see this announcement in more than 650 of the nation's leading newspapers this evening.
You are personally interested in this important message and will be well repaid for the time you take to read every word.

Starting as the original mail order house and now operating the world's largest general merchandise chain, we continue to strive to realize the ideals of leadership which our symbol represents

Leadership demands action. A great deal has been said and written about unemployment and poor business. You read much about the reduced purchasing power of the average citizen—but what about his paying power?

Despite the unemployment, the present average weekly payroll of America is estimated at $840,000,000. In addition, the registered savings accounts total over twenty-seven billion dollars and are steadily increasing. Yes, there is ample paying power. But we believe that general business will improve only when the buying public are satisfied that prices to them (and that means to you) reflect the new low commodity levels.

In our judgment, commodity prices are scraping bottom today. We do not say that there will not be some further declines, but broadly speaking, current prices are the lowest in years, in some cases the lowest in 15 to 20 years.

Leadership Demands Action

Montgomery Ward & Co. is placing orders for millions of dollars worth of merchandise at these new low commodity levels. There are 120,000,000 American people to be fed, clothed, sheltered and entertained; and regardless of unemployment, poor export business, low agricultural prices, etc., the requirements of the American nation total a huge sum.

New Fall Prices Now

For many years it has been the custom of Montgomery Ward & Co. to make Fall prices effective when our Fall and Winter Catalogue is distributed, about September 1st.

Months ago we cut prices. During the past 60 days there have been further declines in the cost prices of many items of merchandise—and all these low prices we are making effective at once—so that as far as Montgomery Ward & Co. customers are concerned, they need not wait for lower prices. Ward's prices are down NOW to the new commodity levels.

How Do You Judge a Low Price?

Only by the dependable quality you receive.

There is nothing cheap about Montgomery Ward & Co. merchandise. We have never sacrificed quality to make low prices, and despite the surprising savings that are possible on thousands of different articles which we sell through our catalogues and Retail Stores, you can buy from us with complete confidence.

There is a good deal in the papers now about the Byrd Antarctic Expedition. They used more than 7,000 articles selected from our regular stocks and they used them under conditions where quality and dependability meant life itself. Their verdict was radioed to us in March from Dunedin, New Zealand, "Satisfactory in all respects."

Our method of doing business can be stated in one phrase—

"You Must Be Satisfied"

The goods you buy from us must be "satisfactory in all respects." Leadership demands action. In making our Fall prices effective now, we are doing something definite to establish public confidence in new price levels and we are taking this constructive step to stimulate the use of your buying power.

For years we have recognized the conveniences and advantage of the Time Payment method. We are selling annually many millions of dollars of goods on Easy Payments. Basically the American Public is honest, meets its just obligations. On that belief we have never hesitated to sell on time. Over a period of many years, our experience has been thoroughly satisfactory and our bad debt losses negligible.

Now, for the first time in the history of American merchandising, a national institution offers this Time Payment opportunity

Beginning today and continuing until September 15, Montgomery Ward & Co. will sell you any merchandise shown in its catalogues or Retail Stores (excepting groceries) on the Easy Payment Plan, provided your order totals $25 or more

We have begun the mailing of 10,000,000 announcements to our customer list, giving full details. Visit the Ward Store in your neighborhood for complete information. We know this offer will bring us additional business. It will make us new friends. It will acquaint great numbers of people with the dependable quality and the low prices that are the foundation of our business.

We consider it a constructive move (one of the very few that have been made thus far) to stimulate consumer buying. Even a small upturn in demand will start orders to factories, wheels turning, unemployment lessening and a resultant upward trend to our general business structure and prosperity.

Many will praise us for this move, some will criticize us. I hope that other institutions, large and small, will follow with their constructive plans to persuade the public to use its paying power. In his first daily newspaper article of July 1st, Calvin Coolidge said,

"My countrymen, it is time to stop criticizing and quarreling and begin sympathizing and helping."

Prices based on the new low commodity levels, quality goods of absolute dependability, our policy of "You must be Satisfied" and now this great 60-day Easy Payment opportunity. Surely these combine to bring you economy, convenience and satisfaction in your buying.

Yours sincerely,

George B. Everitt
President.

BASEBALL IGNORANCE

It is surprising sometimse just how little baseball men and others connected with the game know about the rules.

The case at hand is La Habra's protest of the game it lost to the Santa Ana Stars Friday night—but the same thing applies to almost every manager in the National Night Baseball league.

If you don't think so, ask George Peterkin, president, who has been asked to rule on nine protests already this summer.

Peterkin investigated every one thoroughly, found but one of the nine to have any basis.

Baseball rules state expressly that there is absolutely no appeal from decisions based on an umpire's judgment.

Ninety-nine out of a hundred squawks that you hear from night ball bosses are traceable to ignorance of that rule.

TURNER TALKING AGAIN

Tom Turner is talking again.

The loquoacious leader of the Portland Beavers, who headed two spring training expeditions into Santa Ana, was on the wagon for several months after his famous statement that he was going to be president of the Boston Braves, a fact which was fiction to say the least.

But he's talking again.

The other day he broke out with a story that the Portland Beavers were for sale. The next day he said he was just giving the newspaper boys something to write about.

There is nothing more harmful to sport than somebody who "pops off" out of turn. The muzzle should be applied or the gag rule put in effect when fellows like Turner are dealt with.

A HARDY TAR

Joe Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Santa Ana, is on the high seas somewhere between here and Honolulu.

He is a member of the crew of Morgan Adams' yacht Enchantress, largest of the boats in the annual San Pedro-Honolulu race.

This is Smith's fourth season on the Enchantress. He graduated from high school here in 1921, later attended the University of Southern California.

It is 2300 miles to Honolulu—a lot of deep, blue, rough water.

You must be a real tar to go that far in a sailing yacht.

JOHN WARD TURNS PRO

Big Johnny Ward, Garden Grove behemoth, has signed to play professional football with the Minneapolis Redjeckets this fall.

He will report about September 1.

The big fellow is also going to embark on a professional boxing career this fall, and present plans call for him to make his debut in the ring during the gridiron season.

Ward is now grawing wheat at Follett, Texas. He has 200 acres coming along nicely—about ready to harvest.

Johnny played with the University of Southern California Trojans four years—three with the varsity and one with the freshmen. He was a front flight tackle all the way and would have had his name in the headlines at some college where the material isn't as plentiful.

Although married, Ward made virtually his entire way through the university.

In addition to playing football he was intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion, too, so he took an active part in college life.

His friends here hope he becomes another Jack Dempsey.

OLYMPIC SIGNS CHAVEZ

Zenaydo Chavez will "make" the Olympic again next week.

The hard-punching Santa Ana Mexican welterweight has signed to box Harry Rollins in a special event at Jack Doyle's big arena Tuesday night.

Aside from his poor work against Jack Stewart at Wilmington a few weeks ago, Chavez has looked like a world-beater since he resumed pugilistic activity a few months ago.

BUSY BANTAMS RATED EVEN IN EVERY RESPECT

Rated even in every respect, even to experience, Clayton Gouyd and Pastor Calope, 120-pounders, meet in a main event at the Orange County Athletic club again tonight.

The rematch between the Hollywood "Lon Chaney" and the tiny Pasadena Filipino is for eight rounds—or less.

The outcome is strictly a tossup, although Gouyd has been made a slight favorite in some quarters.

Promoter Henry T. Foust today indicated that he would endeavor to match Gouyd with Speedy Dado—if Gouyd wins or makes an impressive showing and this may be the incentive that will send the hard-looking little chap over the hump.

Dado To Box Here

Dado, probably the best bantam in the west, has virtually agreed, through his manager, Frank Churchill, to box at Delhi some time during the summer, Foust said. The bout is tentatively set for August.

Calope is automatically barred from a match with Dado because of Foust's policy of never pairing countrymen in main events. Like Calope, Speedy Dado is a Filipino.

Gouyd may win, but he knows he will have a terrific fight on his hands. He had to "shoot the works" to earn a draw with Calope June 12 when the bantamweight buzzsaws mingled here the first time. Calope has a great uppercut that makes up for what Gouyd may have on him at in-fighting.

Dempsey Meets Avila

Baby Jack Dempsey meets Clem Avila, a Pomona Mexican featherweight, in the six-round semi.

Dempsey is favored to win, possibly by a knockout. Few small club fighters can wing 'em to the jaw like Baby Jack who, however, has a notoriously weak chin himself.

Leroy Haynes, black light heavyweight, faces Jack Gilmore in a special event between 180-pounders. Haynes stopped John Grigsby here a few weeks ago and is given the edge over Gilmore.

Cliff Burrier, Santa Ana lightweight, is picked to beat Joe Vasquez in the second bout, a four-rounder.

FORSTERS RETURN

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. John Forster returned Monday evening from a stay at their summer home in the mountains at Big Bear lake, near Arrowhead. While there they had as their guests the George Forster family. After a short stay on their beautiful ranch near San Juan Capistrano, they will return to Big Bear for the rest of the summer.

Ed Walsh Says Lively Ball Ruins Pitching

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 10.—"Bid Ed" Walsh, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, believes the lively ball has ruined baseball for the pitchers.

"The pitchers haven't got a chance nowadays," declared the former White Sox hero today. "It's a rare day when a pitcher goes the limit. The edge is all with the batsman who stands up to the plate flat-footed and whales away to his heart's content. I tell you it's a condition that is doing the game no good.

"I believe that a young fellow who hopes to make baseball a livelihood is a sucker to go into the pitching department."

MAJOR LEAGUE OWNERS BREAK WITH MINORS

CHICAGO, July 10. — Baseball's high commissioner, Kenesaw Mountain Landis today was believed awaiting an opportunity to open negotiations which would settle the differences that caused American and National league owners to sever relations yesterday with the five "non-selective" minor leagues.

The minors affected by the severance of relations are the American association, International, Pacific Coast, Western and Three-I leagues, each of which have sent many players to the majors. Fifteen of the 16 major league owners at a joint session yesterday voted to neither purchase any players from the five leagues in question nor release any players to them unless they adhere to the selective draft agreement made nine years ago.

Breaking off of relations with the five minor leagues hits directly at the major league clubs which own interests in the smaller teams and depend largely on them for new playing material. The Chicago Cubs for instance, will be forced to abandon their connection with the Los Angeles and Reading, Pa., clubs, both under the same ownership as the Cubs.

Commissioner Landis was absent from the major league owners' meeting at which the severance resolution was adopted. It was believed he would await the reaction of both major and minor league teams affected before making any move to heal the breach.

The present break between the major and minor leagues has brewed since 1921 when the selective

SCHUCHARDT TO JOIN ANAHEIM: BAN 'JUMPING'

Orville Schuchardt, stormy petrel of the latest Santa Ana-Anaheim night baseball feud, no longer was a "man without a country" today.

Reinstated by President George Peterkin of the National Night Baseball league, Schuchardt now belongs to Anaheim and will be eligible to pastime with George Pace's Valencias in two weeks.

Santa Ana gave Schuchardt his outright release last night prior to a red hot meeting of National Night Baseball league magnates in the offices of the state traffic department at the courthouse here.

Schuchardt's release was the outstanding development of the gathering which also saw the following action taken:

(1)—President Peterkin's ruling which disallowed La Habra's protest of the game it lost Tuesday night to Santa Ana.

(2)—An order for Santa Ana to play Orange after the close of the regular season to make up for the game previously forfeited by Orange because of a misunderstanding about the Fourth of July date.

Shakeup In Beach Club

(3)—Release by Huntington Beach of seven players—Maylin, Neal, Champion, K. Williams, D. Williams, Shaw and McClure—and the release by Orange of John Lutz. These men will be eligible to join any club in the league in two weeks. It is understood that Maylin and Neal will sign with Long Beach. Joe James, former night ball umpire, was announced as the new Huntington Beach manager.

(4)—Acceptance by all managers of a new rule which will do away with further transfer of players this season. Athletes may be released at the will of the manager but they will not be allowed to join any other team in the "A" circuit.

(5)—Action which is expected to halt the widespread and in most instances foolish protests of lost games. Hereafter any team that protests must accompany its written complaint to President Peterkin with a $10 check which will be refunded if the protest is granted. If the protest is denied the money will be added to the National Night league's treasury.

Pace Charges S. A. Conspiracy

Discussion of the "Schuchardt Case" waxed exceedingly warm, although John Wilcox, Santa Ana's representative at the session, handed the president Schuchardt's release before the meeting opened.

Pace, the Anaheim manager, accused Santa Ana of 'conspiring to obtain the services of Pitcher Joe Ochoa in exchange for Schuchardt." He not only accused the Stars' management and officials of the firm here which employs Ochoa with having a part in this alleged "con-

'THE HAIG' THREATENS BOBBY

When the returns are added up next Saturday night at Interlachen, it may be discovered that the 1930 U. S. open champion is Bobby Jones. Or, it might be another fellow—Walter Hagen, if Hagen can get up early enough in the morning to meet the starter on Hole No. 1. Sir Walter has been holding secret practice in Australia with Joe Kirkwood. His putter started playing queer pranks during the winter in the west, resulting in his decision to forego the British open which he won last year. Friends who have seen Hagen since his return to America say he has restored to his brazen putter much of its ancient charm. Which means that he didn't go to Minneapolis just to watch Bobby Jones play.

HORTON SMITH, HARRY COOPER BOTH SHOOT 72

BY FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

INTERLACHEN COUTRY CLUB, Minn., July 10.—Showing what he was, as a champion should, Robert Tyre Jones jr., British and American open titleholder and British amateur titalist, as well, took an early lead today over the field which seeks his crown at Interlachen, shooting his first round of the present open championship in 71 strokes, one under par.

Playing through terrific heat and bothered by one of the largest and most troublesome galleries of open championship history, the Atlantan bettered par by two strokes for the first nine.

Drops Stroke Coming In

Bobby dropped just one stroke to par on his homeward journey and finished with a 71.

His card:

Par, out	443	534	445	—36
Jones	443	434	444	—34
Par, in	455	344	434	—36—72
Jones	555	344	434	—37—71

This was the best of all the early efforts.

Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo., Harry Cooper of Glen Ellyn, Ill., and George Smith of Lake Forest, Ill., were the first to press Bobby with par 72.

Others who finished fairly well on Jones' heels were Irwin Ottman, Louisville, Ky., 73; Eddie Williams, Cleveland, Ohio, 73; Willie MacFarlane, Tuckahoe, N. Y., 74; Johnny Golden, Orton, Conn., 74, and Jack Burke, Houston, Texas, 74.

In maintaining his pace out in front of the field of 141 contestants and setting a mark for them to shoot at—his favorite method of attack—Bobby Jones played careful, consistent golf. Seldom did the Atlantan take a chance, and seldom did he find the rough.

Hits Rough On No. 10

The tenth was Bobby's only hole in which he took more than par. Here he drove into the rough by a scant foot, and as a result his recovery shot found a trap guarding the green and he took a five.

For the most part, it was one par hole after another, although he took advantage of opportunities at the fourth and ninth holes of pick off birdies.

The intense heat took a severe toll. Cyril Tolley, the usually immaculate and rather superior Englishman, former British amateur champion, perspired his way around the first nine in 42 strokes.

Tolley fussed and fumed his way to an inglorious eight at the 352-yard seventh hole. His card was not one of the best.

Little Henri Ciuci of Stratford, Conn., who had been burning up the course in practice was another disappointment today. Ciuci, who equalled the course record for Interlachen with a 69 two days ago and bettered par yesterday, started shaking and was three over par for his first time three holes before he settled down.

Jones Nonchalant

Bobby Jones, who rated an 8 to 5 choice to defend his title and win his third major championship of the year, did not put in an appearance until a few minutes before his starting time.

If the Atlantan felt the strain of his stiff battles for the championships abroad, he showed no

JONES, LIKE NAPOLEON, SEEKS NEW WORLDS TO CONQUER; FEW HAVE CHANCE AT INTERLACHEN

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10.—Just as the immortal little Corsican once stood on the shores of Normandy and looked with speculative gaze westward toward the only world as yet unconquered, so stood another squat but mighty little man this morning.

He stood on the eminence of the first tee and he looked not on the unrest of the stormy channel but over a sea of rolling, billowing fairways toward the seventy-second and final hole of the National open golf championship and the goal of his heart's desire.

Would Reconquer Own

Bobby Jones, the corcerer of golf, was face to face with the great issues of his life. Unlike the first Napoleon, he had subdued England not once, but twice, in its amateur and open championships, and now, having conquered all else, he was back home attempting to reconquer his own. He was more than defending the title that was his. This would have been a negative, defensive roll, whereas his was to be the conscious aggression of the man who seeks world dominion.

Jones was to prove, starting with the 18-hole rounds today and tomorrow and ending with the final 36 holes on Saturday whether his golf was supernatural and beyond the influence of human events or the subject of whims and vagaries just like other institutions of this world.

Victory for Jones would mean a virtual monopoly on competitive golf the world over. Winner in May of the British amateur championship and winner in June of the British open for the third time, July finds him ready to parlay his winnings right into the American open title and the highest honor within the gift of the sport. No man ever has held the trinity of major titles in one and the same year. But Jones will begin trying today and, when Jones tries, the rest of them often find that there is little to be done about it.

Pro Out To Beat Bobby

This time, a field of 147 golfers, most of them the greatest professionals in the world doubtless is prepared to die in its own blood, rather than have this amazing amateur make a further show of its inaptitude. Not a quiescent, submissive field, this one.

Indeed, it gives every appearance of being a greatly desperate one and so, with Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Leo Diegel, Horton Smith, and Johnny Farrell as its spokesmen, it will endeavor to deliver an ultimatum to this unfeeling amateur that will act both as a solace to its vanity and a rebuke to himself.

They mean business this time, these bread-and-butter men of golf. Hagen, the great master of other and better years, now down to his last chip competitively speaking, and ready to wager it as vividly and grandly as only Hage ncan. The man has been making himself ready for this test of power for months. So has little Sarazen, another former champion. He wouldn't go to the British open because he wanted to get Jones here. Diegel, denied of his birthright in other championships, is prepared to claim it in this one.

CITY LEAGUERS END HALFWAY RACE TONIGHT

Santa Ana City league baseball teams reach the halfway post in their 1930 pennant argument tonight. Games between the Auto Club of Orange County and the Orange County Builders' exchange at 6:45, and the Pacific Telephone company and the Richfield Oilers at 8:15, will wind up the regular schedule for the first half of the split season.

Two tussles which had no bearing on the pennant race were run off in the Bowl last night.

The American Legion beat the Eastern Oil company, 5 to 3, and the Excelsior creamery defeated Peek's market, 7 to 3.

Earl Jones, Legion pitcher, glanked the Eastern Oilers for six innings but weakened a little in the seventh and was rapped for three tallies. Bacon's walk, singles by Thiery, Smith and Miller and a couple of infield errors on Angell and Suddaby accounted for them.

The Legion got one in the second on Gibson's double and Murillo's single, another in the third on Nelson's single, an error and Wood's single, and three others in the sixth on Muckenthaler's single, passes to Gibson and Murillo and a couple of fielders' choices.

"Tex" Bergman kept the Peek Butchers popping up in the pinches in the afterpiece. He was tagged for eight hits but none of them did any damage until the last of the ninth. Bergman aided his own cause with a home run off Estes in the first frame.

HOOKS and SLIDES

by William Braucher

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Max Schmeling hardly will be pleased with his victory over Sharkey since he hadn't shown much qualifying him for a true champion, according to the Berlin Vossische Zeitung . . . and the Berlin Tempo regrets that Herr Maxie won in a passive manner . . . the Deutsche Tageszeitung states the next few rounds very likely would bring a change in the tide of battle favoring Schmeling. . . . John McGraw asks if you can imagine Johnson, Jeffries or McCoy throwing away a fight like that. . . . Elwood English looks so good at third for the Cubs that he may stay right there, instead of short. . . . Charley Root is just getting into shape after a long illness and that is not good news to the other National league teams, either.

THE BASEBALL TIDE

When Shakespeare wrote that line about there being "a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune," he expounded a great lead for a baseball yarn. There is a moment in a baseball game when victory hangs upon a single act, and the result may be a winning or losing streak of many games.

The Cleveland Indians furnish a grand example. They fought their way to the top of the league, beating the Simmonsless Athletics three straight. Then the New York Yankees came to town. The Yankee reputation for power evidently had made a deep impression upon the young Indian pitchers, for in every tight spot, with the big guns facing them, they issued walks to the batsmen. You cannot go on issuing bases on balls, you know, and win ball games. The result was disaster.

BATTERS GET WISE

The Yankee batsmen sensed the concession that was being made to their power. It gave them a pyschological edge on the enemy. And in three days they rolled up something like 40 runs against the team that had just beaten the A's three straight.

The effect of the Yankee rout did not end there. The Indians, after dropping their series to the Yankees, went to Washington and dropped another series. They slid from the top right down the ladder, past Washington and the Yanks.

Billy Evans, the former umpire, who is now general-managing the Indians, was out on the coast looking at ivory specimens when the rout took place. Upon his return I ran across him, and asked how a team that looked so good one day could be so abject the next.

"They're young fellows," said Bill, "and the steadying influence of our injured veterans lige Fonseca and Luke Sewell was missing. That Yankee attack just shot their morale all to pieces.

"Some little thing may happen in one of the games, and it may turn the tide and they may win a whole lot of ball games in a row. I've seen it happen time and again.

THE SIMMONS TOUCH

"It happened just this year. Remember the recent series between Washington and the Macks? In the very first game Washington had the A's beat right up until the last inning. Two out and Al Simmons steps up and clouts a home run. The Macks take the whole series—after being a doormat for the Senators in previous games.

"Something of the same kind happened in that well known 10-run inning in the last world series, and, oddly enough, it was Simmons who stepped up there and spilled the onions. That wallop over the left field stands in Philly lifted the Macks right out of it.

"It's hard sometimes to get a team started winning, and once they get going, it's hard to stop 'em."

SCHUCHARDT CASE AIRED AT MEETING

spiracy" but also included members of the Santa Ana city council.

Himself accused of "tampering" with Schuchardt, a man under official contract to Santa Ana, Pace denied that he had any part in arranging for Schuchardt to transfer his affiliations. He said that Anaheim players had obtained employment for the outfielder and that he knew nothing of the matter until Schuchardt himself came to him and asked whether he could "use his services if I get my release from Santa Ana." Pace said he naturally replied in the affirmative.

Peterkin Plans Vacation

Pace did not deny, however, that he had personally agreed to trade Ochoa for Schuchardt. It is understood that after he made this arrangement, he was overruled by Anaheim city officials who are interested in the Valencia club.

President Peterkin announced he was leaving immediately on a vacation of two weeks and that until July 26 he "didn't want to hear another thing about night baseball." He will turn over all executive tasks to Lee C. McClelland of Olive, secretary of the league.

A long expected shakeup in Peterkin's staff of umpires broke when the hard-toiling head man went into a huddle with his guessers. He announced the release of Umpires Hollis Leake, Leo Seiffert and Jack Dillon. They will be replaced with men who have been obtaining experience in the Orange County "B" league—J. W. Witbeck of Santa Ana, Trafford Watson and Harvey Stoner of Olive, "Rube" Hall of Anaheim and Bill Jenkins of Fullerton.

Peterkin announced that Umpires Clair Head and Ernest Y. Johnson would begin work in the "B" loop.

sign of it today. Jones strolled up to the clubhouse, smiling and apparently unconcerned, attired in a light grey suit and wearing the unfamiliar cap he has donned as protection against the blazing Minnesota sun. The latter had burned its way through the light clouds when Bobby arrived and the tightly baked fairways appeared to be aflame with the heat as viewed from the clubhouse on the hill.

"I'm feeling fine," Bobby said cheerfully in answer to the questions of his friends who crowded around to wish him luck in defense of his title. The back of his neck still was a fiery red from the sunburn attained earlier in the week.

The first sensation of the championship today was provided by Jack Burke or River Oaks, who also was first to start. Burke, unaffected by the heat, proceeded to do a little burning up himself on the outside nine, reaching the turn in 34, two strokes under par.

AYRES BEATS COMBS

CULVER CITY, July 10.—The Junior golf crown of Southern California rested today on the young head of Phil Ayres, Los Angeles Country club juvenile, who scored a surprise victory over Ernie Combs, 2 and 1, in the finals of the California Country club here yesterday.

HOLLYWOOD, July 10.—Speedy Dado, Los Angeles flyweight who has just about fought himself out of opponents, will take on Chato Laredo at the Legion stadium here tomorrow night. Laredo hoped to make a better showing than when he fought Dado last month.

MAJOR LEAGUES IN WAR WITH MINORS

draft agreement was made. The agreement provided that major league clubs should be allowed to select players from the minors at prices ranging from $5000 to Class AA minor teams down to $1000 to Class D minors.

The minor leagues, however, have refused to sell players at the set prices and the major owners have charged they were asking exorbitant sums. Major league declared this policy was unfair both to players, who deserved advancement and to organized baseball in general.

SEAL MAGNATE OPPOSES UNIVERSAL DRAFT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The threatened big league war on minor league clubs will be met with strong opposition by members of the Pacific Coast league, according to George A. Putnam, manager of the San Francisco Seals.

"Of course I speak only for the Seals," Putnam said, "but I feel confident that other managers in this division are in agreement with me. We have no intention of submitting to the so-called 'universal draft.'

"Should the big leagues insist on the new agreement and refuse to buy from and sell to us, the Pacific Coast league will develop its own players for itself and in a few years will be as strong as the major league aggregations," Putnam said.

Plan Rosenbloom, Walker Bout Soon

NEW YORK, July 10.—Refusal of the New York state athletic commission to allow Maxie Rosenbloom, world light heavyweight champion, to engage in heavyweight competition, may result in a light heavyweight championship bout between Rosenbloom and Mickey Walker, middleweight champion, at Atlantic City auditorium, August 30.

Negotiations for the bout are under way. Both fighters having exhausted competition in their own class and being denied permission to fight overweight bouts in New York.

Paolino May Box Max Baer In L. A.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—Paolino Uzcudun, the fighting Basque, may be brought here for a match with Max Baer in the near future, Jack Doyle, Los Angeles promoter, announced today.

Doyle said he was negotiating with the woodchopper for such a fight and that the latter was willing to forego a lion's share of the loot. The Basque is available at present, the promoter added.

Boer will take on Les Kennedy, Long Beach longshoreman, here Tuesday night.

EXCHANGE CLUB HEARS NEWS OF HICKMAN CASE

NEWPORT BEACH, July 10.—The thin thread of evidence which was woven half across the continent and finally hanged William Edward Hickman, the notorious "Fox," in the Marion Parker kidnaping and murder case in Los Angeles two years ago, was told to members of the Newport Beach Exchange club at their weekly luncheon at the Yacht Club yesterday by Lieut. H. L. Barlow, of the identification bureau of the Los Angeles police department.

Barlow told the members about several interesting cases, and stated that finger-printing not only convicts the guilty but frees the innocent, citing the Jimmy Preston case in Los Angeles as a case where an innocent man was convicted and served more than a year in the penitentiary before being pardoned when finger-prints established the guilt of another.

The first real clew in the Hickman case was when finger-prints on letters mailed by "The Fox" to Marion Parker's father were photographed and tallied with those left on the rear view mirror on a stolen car, which was traced back to Kansas City, where it was stolen a month before. Taking the prints from the auto mirror was a long chance, but it turned out to be the needed link.

Barlow spoke in the place of James E. Davis, former Los Angeles police chief, who was unable to attend. M. G. Gaskell, Barlow's aide in the identification bureau, accompanied him.

Dr. G. M. Grundy, city health officer, stated that there are no cases of infantile paralysis here. This was in reply to a question by President Hodgkinson of the club, who said that wildly exaggerated stories about an alleged epidemic are being given out.

The club decided to continue to meet during the summer months, a proposal having been made that it discontinue until fall. The meeting of August 6 will have to be held some other place than the Yacht Club, however, owing to the regattas to be staged here that week.

Court Notes

Declaring that certain funds realized from the sale of crypts in which Charles Eygabroad acted as trustee for a group of six persons who had purchased a block of crypts in the Anaheim Community mausoleum, are not accounted for in the distribution of moneys received for the sale of certain crypts, the Bank of America of California, as executor of the estate of Charles Eygabroad, was made defendant in a suit that has been filed in superior court. Judgment is asked in the amount of $3586.66, which it is set up in the complaint is the amount unaccounted for as the difference between sales totaling $8942.85 and payments to the members of the group in the trust agreement, which totaled 5100, less the share to which Eygabroad was entitled, of $256.10.

MALCOM REUNION

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—The John Malcom home has been the scene of an interesting family gathering during the past week. Mr. Malcom, who is superintendent of the Capistrano union high school, had the pleasure of acting as host to members of his family from Los Angeles and Glendale, for a family gathering over the week end. Seventeen guests gathered at the Malcom home, in San Juan Capistrano, early on the morning of the Fourth; a beach party was enjoyed, followed by a picnic dinner under the trees on the lawn. Those meeting for the reunion of the Malcom family were Mrs. Mary E. Malcom, of Los Angeles, Mr. Malcom's mother; Prof. Roy Malcom, of U. S. C., his wife and children; Mrs. Walter Legg, a sister of Mr. Malcom's, and her husband, of Glendale, and Miss Sylvia Behymer, also of Glendale, and Miss Josephine Swiggett, of Glendale, who was a house guest from Wednesday until Sunday, in the Malcom home.

VACATION IN EAST

BREA, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sutton are leaving tomorrow for a three weeks' vacation, Mr. Sutton stopping at Denver to attend the Lions' convention and Mrs. Sutton continuing on to Chicago for a visit with relatives. WILL GIVE RECITAL

Miss Elizabeth Skiles of El Modena, a voice pupil of Rev. Joseph G. Reece for the past year, will give a recital Friday evening, July 11, at 7:30 o'clock at the Villa Park church. Miss Skiles, choir director of the Villa Park Congregational church will be assisted by Mrs. Harry R. Tritt, violinist, Mrs. Joseph Reece, pianist, and Mrs. Harry L. Skiles, pianist. She will give a program of sacred selections and ballads.

Walker Arraigned In Justice Court

Jack Walker, Santa Ana manager of several well known fighters here, charged with grand theft in connection with the disappearance of an automobile, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday on the charge.

The preliminary examination was set for July 10, and Walker was released on his own recognizance. Walker was arrested in Denver, Colo., several days ago.

CAPISTRANO MESA TURNED INTO GARDEN

CAPISTRANO BEACH, July 10.—Development of the Capistrano mesa, overlooking the ocean at the top of the palisades is rapidly taking place. A winding driveway leads from the Coast highway along the fact of the palisades, to the top and along the sides of the bluff are seven levels of flowering plants and veins, making bright lines of color against the rocky wall of the palisades.

Extensive landscaping has transformed the upper line of the palisades into a park of unusual beauty. Canons have been swung across with dustic bridges and lines of rustice fences protect the passerby from falling into the depths below. A rustic pegoda graces the most outstanding point of the palisades, commanding a view of the ocean, the towns of San Clemente to the south, and Dana Point to the north and west, the valley lands wherein are located Serra and San Juan Capistrano, the Coast highway and Roosevelt highway, leading through Dana Point.

Nearby a canon has been remodeled into a perfect bowl, making one of the unique pieces of landscaping beauty to be found on the cost. The bowl swings aroung three sides, facing the ocean, and a circular pegoda carpeted with a mass of flowering moss, makes a perfect setting for the fourth side of the bowl, and an ideal observation point for an unexcelled ocean view.

In landscaping the Capistrano bowl and gardens many rare plants have been introduced, and masses of color add to the natural beauty of the park. Salvia Greggii, Cassia Artemsiodes, jasmine, lilies of many kinds, rare varieties of acacia, lantana in pink scarlet, yellow and white, flowering mosses of several kinds, scarlet and pink hybiscus, blue and pink hydrangea, masses of ornamental shrubs, pines and many other varieties of shade trees, all contribute to make the par both unique and beautiful.

SELLS GARAGE

BREA, July 10.—Sidney Potter has sold his business known as the Brea garage. The purchaser is Mr. Schock, formerly of Orcutt, where he has been employed for several years with the Union Oil company. Mr. Potter has already given possession and with Mrs. Potter will shortly leave for an extended motor trip into the northwest. They plan on camping a week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudd in the redwood district but their summer will be spent in a lake resort near Vancouver. Mr. Potter has been the owner and operator of the Brea garage for the past ten years or more.

Husband Had to Do Her Work

"When my baby was a month old, I took a heavy cold and after that I felt miserable. Could not lift anything. My husband had to help me with the housework. I was so weak I could not do a washing. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Kittaning paper and I gave it a good trial. Before I had taken half a bottle, I found the difference. I do all my own work now and I have told others how much this medicine helped me."—Mrs. Alice Bassett, Cadogan, Pennsylvania.

LEADERSHIP is the coveted prize in every industry, and the rubber industry is no exception.

So it is only human that our aspiring friends occasionally indulge in the thrill of talking about Leadership, whether they have it or not.

We mention this in all good humor, and merely to explain the somewhat confusing advertising you see now and again, in which one rubber company or another blithely forgets its definitions and shoots the works.

The justification for such a fling is that the use of the term Leadership in most cases is qualified, even if obscurely, by being based on some subordinate phase of the business in which the advertiser claims to excel.

BUT what's all the shootin' for—is Leadership really an important matter?

We think it is, as the most dependable indorsement of a product that the public can find upon which to rely.

When a plurality of the world's motorists, for example, year after year singles out one make of tire as the highest representative of value and merit, that is tremendously important.

It affords the average buyer the finest and safest possible guidance in his purchasing—and for his good and our own we desire to keep that guidance clear.

DISPENSING, then, with equivocal claims, evasions, qualifications and adroit expression, what company actually holds Leadership in the rubber industry?

The public has decisively answered that question in concrete terms of dollars and cents, and has conferred the award upon Goodyear.

Goodyear in turn submits to you the solid facts which support its Leadership.

It does this in no spirit of boastfulness; on the contrary with a privileged sense of the responsibility which its outstanding position entails:

In both volume and value of annual sales, Goodyear is the largest rubber company in the world.

Goodyear consumes 1/6 of all the crude rubber used annually in the world—approximately 50% more than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear builds more than 1/4 of all the tires sold in America, the remainder being divided among some forty manufacturers.

For years Goodyear has factory-equipped between 1/4 and 1/3 of all the new motor cars manufactured.

Goodyear exports approximately 40% of all the tires exported from the United States and Canada for other parts of the world.

Goodyear maintains the largest development laboratories and corps of experimental engineers of any rubber company in the world.

In the last seven years Goodyear's annual production of pneumatic tires has increased 172%, as against an increase of approximately 75% for the industry as a whole.

WITH special reference to tires, Goodyear holds Leadership because:

Goodyear has made more tires for motor vehicles than any other manufacturer—by millions.

Goodyear is making, today, more tires than any other manufacturer in the world—by millions.

Goodyear's tire business has increased faster in the last five years than any other manufacturer's—by millions.

More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind—by millions.

THERE'S the story, good people, figure it out for yourselves.

Certainly it means that in Goodyear Tires the average user finds a quality and a value which he cannot equal elsewhere.

Certainly it means that when you buy a Goodyear Tire you buy something good enough, outstandingly good enough, to have won a special and unrivalled place in the confidence of the public.

And when any other rubber company confuses you with talk about Leadership, just treat yourself to a knowing grin and say: "Sure! We know—You're Napoleon!"

ORTEGA OFFERS ARE ANNOUNCED BY DIRECTORS

The complete list of bids on the first construction work on Ortega highway, which were opened yesterday by the board of directors of joint highway district No. 15, in charge of the work, and which resulted in awarding the contract to the H. W. Rohl company, of Los Angeles, at a price of $173,256.20, has been announced by D. C. Spears, resident engineer of the work and assistant to A. C. Fulmor, of Riverside, the engineer for the district.

Of the 15 bids the highest one was approximately $200,000 above the lowest bid. Appropriations that were made by Orange and Riverside counties and the state of California for the first work total $225,000.

Work to be done constitutes grading and surfacing with decomposed granite sections "C" and "E". Section C is 900 feet long, located at San Juan Hot Springs, and includes the construction of a steel truss bridge, 70 feet long. Section "E" covers three miles in Orange county and three miles in Riverside county. The completion of this work, according to the engineers, will make the road passable its entire length between San Juan Capistrano and Elsinore, a distance of 32.5 miles. The other shortest route between these two points is 72.5 miles, according to Spears, or 40 miles longer.

The road is to be 22 feet in width with a two foot gutter at the side. Through cuts the gutters will be located on both sides, making the over-all width 26 feet. Curves will be widened on the inside in accordance with recommended practices of the state highway department.

The list of bids for the work follows: H. W. Rohl company, Los Angeles, $173,256.20; Eltinge T. Brown and company, Los Angeles; Lang Transportation company, Los Angeles, $204,665.40; J. P. Holland and company, San Francisco, $209,740.44; Macco Construction company ,Los Angeles, $210,418.90; J. W. Breedlove corporation, Los Angeles, $240,716.50; Gist and Bell, San Diego, $257,493.59; George Pollack, San Diego, $259,145.80; Robinson-Roberts company, Los Angeles, $262,087.10; O. A. Lindeberg, Vernon, $272,722.90; Lewis Construction company, Los Angeles, $282,777.20; Yglesias Brothers, incorporated, San Diego, $332,626.60; Monroe-Travers corporation, limited, Los Angeles, $339,448.18; J. G. Donovan and Son, Los Angeles, $348,220.12; Watson and Sutton, San Diego, $370,201.40.

Bar Association To Meet Tonight

Members of the Orange County Bar association, their wives and friends, will gather for a dinner meeting of the organization at St. Ann's inn at 6:30 p. m. today. A large attendance is expected at the affair, which is in the nature of an annual ladies' night.

An interesting address by a capable speaker is assured those who attend the dinner. The speaker will be John L. Mott, prominent Los Angeles attorney and member of an old California family, who will speak on "Early California History," according to the program chairman, Fred Forgy. Judge Frank C. Drumm is president of the association.

Pearson Club To Be Launched Here

Friends of James M. Pearson, chief of police at Fullerton, who is an active candidate in the race for sheriff in the approaching primary election, are planning the organization of a "Pearson for Sheriff club" in Santa Ana. The first meeting of the group is to be held next Monday evening, when plans for further activities will be made.

CAMP OSCEOLA VISITORS ARE IMPRESSED WITH ACTIVITIES CARRIED ON BY 'Y' GROUPS

The Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. boys' camp at Osceola was visited yesterday by the Rev. Moffett Rhodes, member of the Y boys' work committee, and General Secretary R. C. Smedley, who were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Smedley and Miss Betty Smedley.

The visitors reached camp Tuesday in time for dinner and the camp fire program, which featured a talk by Ivan Scott, an Indian legend by R. H. McArthur, a story by D. H. Tibbals, a talk by the Rev. Mr. Rhodes and the reading of the daily "Osceola Grumbler," the camp newspaper, of which George Munro is editor.

The Rev. Mr. Rhodes and Smedley were permitted to visit the ceremonial at which John Hoy was invested with the "red rag," an advanced honor, coveted by all Y. M. C. A. campers, and awarded only to those who show notable ability in camp craft and the spirit of service. It was a most impressive ceremony which occurred on "Raggers' Point," a secluded spot near the camp, which is visited only by members of the order of Raggers.

All reports by the visitors are most enthusiastic concerning the conditions at the camp, and the work being done by the boys.

"I have visited many camps for boys," said the Rev. Mr. Rhodes, on his return, "from the expensive camps for wealthy boys on the Atlantic coast to our own camps on the western mountains and beaches and I can say frankly that never have I seen any other boys' camp which so strongly appealed to me as an ideal place for boys to spend vacation time in recreation and inspiration. The atmosphere of the camp is one of friendly helpfulness and kindly co-operation. All problems of discipline, which are few, are handled by the boys themselves, through their camp council. The leaders are in the role of big brothers and counselors, rather than guardians or masters. The boys are busy from morning to night with a varied program of educational activities, in which they are intensely interested. There is a spirit of true devotion and of high ideals that is good for any one. I believe that any boy who has the privilege of spending the two weeks at Osceola is to be highly congratulated on his opportunity. My only criticism is that they ought to stay three weeks instead of two."

The boys are organized for their camp life according to their cabin groups. Seven boys and a leader compose a cabin group. Each cabin elects a representative to the camp council, and these representatives are Bob Spurgeon, George Munro, Chauncey Arnold, Robert Tannenbaum, Howard Quiggle, Lloyd Gibbs, Willard Noe, Don Lentz, Darrel Gaebe, and Bill Turner. The council elected Bob Spurgeon as mayor, a position which he is filling with ability.

George Munro is editor of the Daily Grumbler, and he is assisted by an editorial group composed of Charles Spicer, Elbert Stewart, Walter Kring, Christie Demetriou, Max Norman, Frank Ashleigh, Hubert Nall, James Noe, Morris Lycan and Tarver Motgomery. The day's edition is read at campfire each night, giving the news and comment of the day.

Harold Lutes is doing good work as camp bugler, and he is kept busy sounding the calls from 6 a. m., when reveille is sounded, clear through until taps, at 9:30 p. m.

The group working at airplane models is being instructed by Walter Kring, and as one of the boys says, "he knows his pinions." A glider built in camp stayed in the air for two minutes on its trial flight. Several clever planes have been assembled.

Health conditions at camp have been of the best. Dr. Saulsberry, the camp physician, has little to do except for first aid for cuts and bruises. The dining room is better than ever, and the provisions for work and play are highly satisfactory. A number of the boys are working for their "rags," and several have been awarded.

ANAHEIM OPEN AIR CONCERTS BEGIN TONIGHT

Thousands of Orange county residents will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the free summer concerts which will open tonight at Anaheim's open air theater with the appearance of Charles Wakefield Cadman, American composer-pianist, in his new song cycle, "White Enchantment," with quartet. Beginning at 8 p. m., with Cadman at the piano, the original song cycle, the text of which was written by Nelle Richmond Eberhart, will be sung by Harold Kellogg, bass, father role; Rosalie Barker Frye, contralto, mother; Margaret Messer Morris, soprano, daughter; Otto Ploetz, tenor, lover.

A synopsis of the numbers to be rendered on tonight's program is as follows: Quartet, "Fire on the Hearth"; recitative and bass solo, "The Ladies of the Harem"; recitative and soprano and contralto duet, "Window Shopping On the Avenue"; recitative and tenor solo, "Three Harps Make Songs to Heaven"; recitative and contralto solo, "Mignonette"; recitative and solo, "The Plunderer"; scene and quaret, "Love's Language"; recitative and tenor and bass duet, "Lull Us No Longer"; recitative and contralto solo, "Like Wind Upon Water"; recitative and soprano and tenor duet, "In Some Cold Hour"; scene and quartet, "Love is a Blossoming Bough."

The concerts will be presented each week for eight consecutive weeks, each bringing artists of national and international note.

SOME FLAT CAR*

LONDON, July 10.—One of the largest flat cars in the world was recently exhibited here at the showing of London and Northeastern Railway company. The car, the largest and heaviest in Great Britain, weighed 155 tons, and on its 28 pairs of wheels it carried a weight of 150 tons. It was designed to carry huge metal castings.

HUGE EASTERN CONTRACT WON BY FLUOR FIRM

The last of 20 Orange county men in the employment of the Fluor Construction company, left last night for Louisburg, Kans., where they will begin work on the Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line company compressor station. The bid for the contract was awarded the company, in competition with many other large eastern concerns.

The $2,000,000 project which will be located in Kansas, Missouri and Illinois, will require the services of approximately 300 men, and will take eight months to complete. The project is under the direction of P. E. Fluor, of Anaheim, who is general manager.

Local men who left last night were N. L. Edson, of Tustin, and Frank Evans, Dan Adams, A. Dutton, and Tom Morris, of Santa Ana. The first camp was opened last week in Liberal, Kans. The next one will be located in Louisburg. The third camp will be situated somewhere in Illinois.

In addition to the Fluor company offices in Anaheim, other branch offices are in Los Angeles, Kansas City, Dallas, Tulsa, Okla., Houston, Tex., and New York City.

LAUNCH SAFETY ORGANIZATION ON PLAYGROUND

A special feature of activity on the Santa Ana summer playgrounds that is new this year is the appointment of safety committees, according to L. W. Archer, supervisor. This feature of the program is being promoted and sponsored by the Automobile Club of Southern California. The personnel of this committee is carefully chosen for dependability and leadership, and assists the instructors in the promotion of the proper habits and ideals of play, especially where the safety idea is involved.

Following are the appointments that have been made to date on the playgrounds: Lincoln playground, Roderick Dresser, Fae Ward, Irwin Youel and Norma Carr; Edison playground, Virginia Cyr, Blanche McCuistian, Russell Johnston and Leo Lyons; Spurgeon playground, Irene London, Virginia Vogler, Bobby Vogler and Elizabeth Rohrs; Franklin playground, Frances Crowther, Florence Seeber, Alvin Cass and Robert Schwarm; Lowell playground, Ralph Lambert, Beryl Bates, Machille Schanefelt, Charles Glotzbach and Neil Gammell; and Roosevelt playground, Bruce Harnois, Lloyd Race, Vivian Elliott and Barbara Speed.

'SNAP SHOTS FROM ABROAD' FEATURED AT KIWANIS MEET

Louis Danz, of the Danz Music company at Anaheim, entertained the Kiwanis club here yesterday with a hasty recital of many of his observations and experiences on his recent trip to Europe. "Snap Shots Abroad' 'was the subject of his talk.

Presentation in a witty way of some of his experiences kept the Kiwanians in a hilarious mood throughout the address. He recounted his impressions and his personal feelings as he encountered some of the historic places of Europe, and emphasized the point that in crossing national border lines one stepped into a section where the habits and thoughts of the natives were entirely different from that section from which the traveler passed. He said there is no continuity of thought and declared this more or less responsible for wars in the foreign lands.

He said that when he entered Paris the atmosphere was so different from that prevailing in America that it seemed to him that the people on the street were caricatures rather than human beings. He described the difference between the people on the east and the west sides of the Siene river in Paris, and asserted that in their cultural development the west side residents were about 1000 years behind those of the east side. He commented on the fact that a directory of the city of Paris revealed to him the information that 40,000 persons there are seriously bent on the production of art.

Frank Lansdown was program chairman and he introduced as part of the entertainment program, Miss Harriet Morris in two reading numbers.

TREASURY HELD $4,053,612 AT END OF PERIOD

Showing a larger actual cash balance on hand as of July 1, than ever before at that time of the year, the monthly statement of the amounts and kinds of money in the county treasury, which is posted in the office of County Auditor W. C. Jerome, shows that over $4,000,000 was in the county treasury as the fiscal year came to a close at the end of June. The total of actual cash, according to Jerome, is $4,053,612.31. The statement shows an additional sum of over $900,000, which it is explained is represented by warrants in the treasurer's office that have been paid, but not cleared through the books.

The largest item on the statement is $2,241,000, which it is set forth on the statement, is loaned to banks at 3 per cent interest. The next largest item is the checking account balance, which amounts to $950,318.03. Other items shown on the statement are currency, $860,522; money in transit, $1600; U. S. silver coin, $152.28; U. S. gold coin, $20.

The balance at the corresponding period last year was $3,149,862.45.

The statement is signed by Willard Smith, chairman of the board of supervisors; Z. B. West, district attorney, and W. C. Jerome, auditor.

The funds include money from bond issues for construction projects, most of which are schools, including programs in Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Costa Mesa. State gas tax and school money also are included in the unusually large balance, which is to be used in the budget for the ensuing year.

ARTICLES FILED

A copy of the articles of incorporation of the American Bottling corporation limited, was filed yesterday with County Clerk J. M. Backs. Provisions require that the maximum number of shares authorized to be outstanding at any time shall be limited to 100. The shares have no par value. Directors are Hans Gatjens, Johanna Gatjens and Harry Gatjens, all of Anheim.

Bridge Club of Three Cities Entertained Yesterday

That lively little group of Santa Ana, Orange and Anaheim matrons banded together as the S. O. A. club for a semi-monthly afternoon of bridge, was entertained yesterday in the pleasant Anaheim home of Mrs. C. A. Sisson, where a 1 o'clock luncheon preceded the interesting bridge session of the afternoon.

Mrs. Sisson arranged her luncheon table in the dining-room, centering the expanse of snowy linen with exquisite rosebuds. The colorful little cards by which places were indicated, later served as tally cards for the game. Covers were laid for the hostess, Mrs. Sisson, and for Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. J. P. King of Anaheim; Mrs. George Merriman, Mrs. F. M. Higgins and Mrs. William Batt of Orange, and Mrs. D. H. Thompson and Mrs. Daisy McGee of this city.

Mrs. Thompson scored high in the afternoon's play, receiving the attractive first prize. Second prize was awarded Mrs. Merriman, and consolation went to Mrs. Higgins.

The next S. O. A. meeting in two weeks, will be with Mrs. Leland Ewbank of North Bristol street, Santa Ana, who will have returned by that time from a vacation visit in Reno and other Nevada points upon which she and Mr. Ewbank left yesterday morning.

Sewing Circle Enjoys Musical Program at Luncheon Meeting

To the spacious charm of the Graham home in Garden Grove, yesterday was added the beauty of many dahlias, when Mrs. Cora Graham rifled her garden of its choicest blooms to make her home attractive to the Sewing Circle members of Calumpit auxiliary, assembled to spend a busy day.

Mrs. Maude Brown, Mrs. Anna Springer and Miss Bertha Belt were co-hostesses with Mrs. Graham in planning for the day, and each member of the guest group added one prepared dish to the luncheon menu which provided a pleasant interval in the day's program of needlework. This was especially enjoyable because of the setting given the small tables which were arranged on the wide verandah, and were centered with bright hued flowers.

Sewing was resumed in the afternoon, when the Circle members devoted their time to needlework for Spanish war veterans now at Sawtelle. As they stitched away busily they were entertained with music, their hostess, Mrs. Graham, adding a number of songs. Her voice is one of much beauty and training, and she sang such numbers as "I Love You Truly" and "Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "The Path to Home Sweet Home," etc., playing her own accompaniments.

Those present for the all-day session included in addition to the hostess group, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Brown, Miss Belt and Mrs. Springer, the Mesdames Grace Deck, Ruth Deck, Frances Deck, Jane Winter, Gertrude Rowe, Marie Lindquist, Lillian Hubbard, Katherine Reagan, Frances Dresser, Estelle Dresser, Julia Williams, Emma Kellogg, Eleanor Shaw, Elvira Kurtz, Elva Hunt and Elizabeth Erickson.

Miscellaneous Shower Is Compliment to Miss Harnois

As one of the most popular of Santa Ana's college graduates, Miss Charlotte Harnois, whose marriage to Chester Seigel of Ventura is to be an event of the very near future, has been the incentive for innumerable showers and parties since the announcement of her engagement early in June. One of the loveliest of these was that of yesterday, when Mrs. R. Dean Smiley, Elizabeth Beall and her mother, Mrs. R. W. Beall, were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in the latter's home on East Third street.

Bridge was played amidst an attractive arrangement of dahlias and other mid-summer blooms grouped in baskets throughout the rooms. When tallies were checked it was revealed that Mrs. Donald Dearth held high score, for which she was awarded a charming linen doily of Italian cut work, while Miss June Goodwin received a linen towel of the same design, for holding second high score.

The refreshment course was most enjoyable and was served at the small tables, covered with crisp white cloths, and centered with crepe paper nut baskets in various tones of pink. They were shaded by miniature umbrellas covered with drooping silver streamers. It was at this time that the honoree, Miss Harnois, was presented with the array of lovely gifts, when they were borne in on a tea wagon. She was more than delighted with the ingenuity her friends had shown in their choice of gifts.

Those invited other than the honor guest, Miss Harnois, were the Misses Mildred Lukins, Laura Cooper, Blanche Seigel, Edith May Breckenridge, Eva Marshall, Nettie Jones, Enid Twist, Grace Richards, Louisa and Della Hampton, Frances Knudson, Frances Braag, Jean and June Goodwin, Jean Nicholson, Santa Ana; Eva McNiel and Catherine Lamond of Los Angeles; Kate Benton of La Cresenta; Hazel Johnson of Norwalk; and Mesdames Lawrence Cox, of Orange; Charles Hunt of Anaheim; Harold English, Robert Belding, C. M. Ulery, John Seigel, of Newport Beach; Donald Dearth, Ray Finley, of Westminster; L. A. Turner, Clifford Cole, Donald Dunbar, Earl Walker, and Mrs. Marshall Harnois of this city.

Quill Pen Members Hear Original Stories

Variety continues to be the spice of Quill Pen club meetings, as evidenced by the varied nature of the manuscripts read at Tuesday night's session held in the home of Miss Pearl Camblin, 911 Olive street.

For Mrs. Maude Goff contributed a story titled "Fifty-Fifty Split;" Mrs. Frank Was read a juvenile thriller calculated to make any child's scalp prickle with superstitious awe; Mrs. Harry M. Smith added a poem, "Prohibition," and read one written by Mrs. S. P. Marshall which appeared recently in the Los Angeles Times, titled "Trillium Ovatum," and Miss Dorothy Clarkson read a short story, "The Enduring."

Each reading was followed by the usual period of criticism and the program finally ended with a social hour during which Miss Camblin, with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Camblin, served a daintily appetizing menu course.

The next meeting of this group of writers will be in two weeks with Mrs. J. D. Campbell of Orange.

Those present at the latest session in addition to the hostess, Miss Camblin, were Mrs. Blanche Brown, Miss Dorothy Clarkson, Mrs. Maude Goff, Mrs. Frank Was, Mrs. S. B. Marshall, Mrs. Marshall Harnois, Mrs. R. A. Cushman, Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Mrs. Herman Reuter, Mrs. Harry M. Smith, and Mrs. Camblin.

Orange Announcement Party of Interest To Local Friends

Santa Ana and Orange friends of Miss Florence Gillogly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly of Orange, will be interested to learn of the announcement of her engagement to James E. Donegan of Sacramento. The interesting news was told last night at a bridge party given in the Gillogly home, 137 East Maple avenue, Orange.

Decorations for the lovely affair were arranged in pastel tints, yellow, pink and blue predominating. Baskets of gladioluses in these colors were placed about the rooms and rainbow hued candles were tied with tulle bows.

Before the bridge game a radio program was enjoyed and when a station seemingly from Sacramento, broadcast a program, it was found that one of the numbers was a record, "I Love You Truly," sung by Miss Gillogly. Later it was disclosed that the program from the northern city was a series of records given by means of a new recording equipment, invented by Don Hetrick of this city.

Mr. Hetrick made records of songs sung by the group of guests and afterward they had the unique experience of listening to their own voices.

Prizes at the bridge game were awarded to Mrs. Carl Dole, first, Mrs. William Newell, second, and Miss Ruth Gulick, third.

Refreshments were served at the close of the card game with fortunes as the individual favors. Miss Gillogly's fortune revealed the news of her engagement in a clever verse. As the forecasts were being read a messenger boy arrived with a corsage of gardenias to which was tied the lovely engagement ring. The gardenias were sent by Mr. Donegan.

The engagement of Miss Gillogly and Mr. Donegan had previously been announced to Sacramento friends of the young people at an afternoon affair in that city.

Last night Miss Gillogly wore a frock of blue chiffon in receiving her guests and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly wore blue flowered chiffon. Miss Helen Gillogly was in peach chiffon.

Miss Gillogly is a graduate of the Orange union high school and of the Progressive Music Series college of St. Louis. For the past two years she has been a member of the teaching staff of the Pease Conservatory of Music of Sacramento. Mr. Donegan is a graduate of the Roseville high school and Sacramento junior college and is employed by the Southern Pacific Railway company.

The wedding will be an event of early winter.

Those present were Mesdames S. B. Edwards, L. R. Wilson, J. D. Campbell, Richard Robinson (Hester Claypool), Charles Robinson (Vera Hagerman), Gerald Schyrock, Loren White (Anna Griffith), Robert Hartman, Kenneth Reynolds (Ina Hagerman), Clyde Bennett, Carl Dole, John King, Hal Brown, Cecil Chambers, William Newell of Glendale; Frank Nuslein, Ross Purdue and Ross Stuckey and the Misses Margaret Gulick and Miss Ruth Gulick of Los Angeles, Margaret Rust, Elizabeth Gile, Lola Merrick, Florence Riddle, Esther Ratcliffe, Elsie Kolkhurst, Josephine Hardin, Mildred Griffith, Helen Gillogly, Florence Gillogly and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly.

Church Group Picnics At Corona Del Mar

Motoring to Corona del Mar on Tuesday evening, members of the Young Married People's class of the United Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic amidst the attractions of the popular beach resort. While they were seated around the bonfire partaking of the picnic supper, they were much impressed by the solemn beauty of the rocks silhouetted against the sunset sky, already brightening with the almost full moon.

After the jolly supper, the merry-makers returned to Santa Ana where they played a round of golf on the picturesque Tom Thumb course on South Main street, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dixon. A sudden shower coming late in the evening interrupted the players, and provided an interesting finale to the affair.

Those present were the Rev. W. H. McPeak, and Messrs. and Mesdames W. W. Hoy, Carlyle Dennis, Ralph Raitt, Charles Berry, J. Peterson, Paul Olmstead, Robert Day, Herbert Dixon, Carson Smith, Harold Finley, J. C. Elmore, W. C. Olson, W. C. Schmidt, T. Grey Johnston, Paul Ebey, Herbert Klitzly, E. T. McFadden and Harry Woodward.

The committee in charge of the picnic plans were Messrs. and Mrs. Carson Smith, Herbert Dixon, Robert Day, J. C. Elmore, T. Grey Johnston and Charles Berry.

Wedding in Anaheim Is Of Much Interest In This City

Santa Ana friends of Miss Dorothy Cunningham of Alva, Okla., a teacher in Central school, Anaheim, were warmly interested in details of her wedding on Sunday, July 6, to Henry C. Schneider Jr., progressive Anaheim business man.

The new home which the young people will occupy for the summer months on East Orangethorpe road, north of Anaheim, provided charming setting for the nuptials conducted by the Rev. C. R. Hudson of Arlington Avenue Christian church, Los Angeles, a close friend of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes Cunningham of Alva, Okla. A bower of ferns and palms, mingled with blossoms in pastel tones, and placed at the entrance to the sun room, made a colorful background for the rites, which were preceded by a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Walter Ross of Anaheim sang "Love's Coronation" by Potter, and Cadman's "At Dawning," with Mrs. Rhea Kenrick at the piano.

Mrs. Kendrick then played the Mendelssohn Wedding March, and two pretty little girls, Mamie Ruth Faris, niece of the bride, and Shirley Justice, one of her pupils, unwound wide pink satin ribbons to provide an aisle to the improvised altar. The little maids were gowned alike in apple-green taffeta with sashes and headbands of orchid, pink and yellow tulle, harmonizing with the decorations, and with clusters of sweet peas to which their ribbons were attached.

Miss Cunningham, entering on the arm of her brother-in-law, Henson Faris, was gowned in silk lace in the very palest of flesh tints, with a silken veil in the same faint coloring, caught cap-wise to her hair with orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride roses and white sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Dorothea Harvey, wearing a formal bridesmaid's gown of orchid silk net, and carrying pale yellow roses. Mr. Schneider was accompanied by his best man, William Pistorius.

Mrs. Henson Faris, sister of the new Mrs. Schneider, and who was married just ten years ago by the Rev. Mr. Hudson, presided as hostess at the reception which followed, and was gowned in chiffon shading from palest pink into deep rose tones. Refreshments were served from a table bearing four tall tapers, each festooned with pastel blossoms. Favors were small boxes of wedding cake and pastel tinted bags of rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are honeymooning at Yosemite valley, Carmel and Santa Barbara. When they took their departure, the bride wore poudre blue wool crepe tailleur with blouse, hat, scarf, and shoes in eggshell tones.

Mr. Schneider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Schneider sr., reside in Schwerin, in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany. After he completed his education in Germany and graduated from a technical school as a watchmaker ,the young man came to this country, living first in Texas. After two years he came to Orange county in 1925 and has been associated with the Kendrick Jewelry store, Anaheim.

His bride graduated from Anaheim Union high school in 1922, after which she returned to Alva and was granted her A. B. degree from the Northwestern State Teachers' college in 1927. She is a member of the Sigma Sigma Sigma national educational sorority. For the past three years she has taught at Central school, in Anaheim, making her home during the school year at the Faris residence, 214 East Adele street, and returning to Oklahoma for vacation days with her parents.

STANTON

Mr. and Mrs. S. Spencer of the Murphee estate visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jenkins, on Saturday. They were all rejoicing over the birth of little William Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Spencer, born at the Murphee Memorial hospital June 22. The child is a great grandchild to Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins.

Mrs. T. W. Clark and Mrs. K. Rutledge visited William Mrowfki at the Orange county hospital on Saturday and found his improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korn left last week for a trip to Germany. They will visit relatives in Illinois and other places before sailing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clark entertained relatives over the week end. Those there were Mr. and Mrs. W. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson an dtwo daughters of San Gabriel, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hatcher of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ben Guptil and Mrs. Charles Guptil drove out from Chandler, Ariz., reaching here on Friday. A family reunion was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ben Guptil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones on the Garden Grove road. Besides the family and two visitors Wilmer Jones, accompanied by Miss Beeson of Los Angeles, Mrs. Mabel Lanterman of Riverside and some friends from Puente were present. Mrs. Ben Guptil will remain two weeks visiting her paents near Garden Grove and her husband's mother, Mrs. Guptil and sister, Mrs. Rea here at Stanton. Mr. Lanterman moved to Riverside last week where he has employment in a dairy.

The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

A Dish For The Anaemic

An acquaintance whose tubercular husband requires a diet rich in fats and proteins has evolved a dish which I think very clever, and one the individual who is anaemic and underweight could use to good advantage.

She uses cooked spaghetti, macaroni, or cheese for the base, varying them for a change each time. The dish used is a small, rather deep casserole. After buttering it generously she puts in a layer of macaroni, then one of cheese, and so on, until the dish is almost full and cheese tops it.

For each cup of spaghetti she breaks a whole egg over the top, allowing the unbeaten white to seep down through the layers and the yolks stay whole on top. Milk is then poured in to fill level with the spaghetti and the dish is baked in a medium hot oven until it is creamy and like custard all through.

The making is facilitated if the milk is first heated. A good chunk of butter added to increase the food value would be advisable is most cases. The recipe has generous portions for four, the calorie value of each being a little over 500 energymaking units.

Muck Melon Frappe
(for 6)

6 small nutmeg melons
1 pint whipping cream
2 egg whites beaten dry powdered sugar
pinch of salt

The success of this frappe depends entirely on the melons. They must be juicy, thoroughly ripe without being mushy, and full of favor. Choosing melons that are just right is not the easiest thing I know of . . . the fruit-stand man's admonition to "pincha' da cocoanut, notta' de banan'" falls to hold good here. I have pinched many a melon and got badly stung when I cut it open. Judge muskmelons by the rich fruity odor.

Cut a thin slice off the top of each melon, scoop out seeds and membrane and drain off the juice which is in them (it goes into the frozen part). Then with a spoon take out all the edible part of the melon, dice it fine and drain off whatever juice can be saved. Put the diced melon on ice until later.

Whip the egg whites very stiff, the cream the same. To the egg whites add the pinch of salt, and as much powdered sugar as you think best, then fold the two together and whip in the melon juice for flavor. Put this cream into the freezing pan or pack in a mould in ice and salt and freeze.

At serving time fill the shells with alternate layers of frozen cream and diced melon pulp and serve with plain cake.

The calories total 3730 but not all this amount will be charged against the six who eat the melon frappe. Some of the cream filling will not be used at this serving, but 500 calories per person will not be out of the way. By reducing the cream to 1 cupful and using 4 egg whites the fat calories can be materially reduced without harming the cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Haan Are Home From Shrine Convention

A most impressive ceremony, whereby a monument to world peace was dedicated amidst a vast crowd of onlookers numbering among its ranks, governors of various states, ambassadors, and other high officials, was witnessed in Toronto, Canada, recently by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haan, 830 South Birch street, who have just returned from an extended six weeks' tour of the United States. The occasion was one of the highlights of the North American Shrine convention, held in the Canadian city.

During the conclave, Mr. and Mrs. Haan report that fifty acres of tracks were in use as grounds for the trains in their capacity as hotels, as the number of tourists swelling the population was so great that there were insufficient housing accommodations.

Leaving Santa Ana late in May, Mr. and Mrs. Haan were aboard the special convention train with its renowned passenger, Leo Youngworth, Imperial Potentate of the Shrine. Among pleasant features of the journey, they visited Vancouver, and stopped at Lake Louise for some time. As passengers on a large boat, they enjoyed a trip up the St. Lawrence river, and stopped at Montreal, Can., and Detroit, Mich. Just before their return home they spent several days at Yellowstone National park. The travelers report that it was especially warm during the greater part of their journey.

FUERSTENAU HOME SCENE OF PARTY

ORANGE, July 10.—A lovely social affair of the week was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Fuerstenau, 232 South Lemon street, when Mrs. Cora Tracy of Jacksonville, Tex., was the guest of honor. Mrs. Tracy is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. C. N. Murphy, 414 Marietta Place.

The evening was spent in conversation and delicious refreshments were served. Decorations were carried out in pink with pink carnations and lovely clusters of pink hydrangeas being used about the home.

Those present were Miss Dorothy Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hamil, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Connell, Mrs. C. N. Murphy, Mrs. Tracy, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Fuerstenau.

The new study of hair, known as the science of trichology, is having widespread results. Hair found in old tombs and caves is throwing light upon men and animals of past ages.

COOPER STARS IN BROADWAY DRAMA

Gary Cooper, who is fast becoming one of the biggest stars on the screen, and who was seen here recently in "The Virginian," comes to the Fox Broadway theater tomorrow for three days in his latest all-talking venture, "A Man From Wyoming."

It is a story of the war. Cooper with Regis Toomey are at work as engineers in Wyoming when the war broke out. They enlist and go to France with a regiment of engineers. Here Cooper is in command of a regiment when a girl ambulance driver, tired of her dull routine, wanders out into no-man's land and draws enemy fire to Cooper's troops.

He falls in love with her, but has her arrested. Later they are married and after a three day honeymoon in a little village back of the lines, he returns to the front. A short time later his regiment is in a big battle and he is reported killed in action.

The girl, June Collyer, retires to a small town and soon is notorious for her wild parties, given in a hope that she can forget her great tragedy. Then Cooper shows up and misunderstands her actions. The picture's ending is a surprise for all.

Ending a four day run at the theater tonight is Lon Chaney in his first all-talking picture, "The Unholy Three." The picture has been playing there since Monday.

The "man of many faces" takes on the title of the "man of many voices" in this film, for Chaney plays five different parts and uses five different voices—all of them his own.

The story well known, is that of a ventriloquist, a midget and a giant who band themselves together for the purpose of robbing patrons of their side show.

ELECTRIC VIOLIN

LONDON, July 10.—An electric violin, the notes of which are amplified by radio tubes, is causing no little comment in music circles here. The violin has no sound box, although there are four regulation strings. When the violin is played, amplifiers and transformers cause the tube circuits to emit perfectly pure tones of far greater volume than those produced by an ordinary violin.

DOUBLE FEATURE BILL TO CLOSE

The double feature program at Walker's State theater is closing tonight.

Columbia Pictures corporation drew on the best Broadway talent to produce "Broadway Scandals," the musical comedy scintillating with mirth and song. Emmet Grant, for many years one of New York's outstanding directors of dance ensembles, supervised the chorus the principals, Sally O'Neil and Jack Egan and the specialty dancers in this ambitious Columbia production.

Tired business men and wide-awake business men will be equally entertained with "The Kiss," Greta Garbo's starring vehicle.

Every effort was made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to furnish Miss Garbo with a story, director and supporting cast equal to her position as one of the foremost screen actresses in America, and the results have been more than satisfactory.

Woman In Court On Theft Charge

Mrs. Joe Russell, 43, of 814 Garfield street, arrested on a burglary charge, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday. Her preliminary examination was set for July 15 and bail of $1000 was made.

She was arrested on a complaint signed by Merle Graham, alleging that several days ago, Mrs. Russell broke into a house on the Graham lease for the purpose of robbing it.

BYRD FILM WILL CLOSE ON FRIDAY

Only two days are left to see and hear "With Byrd at the South Pole," Paramount production, which has been showing all this week at the Fox West Coast theater, unless it is decided to hold the picture over throughout the week, as the case may be. The picture is booked to close here on Friday night.

An epic in motion pictures, a picture that from an educational standpoint never has been equalled, it is the actual flight pictures of Commander Richard Byrd over the south pole. It shows the entire trip, from the time Byrd and his men left New York until their return, and some of the shots made in the region of the pole are said to be the most wonderful ever made by a motion picture camera.

Hundreds of Santa Ana persons who have seen the show declare it to be the best picture they ever have seen. There is no plot, there is no "make believe" in the film, yet the drama of it is unsurpassed. The hardships the men encountered, the snow scenes in the ice covered regions about the pole and the actual planting of the American flag on the pole are some of the features of the film.

Byrd talks in the picture, and the details of the trip are explained as the picture is unfolded. It is like taking the trip yourself without the hardships, for you see everything that Byrd saw, you get his thrills and you go through his adventures.

Aside from the feature, a Fox Movietone news reel, and an all-talking comedy also are shown.

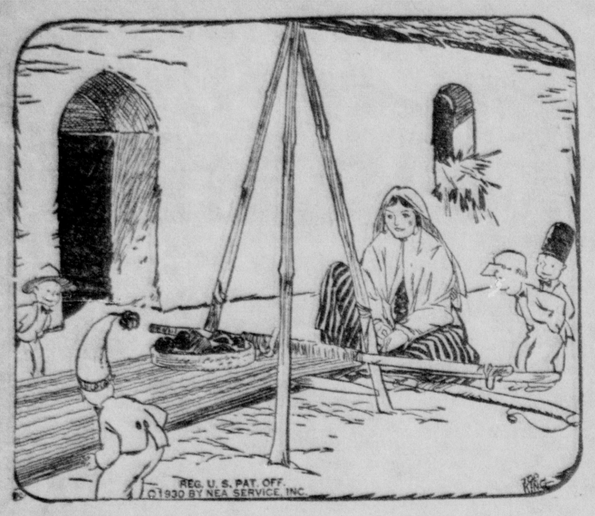
THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING



The Tinymites left their caravan and Clowny said, "Well, now we can just loaf around this city. I'm for walking very slow. It's rather hot. Why get tired out, by rushing wildly all about? Let's take it mighty easy now, no matter where we go."

"Oh, goodness, you're a lazy lad," snapped Scouty. "Rest is all you've had. Why, you've been in a basket sound asleep for quite a spell. Now that we're here, with thrills in store, you merely want to loaf some more. It seems, no matter what we do, you always have to yell."

This hushed up Clowny very quick. He figured he had better stick with all the rest and do just what the others wished to do. The Persian youngsters they had met were glad to play a while. You bet! The Tinies showed them tag and other games they never knew.

Soon Mister Travel Man said, "Boys, you're really making too much noise out on the public highway. You had beter say good-bye to all the little Persians. We've have lots and lots of sights to see. Perhaps we'll find some sights brand new if we start out and try."

So, down a narrow street they went and 'bout a half an hour was spent in looking over this and that. Most everything seemed queer. The Travel Man then said, "We'll hike down to a place I know you'll like. I know an old rug maker who lives very close to here."

The old rug maker soon was found and she was sitting on the ground beside a monstrous rug frame. She was working very fast. The Travel Man explained that she was just as clever as could be. Said he, "The rug she's making now, for years and years will last."

(The Tinymites meet a strange bread man in the next story.)

RULES

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the betters cannot be changed.

WITH to HOLD—Don't WITHHOLD any of your trick shots when shooting this hole. They are all required to get that par five.

Laguna Beach To Decide School Question Tonight

GIVE REPORTS ON GRADES AT MASS MEETING

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—From all indications definite instructions will be given the trustees of the Laguna school district, regarding forming a high school district when citizens meet in adjourned mass meeting this evening. The first meeting was held about three weeks ago.

Two committees are expected to report. One of these, headed by Rev. Raymond I. Brahams, is expected to recommend that a ninth grade be established in the grammar school this year as a part of the Tustin union high school, of which this school district is a part. About 40 pupils are eligible to enter and a canvass showed a majority of the parents willing to have a ninth grade here.

The other committee, headed by Mayor J. E. Bishop, with other members being A. B. Marshall, president of the chamber of commerce, and Roy W. Peacock, president of the Realty board, will report on suitable grammar school sites, one in the northern, one in the southern part of the city.

The proposition discussed is to convert the present grammar school into a high school, building two grammar schools to take its place. An additional five acres of ground would also be purchased near the high school.

Men's Club Hears San Clemente Band

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—The San Clemente band, with J. C. Thompson, directing, gave a concert for the Men's club at that organization's meeting on Tuesday night at the Social club. The program was arranged by Thompson through J. C. Herbsman, chairman of the entertainment committee. Mrs. O. R. Robertson gave a vocal solo accompanied by a trio of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson and son, Clair W. Thompson.

The band will give its first public concert on the lawn at the Social club this evening between 7 and 8 o'clock.

Coast Association Meet At Catalina

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—Golfers of the Orange County Coast association will hold their regular monthly tourney in competition for Tom Talbert's sow, Press-Telegram set of irons and other trophies at Catalina on Monday, July 28. This was the announcement made today by Hal Warner, chairman of the sports committee of the association.

It is planned to have the coast association niblick artists leave for the island on the afternoon boat on Sunday and play the tourney on Monday morning. The trip back to the mainland would be made on Monday afternoon. Warner estimates about 25 will compete in the Catalina tourney.

Tom Talbert will take care of arranging for the tourney and minor details will be worked out by Warner and his committeemen, G. Scherck, George Macleod and K. P. Frederick.

PLAN IMPROVEMENT OF MISSION HILLS

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—A meeting was held Monday in the Capistrano Hotel, of the property owners of the Mission Hills district, the city planning committee, and Nat Neff, county road engineer, for the purpose of making final arrangements for the improving of the Mission Hills residential section. The county engineer will submit figures in the near future, to cover estimated cost of macadamizing and curbing the streets. The work will come under the road improvement act. Meeting with Engineer Neff were Carl Hankey, chairman of the planning committee; Fred Steffel, Ferris Kelly, H. Halladay and Fred Stroscheim, of the committee, and a number of property owners.

LEAVES FOR MOUNTAINS

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—The family of John Malcolm, superintendent of the Capistrano union high school, will leave next week for a three-week camping trip in the mountains above Sacramento, with Lake Alminor as their destination. Mr. Malcolm will spend the time fishing, and the family will enjoy the freedom of camp life.

GOODYEAR 'BAG' TO FLY OVER LIGHT TOURNEY

NEWPORT BEACH, July 10. — Another new air feature is assured for the twelfth annual Tournament of Lights in Newport Bay Saturday night, following the announcement by H. L. Sherman, general chairman of the event, that the Goodyear company's non-rigid type dirigible, the "Volunteer," commonly known as the Goodyear blimp, will sail over the big aquatic parade between 8 and 10 p. m.

The blimp will arrive here early in the afternoon, probably at 1 p. m., landing on the Irvine property between the bay and the Coast highway, and will take up passengers during the afternoon. The Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce is guaranteeing 20 passengers during the afternoon. It will take two at a time, and will make a trip over the bay area. It will be the first time this or any other dirigible will have been in this part of Orange county.

With the big army anti-aircraft searchlights from Fort MacArthur shooting their mighty beams in the air at both the blimp and the Richfield Oil company's plane, bearing a Neon sign, during "the lights," and the musical part of program being by radio, this year's tournament will have novel air features.

The music is to be broadcast by station KGER, Long Beach, by remote control from the Rendezvous ballroom to three radio sets on floats in different parts of the parade, from which it will be given the public by loud speakers.

At yesterday's meeting of the Newport Beach Exchange club, six members told Sherman they would take rides in the blimp Saturday.

MRS. TALBERT RESIGNS

Mrs. T. B. Talbert has resigned as a member of the public library board where she has served for a number of years. The resignation of Mrs. Talbert has been accepted by the city council. Her successor will probably be named at the meeting of the council in August. The position is one of honor, carrying no salary. The library board consists of five members.

Hubbard Students To Give Recital

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—A number of the piano students of Esther Allen Hubbard will give a musical recital in the parlors of the Capistrano hotel on the evening of July 1. Mrs. Hubbard, who is head of the music department of the Capistrano union high school, is an excellent musician, and the recital is looking forward to with interest.

The program follows:

Duet, "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, by Mary Emma and Barbara Malsolm; group, three numbers, by Mary Emma Malcolm; group, three numbers, by Robert Cook; group, two numbers, by Sarah Louise Otstot; group, three numbers, by Barbara Malcolm; duet, "Invitation to the Dance," by Emma and Barbara Malcolm; group, four numbers, by Frederick Stoffel; Sonata, Opus 2, No. 1, Beethoven, by Harriet Crumrine, and group, two numbers, by Pearl Alice Barnett.

REHEARSE FOR OUTDOOR PLAY AT BEACH CITY

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—Rehearsals are being held regularly for the production of "Pruntlla" in Fairywood amphitheater for three successive week ends in August, under the direction of Oswell Leonard Jackson. Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Los Angeles musician who composed the special score for "Prunella," was in this community this week discussing music with Mrs. Nellye Schwankovsky, who has charge of the music.

Those composing the cast are Miss Hargot Sangster, Marshall Ford, Mrs. Susan C. Kimball, Mrs. Nina McMillan, Mrs. Ella June LaPiere, Miss Ida Harris, Miss Stella Harris, John Marriner, William W. Riddell, Charles Radford, Arthur Whipple, Stanley Newcomb, Vesterman E. Stanley, Frederick Schwankovsky, Chris Valente, Miss Elinor Hinchman, Rex Hoover, Mary C. Hinchman, Miss Ruth Collins, Mrs. LaRue Mayer, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Helen Caldwell, Miss Ruth Walter.

Making Costumes

Those who are making costumes, and who have nearly completed their work, are Mrs. R. L. McCrea, Mrs. M. B. McMillan, Mrs. L. F. Kimmell, Mrs. C. J. Coll, Mrs. Alice Sangster and Mrs. Jackson. Mr. Coll and Andrew S. Hall are in charge of advertising.

This is the first outdoor production attempted for two years.

BUENA PARK COUPLE MARRIED AT HOME

BUENA PARK, June 10.—Miss Mildred Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bacon of Grand avenue, Buena Park, and John Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell of Western avenue, were united in marriage at a pretty home wedding at the bride's home, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The Rev. S. F. Hilgenfeld, of Anaheim, read the service.

Robert D. Bacon, brother of the bride, played "I Love You Truly" as a baritone solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Charlotte Greenawalt, preceding the service, and also the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride wore a beautiful old ivory white satin gown, fashioned with a tight fitting bodice, and a full skirt, with puffed sleeves. The long lace veil was caught to her head with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower boquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. Her traveling costume was of blue flat crepe ensemble with blonde accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony, when the bride's cake and ice cream were served. The happy young couple left for a two weeks motor trip, without announcing their destination. Upon their return, a lovely new home is awaiting them on the ranch of the bride's parents, on South Grand avenue.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bacon and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Jones, and Mrs. Newell Rochford, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Van Loenen and Jane Whittington of Los Angeles; Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Hilgenfeld of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duce and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell, the Misses Jennie, Cornelia and Edna Mitchell, and James, Ira and George Mitchell, Henry Legari, Mrs. Rose Hartman and children, Esther, Ida Mae and Harvel, of Buena Park.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have been residents of this community practically all of their lives. Mrs. Mitchell was assistant in the Southern Counties bank in Buena Park for several years, and Mr. Mitchell is a prominent local electrician.

LAGUNA OFFERS FREE TRAINING IN LIFE SAVING

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—Extending beach protection to the training of young folks in first aid and life saving, Miss Louella Marshall and Virgil Cole, Red Cross students, with Life Guard Dana Lamb will give instruction daily.

Swimming, life saving and first aid classes will be started Friday of this week and Wednesday of next week on a schedule which is expected to give all who desire to join the classes training which will make them ready to be called on in emergencies. Boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 17 will be given class work from 10 to 11 a. m. daily and seniors over 17, from 4 to 5 p. m. daily, these classes to be held on the beach. Certificates will be given those successfully passing examinations in the first class, certificates and emblems to those of the senior class.

An advanced course in life saving and first aid will be held from 5 to 6 p. m. daily on the beach, with a night training course covering six weeks on Wednesday evenings. This begins July 16. This course is for men and women over 17. Swimming classes will be held from 11 to 12 a. m. with classes for beginners from 10 to 11 a. m. daily.

TEMPERANCE IS TOPIC IN MEET AT PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, July 10—Mrs. Pearl Hess, head of the state department of scientific temperance instruction of the W. C. T. U., was speaker at the July meeting of the Placentia W. C. T. U. which was held this week at the home of Mrs. W. W. Blackmer, 25 members being present.

Mrs. Hess first displayed posters from the schools, some of them winning state and other county prizes. Many of them were from the Stanton Mexican school where one of the fifth grade students had supervised the work, which was remarkably fine.

School Children Better

Mrs. Hess told of the decision of the National Education association at their recent convention at Atlantic City to keep scientific temperance instruction in the schools, and told of their investigation of the behavior of high school children during the period 1920-1930 which was bringing out the fact that children are improving in behavior and that there is less drinking among them.

She touched on legislation, ending with the remark that "whenever the Christian forces of this nation begin the exercise of their citizenship, it begins to hurt the opposition."

Speaks On Politics

Mrs. C. E. Utt of Tustin spoke on the various candidates for public positions, and made a talk on allowing criminals to reproduce their kind, stating that we "discriminated against undesirable Europeans but did nothing about limiting our own criminal population."

Mrs. Estelle Harper, county president, was present, and announced the state official board meeting at Pacific Palisades Wednesday, July 16 and the county picnic at Irvine park July 29 when John G. Adams of Torrance would be the speaker, and Dr. M. Lien Hutchinson, candidate for secretary of state, would be present.

It was voted to have the August meeting at the home of Mrs. Blackmer as a pot luck picnic at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. Milton sent in a request for old clothes to sell the Mexicans, and Mrs. Cohoe will take names of those having them to donate.

Thomas Trenery Given Reception

WESTMINSTER, July 9.—A reception was tendered Thomas Trenery on Tuesday evening at the regular Rebekah lodge meeting when friends bid him farewell as he is leaving on Friday for a visit of at least one year in his old home, Truro, England. It is 45 years since Mr. Trenery left his native land the the last 18 years have been spent in this vicinity, he having come here from Norway, Michigan.

The reception which followed the lodge business session was held in the dining hall where refreshments of ice cream and cake and coffee were served. A lovely cake with icing representing the ocean waves and centered by a miniature silver ship and bearing the words "Bon Voyage" was placed at the honorees place as a special favor, the clever idea originating with Mrs. Robert Falcke, a fellow lodge member.

A hose shower was a surprise feature arranged, one of a pair being presented by each of Mr. Trenery's friends present and he was left to match them. A song "Socks and More Socks" in parody of "Smiles," composed by Mrs. Alice Hare, was sung by the company when the presentation was made.

Attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Falcke, Mr. and Mrs. John Nankervis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mansperger, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Trenery, Mr. and Mrs. Gohle, Mr. and Mrs. William Cozad jr., Mrs. Neil Morgan, Mrs. Wm. Schmidt, Mrs. Alice Hare, Mrs. Richard Arnett, Miss Lillian Arnett, Miss Ruth Goble, Mrs. Charles Parr, Mrs. Chas. Murdy, Miss Iola Murdy, Mrs. Evelyn Wardlow, Mrs. Beatrice Knapp, Mrs. Winifred Morris, Mrs. Nellie Groeschner, Miss Ella Murdy, Mrs. H. O. Chamberland, George Abbott, J. O. Pyle and the honoree, Mr. Trenery.

COAST GROUP TO MEET AT SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10. — More than 100 members of the Orange County Coast association will meet at A. Travaglini's cafe in San Clemente on Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the regular monthly meeting of the organization. Members from Long Beach on the north to San Clemente on the south will attend the session. Committee chairman will make reports, according to V. D. Miller, Seal Beach, president.

The progress made in seeking government aid in keeping the beaches of the county free from oil polution will be revealed. The government has commanded all commanders of the coast guard service to see that in the future ships do not dump oil and bilge into the water within the territorial limits of the United States. The meeting on Tuesday will pass a resolution urging the government to set aside patrol boats for this purpose alone.

The advertising committee will report on progress made to secure an additional sum from the board of supervisors for the All Year Club of Southern California for national advertising stressing the importance of Orange county and its coast as a lure for tourists.

At the board of directors' meeting at Balboa on Tuesday the board went on record as endorsing Frank C. Drumm for appointment to a federal judgeship in Southern California. This question will be brought before the meeting.

The August session of the association will be held in Laguna Beach.

AWARD CONTRACT

BREA, July 10.—Massey and Thaxton have been awarded the contract for building the new domestic science addition to the Brea grammar school and work will begin shortly. The consideration is said to approximate $15,000.

The People of the State of California.

To ARBUTUS LILLIAN CORYELL, CORYELL.

By order of this Court you are hereby cited and required to appear before the Judge of this Court in the Court House in the County of Orange, State of California, at the Courtroom of Juvenile Department, on Friday, the 22nd day of August, 1930, at 9:30 o'clock A. M. of that day, then and there to show cause, if any you have, why said person should not be declared free from the control of her parents according to the petition on file herein.

And for a failure to attend and bring said person with you, you will be deemed guilty of a contempt of court.

WITNESS, James L. Allen, Judge of the Superior Court, sitting in separate session in the exercise of his jurisdiction as Judge of the Juvenile Court at the Court House, in the County of Orange, and the seal of said Court, this 25th day of June, 1930.

ATTEST my hand and seal of said Court the day and year last above written.

(SEAL) J. M. BACKS, Clerk.

World Champion
PRESIDENT EIGHT

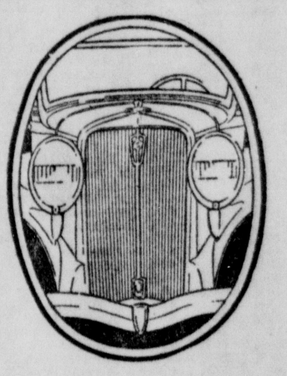
130 inch and 136 inch wheelbases
$1850 to $2600 at the factory



World Famous
COMMANDER EIGHT
Now 101 horsepower
124 inch wheelbase
$1585 to $1785 at the factory

free wheeling is here!

STUDEBAKER, Builder of Champions, presents improved, enlarged, more powerful editions of seasoned Eights—the world champion President, the world famous Commander—plus free wheeling.

Free wheeling is a triumph of that same Studebaker progressiveness that pioneered the popular priced Eight—seasoned it and proved it to the satisfaction of over 100,000 owners. Today the whole industry is following the Eight trend that Studebaker inaugurated three years ago.

A New Experience

Prepare to drive the most unfettered, yet most obedient car in the world—a car that literally floats along, in gear and fully controlled, yet free and silent as though there were no gears!

You shift with silence and safety from high to second, back and forth, at any speed—forty, fifty miles an hour—and never touch the clutch!

The instant you lift your foot from the throttle, no matter how swiftly you may be traveling, your engine drops to idling speed—with no forcing of the engine by car momentum—with no sensation of "piling up".

You know, of course, that Studebaker Eights hold many world records for speed and endurance and more American stock car records than all other makes combined. But the increased power of the great Studebaker Eight engines which drive these new cars is a revelation.

Save Money, Too

With free wheeling, you save 12% on gasoline, 20% on oil—and the heavier the traffic the greater the saving. Carbon is reduced. The terrific reversional strains thrown on rear axle, clutch and transmission of an ordinary car are utterly unknown.

You are ready for any emergency of road or traffic on the instant. No sudden grabbing of the new Duo Servo brakes—no swerving. Instead, a smooth and reassuring drop in speed—swift as your need dictates.

Your steering gear rights itself after a turn—automatically the car swings to "straight ahead". Your car, floating at each spring-end on oil-sealed ball bearings, rides friction-free.

Enviable in Appearance

All the new delights of free wheeling are yours as the crowning achievement of Studebaker's 78 years of manufacturing integrity. They are yours in new bodies, utterly bewitching in eye appeal. Visit the nearest Studebaker salesroom. Drive one of the New Series Studebaker President or Commander Eights. Get a first hand experience with free wheeling. We promise you the thrill of your life!

Shift from high to second at Forty···Fifty miles per hour and never touch the clutch!

Saves 12% on gas, 20% on oil—even more in heavy traffic···· Reduces carbon, lessens strain on engine and transmission

You don't have to touch the clutch except to start or back up

Your car momentum never forces your engine — no sensation of "piling up" when you decelerate···You literally glide along

Your car is surprisingly quiet in every speed···· uncannily silent when you're free wheeling

You are safer because you have absolute control of your car··· You can shift at any speed···· There is less hazard of skidding!

NEW YORK CURB

NE WYORK, July 10.—(UP)—Curb stocks turned irregular after a steady opening today when traders who had picked up various issues at recent lows for a turn switched to the selling side.

Trading continued very quiet, however, and price movements generally were confined to narrow proportions. The market still was devoid of public interest, pending the return of outside factors. Trading continued largely professional in character.

After scoring fractional gains in early transactions, the leading public utilities sold off under large offerings and small declines took place in issues like Cities Service, United Light A, American Superpower, American Light and Traction, and Nigaara Hudson Power. Electric Band and Shrae maintained a fractional gain on good support.

Cross currents also developed in the oil shares, with Houston and Missouri Kansas Pipe Line in supply, while Standard of Indiana and Vacuum ruled firm on good demand. Investment trusts eased under lead of Transamerica, which extended its rceent losses by a drop of more than 2 points to a new low for the year.

After advancing a point in initial transactions, Deer and Company sold off to a net loss of 3 points. Dresser Manufacturing continued strong, advancing more than a point in further reflection of award of a recent large contract to supply parts for a major pipe line enterprise. Prices in other industrial issues backed and filled in a narrow range.

CHICAGO BD OF TRADE

CHICAGO, July 10—(UP)—Wheat closed a nervous and erratic session on the Board of Trade today after easing sharply from its early highs on heavy selling by houses with southwestc onnections, believed to be hedging presure. July corn and oats showed resistance, with the deferred corn deliveries weak and oats deliveries about steady.

At the close wheat was 1¼ to 1½c lower, corn was ⅝ lower to ⅞c higher and oats were ⅛ to ½c higher. Provisions were weak on lards and strong on bellies.

L. A. STOCKS

LOS ANGELES, July 10—(UP)—A bearish attack that found little opposition sent Transamerica corporation down to a new 1930 low today on the Los Angeles stock and curb exchanges—the second time this week the stock has fallen to a new low.

The low record in an early session today was 25½, two points under the previous level.

With the market centering around TAC activity little trading of consequence was done maong other issues, although oils experienced a brisk spurt shortly after the board opened.

Oil quotations were for the most part stronger but with little activity. Standard was up to 61 and a fraction while Union and Union associates were about steady with yesterday's closing marks.

Banks, industrials and utilities were slow with variable prices.

PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, July 10—(UP)—Trading continued inactive today and prices for vegetables generally continued to weaken while most fruits were steady.

Apricots were in moderate supply but met slow demand, small local and Banning fruit bringing 25-35c a lug.

Local blackberries in 30-cup crates were a shade weaker at $2.00-$2.25. Cantaloupes are becoming increasingly plentiful with Imperial valley stock being pushed into the background by liberal receipts from points in the San Joaquin valley. Prices for Turlocka nd Delano cantaloupes weakened today to mostly $2.00 for Jumbo 36s.

Venice celery continued draggy and weak at $1.25-$1.50 a crate.

Local green corn held unchanged at 60-75c a lug for good stock.

Figs have been somewhat less plentiful the last two days, especially Mission figs from the San Joaquin valley, which bruoght 75-90c for good stock in 6-lb. flats. Imperial valley seedless grapes were unchanged at 5-8c a lb. Lettuce was plentiful but good stock was rather scarce and prices held about steady, good dry pack lettuce from San Luis Obispo and nearby points bringing $2.00-$2.25 a crate.

A few nectarines from the San Joaquin valley were sold at 6-9c a lb.

Local white rose potatoes met slow demand but prices were firmly held at $.225-$2.40 per cwt. Local strawberries were still fairly plentiful and dull at $1.50--$2.00 for 30-pint crates.

THE LONDON TREATY

Yesterday we took occasion to point out that our senators at Washington have the privilege of personally seeing the correspondence in relation to the London treaty. The refusal to place this correspondence before them is causing the outbursts against the President and the treaty.

The basis, of course, of this action by the senate is its right and obligation under the constitution to advise and consent to the treaties made by the President. The constitution provides: "He (the president) shall have power by and with the advice and consent of the senate to make treaties, providing two-thirds of the senators present concur."

This treaty was forwarded to the senate on May 1st last. It had been signed on the 22nd of the previous month by the plenipotentiaries of the heads of the United States, France, Great Britain, the king of Italy and the emperor of Japan. Our delegates to London were Charles G. Dawes, who is ambassador to London, Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy, Joseph T. Robinson and David A. Reed, senators respectively from the states of Arkansas and Pennsylvania, Hugh Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, and Dwight W. Morrow, at that time ambassador to Mexico.

At the time the American delegates went to London in January of this year, to take up this matter of naval strength of the nations, the American fleet of cruisers consisted of 11 ships in commission, totaling 80,000 tons. The British fleet consisted of 54 cruisers, totaling 327,000 tons. The British thus had more than four times the tonnage of cruisers that we had. The Japanese fleet consisted of more than twice as many ships and more than double the tonnage of the fleet of the United States. This is important in the light of the present discussion concerning maintaining a ratio with Great Britain and Japan.

There never had been an agreement upon cruisers, though there had been upon battleships. The ratio of battleships had been 5 for the United States, 5 for Great Britain, and 3 for Japan, but the ratio was not to be reached until 1942. In the mean time, Great Britain was to have a stronger battleship fleet than we were to have. At the present time she has 20 battleships to our 18 and Japan's 10. There were other complications in that treaty. The present treaty provides for immediate parity in battleships with Great Britain and a 5 to 3 ratio with Japan. Were it not for this treaty, this parity could not have been reached until 1942, so it advances the parity time by 11 years.

Further than this, the treaty provides that none of us shall build battleships between now and 1936. As a battleship costs in the neighborhood of $40,000,000, certainly the taxpayers of the United States and of Great Britain and Japan are the gainers.

In the cruiser line, there is the provision that we shall continue through the next six and a half years building up our large cruisers, that is 8-inch gun cruisers, of which we have one at the present time, and Great Britain 15 and Japan 8, until at the end of the six and a half years, we will have 18, Great Britain, under the provisions of this compact will have 15. Japan will keep her present number of ships, 12, the eight which she has, and the four which are in the process of building.

When it comes to the 6-inch cruisers, at the present time the United States has 10, Great Britain has 39, and Japan has 21. Under the terms of this treaty, Great Britain is reduced to 35, while the tonnage of the United States is permitted to be doubled. The size of the vessels can be larger or smaller as we choose.

It is recognized that much of the objection that has been raised to this treaty has come from the admirals of our navy. There has been much technical testimony given in respect to the value of various types of ships, but certainly when looking upon it as a layman, we have never been able to see the grounds for objections to the treaty by the "big navy" men.

The naval board wanted the right to build 21 big cruisers against Britain's 15, whereas the treaty allows 18 for us, as against the British 15. The argument of the navy men hinges about the relative power of the 6-inch and the 8-inch cruisers. In the opinion of those who represented the United States, that which America achieved was preferable over that which the opponents would have had us try to get.

What appears to be a serious objection of the opponents to the treaty is that while on the face of it, it would appear that there is parity reached between the United States and Great Britain on battleships, owing to the fact that Great Britain has recently built two ultra-modern battleships, in order for us to reach a real parity, a modernization of our old battleships would be necessary which would cost approximately $118,000,000, and therefore the saving to the taxpayer is only apparent, it is not real. This is true if we would modernize our battleships and make them equal to those of Great Britain. But as a matter of fact that objection would have obtained under the provisions of the other treaty or the treaty now in operation, plus the fact that we would not have reached parity before the end of 11 years.

The basis of the argument against the treaty lies primarily in war psychology, and on the planning for war. It certainly is not carrying out the spirit of the Kellogg-Briand peace pact.

COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE CONDEMNED

A Colorado court has just rendered a decision which nullifies all contracts made by the parties entering into a companionate marriage. In the particular case before the court, an agreement had been made by the man and the woman to live together only as long as it was mutually agreeable, and all marital rights and obligations ceased when they separated. This particular couple separated, and shortly after the man died. The woman sued for her widow's rights. The lower court decided such rights were abrogated by the prenuptial contract, and dismissed the appeal.

When the appeal was carried to the higher court, this decision was reversed. In granting the widow's rights to the woman, the court stated that the "sacred character of the marriage relation is indissoluble, except as authorized by legislative will and by the solemn judgment of a court. It cannot be annulled by contract, or at the pleasure of the parties."

We believe that this represents the general concensus of opinion. The social consequences of any pact has a large bearing upon that act. There are individual rights which cannot be maintained when the consequences are detrimental to the welfare of society. The abrogation of marriage through the whim of the individual cannot be sanctioned. The stability of marriage is essential to the well being of society. Here, says the court, and rightly we think, the individual must bow to the mandate of the state. If this decision stands, we shall have heard the last of companionate marriage as a legal institution.

In France there are 10 times as many bicycles as autos. The same proportion might exist here if we also had an opportunity to handle bars.

PENETRATING TO OCEAN DEPTHS

Dr. William Beebe has invented a bell whereby it is hoped that men will be able to sink to previously unexplored depths of the oceans. Already Dr. Beebe, in apparatus similar to that in which he and Otis Barton, both of the American Museum of Natural History will experiment next year, have sunk to a depth of 1400 feet, at a point near Bermuda, establishing a record for depth penetration.

In a few years we will probably be viewing moving pictures of the forms of life which exist at 1400 feet under the sea and more. Judging by the replicas in the American Museum of Natural History of the sea life which has been observed, the sights from greater depths will be worth viewing.

Daylight Saving a Fad

Riverside Enterprise

The California Daylight Saving league is scattering state propaganda in behalf of the initiatory measure which will be voted on at the general election in November, bringing about compulsory daylight saving in California.

"Daylight Saving" is a catchy phrase which is very greatly misleading. As a matter of fact it does not accomplish what it pretends to. There are just as many hours of daylight whether we have this law or not and the manner in which each individual puts that time to beneficial use is largely his own affair and can be made as effective as he cares to make it under present conditions.

Anyone who has travelled in the east where the daylight saving is now in effect can appreciate the great inconvenience experienced when it is necessary to keep two separate time pieces in order to keep an accurate line on what is going on, and the confusion is always very disconcerting until the people become thoroughly familiar with the system. Then it continues to be inconvenient to people from other parts of the world where this freak idea is forced upon them.

In New York state, the standard train time remains the same while daylight saving is one hour earlier through a portion of the year. It is almost impossible for people to keep clearly in mind what the train schedules are. It is necessary, however, for trains to maintain standard schedules throughout the United States and this same inconvenience will be felt wherever it is forced upon the public.

The farmers are particularly opposed to daylight saving because they are already early risers and are frequently through work in time to come to the city before the stores close. Under the daylight saving plan, stores would close an hour earlier than at present and this would force the farmers to come to the city an hour earlier to do such trading as they may care to do before the closing time.

We have had enough freak legislation in California and other parts of the Union without attempting to keep father time jumping back and forth to suit the theories of people who imagine that it is possible to set the clock ahead and accomplish more than can be done now.

Journalism and Good English

Christian Science Monitor

Stanley Baldwin, recently addressing the delegates to the Imperial Press Conference in London, pleaded for the use of good English in journalism. The appeal is appropriate, both on account of the immense influence in matters of culture wielded by the British press, and because of the illustrious literary heritage that the English papers of today enjoy. Shaw, Barrie, Kipling, Swift, Carlyle, Matthew Arnold and Dickens are among British men of letters who have at one time or another in their careers been connected with newspapers.

It has been suggested that in the less exalted and ambitious forms of literature English standards have not been so rigid as French, because France possesses the guidance of an Academy. Not even an academy, however, can keep a language completely and pendantically free from inaccurate expressions, for the French still talk of "closing the door" instead of "closing the room," as the Academy, in its zeal for complete linguistic purity, once desired that they should. Nevertheless, the existence in the capital city of the kingdom of a body like the Academy does give to French journalism a guarantee of the maintenance of literary standards to which, at least until recently, England could show no counterpart.

Whether the British Broadcasting company will ultimately develop into a linguistic authority in any way comparable with the French Academy there are as yet no means of knowing. But the committee on pronunciation which it has set up, and the talks and debates on good English which it frequently radiocasts, are concentrating public opinion on the question of preserving the purity of the English tongue in a way that in the future will undoubtedly form a most useful check upon the carelessness which the popular press occasionally displays.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE CALL OF THE WILD

Australia needs more hunters to rid her farms of her native wild animals.

If wealthy I should ever be
And need not labor any more
I'm going to sail across the sea
To far Australia's alien shore.
And there at leisure I shall shoot
As many native hunters do
The pademelon, bandicoot
And wallaby and kangaroo.

A kangaroo of course I've seen
A most ungainly brute, but fleet
Which often grows morose and mean
And kicks one with its long hind feet.
But never have I chanced to spy
Much less engage in the pursuit
Of pademelon, wallaby
Or any wayward bandicoot.

But were they stuffed and mounted in
The parlor of my little flat
And people murmured with a grin
When viewing each one: "What is that?"
I'd lay my hand upon the brute
And murmur with a quiet sigh:
"A pademelon, bandicoot
A kangaroo or wallaby."

And through the neighborhood would run
The story of my new born fame
And how I, with my trusty gun
Had bagged all this unheard of game.
And girls would smile into my eyes
And whisper gently: "Aren't they cute—
Those pademelons, wallabies
And that just cunning bandicoot!"

What Is Overproduction?

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

Unemployment, it now appears, has not been so widespread since the major business depression of a decade ago.

Production is curtailed; factories are running part time; furnaces are banked; commodity prices continue to weaken, and stock prices take a new slump in sympathy. Why?

On every hand we hear one answer, above all others: GENERAL OVERPRODUCTION.

Our chief economic aim is increased production. Yet the moment we begin to succeed, we fear that we are about to fail. If we do what we are trying to do so well that we are producing steel at 85 per cent of capacity, we regard that as a sign of impending trouble. In Wall Street it is a bear argument. Indeed, one statistician has produced a record of the rise and fall in the number of blast furnaces in operation, which he declares shows that a rise above a certain per cent invariably forecasts a recession in business.

What does this mean? Does it mean that the country already has all the bridges and subways and machines that it can use? Does it mean that all the houses are adequately heated and the farmers supplied with all the tractors that they can run to advantage?

Far from it. It means only that the country has not yet found any way of distributing to those who would like greater wealth, the additional wealth it is able to produce.

Indeed, throughout the world the conviction prevails of a limited market, a market which cannot possibly expand rapidly enough to absorb all the enjoyable things the world can produce, a market so limited that increased production breeds increased unemployment.

This is the only sense in which GENERAL OVERPRODUCTION is possible. Consumers as a whole, as a result of their joint productive efforts, cannot possibly produce more goods than they would like to consume. All that they ever succeed in doing is to produce more goods than those who want the goods have the money to pay for.

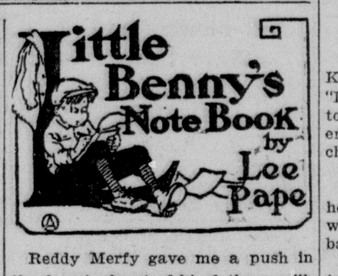
Little Benny's Note Book by Lee Pape



Reddy Merfy gave me a push in the face in frunt of his fathers milk and ice store this morning, and this afternoon I still remembered it on account of it being an exter hard push, and he was fixing the bell on his bysickle and I stod there watching him a while, saying, Hay Reddy, would you consider it a insult if I called you a one legged hippopotamist?

Id consider it a insult to be called any kind of a hippopotamist, Reddy sed, and I sed, Then I wont call you one.

You better not, Reddy sed.

Wich I dident, and pritty soon I sed, Would you consider it a insult if I called you a funny face pazooky?

What the hecks that? Reddy sed, and I sed, It aint anything special, thats why you mite not consider it a insult to be called one.

Well I would just a same, because I dont like the sound of it, and anybody that calls it to me is going to get a bust in the snoot that will nock their frunt teeth down their back throat, Reddy sed, and I sed, Well then I wont call you a funny face pazooky.

And after a while I sed, Would you consider it a insult if I called you a nock kneed parrot toe?

Hay look at here, you cut that out, Reddy sed, and I sed, Why, what's a matter, dont get sore, I dident call you a nock kneed parrot toe, did I?

No, and if you want to keep your good helth out of the hospittle you better not, Reddy sed, and I sed, All rite, dont get ixcited, I wont call you a nock kneed parrot toe, or a one legged hippopotamist or a funny face pazooky either.

Well then shut up about them, and if you ask me about another insult Ill give you a kick in the slats just for good luck, Reddy sed.

All rite, G, dont get sore, I sed. And I wawked away feeling pritty neer as good as if I had axually called him everything insted of just asking him.

Santa Ana Cannery, operated by J. E. Taylor and company, has finished its run upon apricots, green walnuts, cherries, blackberries, strawberries, loganberries, orange marmalade, and grapefruit marmalade. Today the plant is busy upon plums.

At a meeting of the Orange County Taxpayers' League Saturday, W. L. Grubb, of this city, was selected as one of a committee of three to draw up resolutions aiming to start a movement for a charter for the county.

Deputy County Clerk J. M. Backs leaves on Wednesday for Denver, Colo., where he will attend the National convention of the Woodmen of the World as one of eight delegates from Southern California.

Figures compiled by a Los Angeles magazine indicate that in the matter of building during the first six months of the present year, Santa Ana outstripped Whittier, Calexico, Riverside and Redlands.

Miss Doris Robbins of the Home Mutual Building and Loan association is spending her two weeks' vacation at Yosemite, joining her sister Edna there.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THE CENSUS AND POLITICS

The 1930 census reveals an American growing less and less rural and more and more urban.

In 1830 the United States was 7 per cent urban and 93 per cent rural.

In 1840 the United States was 9 per cent urban and 91 per cent rural.

In 1850 the United States was 13 per cent urban and 87 per cent rural.

In 1860 the United States was 16 per cent urban and 84 per cent rural.

In 1870 the United States was 21 per cent urban and 79 per cent rural.

In 1830 the United States was 29 per cent urban and 71 per cent rural.

In 1890 the United States was 35 per cent urban and 65 per cent rural.

In 1900 the United States was 40 per cent urban and 60 per cent rural.

In 1910 the United States was 46 per cent urban and 54 per cent rural.

In 1920 the United States was 51 per cent urban and 49 per cent rural.

In 1930 the United States is 62 per cent urban and 38 per cent rural.

These figures, approximately correct, mean, as I suggested in this column some time ago, the probability of far reaching political alignments sooner or later.

There is today more in common between the city men in both parties and the country men in both parties than there is between the city men and the country men in either parties.

The Democratic donkey and the Republican elephant are each in a psychologic condition, suffering from a split soul and confused by its dual personality.

Each party is more or less hamstrung by the necessity of more opportunistic horse-trading between rural interests and urban interests, with the result that we are suffering from an increasing paralysis of statesmanship.

This cannot go on indefinitely. I hope the result will not be a rural party and an urban party, but, at any rate, I doubt that the nation will be content to go on indefinitely with both is major paries relatively paralyzed by this internal conflict of city and country.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

LOOK OUT; NOT IN

There used to be a line in the King's Daughters motto that read, "Look out, not in." I would like to write that line in every mother's heart, in the heart of every child, every teacher, in the land.

"Look out, not in."

If a child can learn to do that he will be healthy, wealthy and wise, and much beloved into the bargain.

"I'll take, Sonnie, but I won't take Margie."

"O, poor Margie. What has she done?"

"I can't stand her constant complaints. It's one thing after another. She never opens her mouth except to complain about her discomforts. It's, O gee, wait. I got a skeeter bite; m-m, goodness this is a terrible place to come; I got my foot wet; you hit a big bump, Aunt Carrie, didn't you? I felt it right through my stomach; goodness, isn't this sun hot? Why didn't you park on the other side?"

"Those are only a few of the million complaints listened to last trip. This time she stays home."

Staying home is one of the penalties such a child must pay. Everybody is longing to tell his woe to the waiting world and the back of the world's hand is toward him who gets his wail in first and loudest. Most of us learn to keep still but also, some never do. Begin early to teach a child to look outside himself for thoughts, ideas, and words.

This teaching will discipline the body and soul of a child for good. It does none of us the least good to fret about our troubles. The best way to get over a bite is to forget you had it and if you tell yourself persistently that it doesn't hurt, it soon will be the truth! It simply drops out of consciousness and ceases to hurt.

Then make the teaching positive. Instead of thinking of yourself and your troubles, think of the other fellow and say something cheerful. Say a good word for his driving. Point out the beautiful view.

Next, do something cheerful, kindly and unselfish. Give the better seat to somebody else. Share your lollypop, or better yet, buy some sweet that can be shared. Keep busy seeing that everybody else is having a good time, keep reminding yourself that your good time is giving them the happiest hour of the day.

Keep looking out toward the other folk and before long you will have mastered the old secret, "He who loseth his life shall find it," and be happy ever afterward.

Take a little time and trouble to teach the carping child this bit of truth. Teach him to belittle his bites and bumps, his illfortune and mishaps. Keep pointing him away from himself. Keep teaching him the little rule that is so big. "Look out, not in."

On July 10, 1723 Sir William Blackstone, great English jurist and law writer, was born in London, the son of a silk dealer.

Though he had been called to the bar and appointed to a minor judicial office at an early age, it was not until he was 30 that he attracted wide attention. It was his course of lectures on English law at Oxford which brought him into prominence.

When, a few years later, a Mr. Viner endowed a chair of English law at the university, Blackstone was appointed first Vinerian professor. His lectures here won him such fame that he was made king's conusel and later a member of parliament.

Despite his success at the bar, Blackstone's fame rests largely upon his writings, particularly his "Commentaries." This work, until recent times, was considered a legal authority and an indispensable part of the education of every lawyer. The Commentaries still form a part of the regular work of instruction in many American law schools.

Heat Wave In Midwest States Takes Toll Of 27 Lives

Fifty-seven Persons Drown In Efforts to Escape From Heat in Four Days

LITTLE RELIEF IS SEEN

Acute Suffering Reported In Most Sections of Country Since Sunday

CHICAGO, July 10.—(UP)—A scorching sun beat down on the entire central part of the United States from the Alleghanies westward to the Rocky mountains today, continuing a heat wave that has taken more than a score of lives, created acute suffering in the congested metropolitan areas and indirectly contributed to a heavy toll by drowning.

Eighteen cities in 14 states sweltered under temperatures of 100 degrees or more yesterday, according to official weather bureau reports and in many of the cities, the marks were new records.

Little Relief

Most of those cities obtained little relief today, the only cooling spots in the country being the northwestern and east central areas and parts of the far west, all of which had escaped most of the baking.

United Press reports today accounted for a total of 27 heat deaths since the mercury began sizzling on Sunday. Added to these fatalities were 57 deaths by drowning, including the loss of four lives in an excursion boat accident on Lake Michigan.

In the middle west, the deaths were distributed as follows:

	Heat	Drowning
Ohio	1	9
Indiana	3	5
Michigan	0	3
Illinois	5	3
Wisconsin	3	10
Iowa	1	2
Missouri	4	0
Minnesota	3	5
North Dakota	0	1
Nebraska	5	0
Kansas	2	1

Free Ice Distributed

Free ice and milk were distributed among the poorer families of Chicago and infant welfare stations extended their hours to care for seasonal ills.

Almost all beaches in the parks were occupied last night by lightly clad persons unable to obtain sleep in stuffy apartments and flats.

Lake breezes held down the temperature to a maximum of only 86 in Chicago, but the humid atmosphere belied the official readings.

Ruinously dry conditions for crops were reported in parts of the near northwest, with fields browning. Illinois farmers were anxious about their corn crop, which was suffering from firing.

Stunt Flier Ends Life With Crash

OAKLAND, Calif., July 10.—(UP)—Alfred O. Smith, 41, student pilot and retired manufacturer of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., was dead today, the victim of a "stunt flight" that ended in a disastrous plunge into the San Francisco bay.

The accident was witnessed by hundreds of spectators yesterday afternoon.

GASOLINE WAR STILL RAGING IN CALIFORNIA

BULLETIN

FRESNO, Calif., July 10.—(UP)—Fresno motorists today were buying gasoline at the lowest prices ever sold here.

Competing Standard and Shell stations at a downtown intersection had 6-cent prices posted while several stations on Golden State highway were selling at 6 and 7 cents.

The lowest price yet heard of in the San Joaquin valley was accepted by several hundred motorists who clogged the state highway at Kingsburg when they bought Shell gasoline for 5 cents a gallon, 3-cent tax paid, from a retailer. The offer lasted only a few hours.

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—Persistent rumors that major oil companies intended to restore gasoline prices to former levels had failed today to end the economic warfare on the Pacific coast, and motor fuel continued to sell all the way from 7½ to 19½ cents.

The top price was asked by a number of independents in Los Angeles who banded together in an effort to halt the price cutting, claiming it was suicidal to the $100,000,000 independent oil industry in California. The major companies, despite rumored increases, continued selling at from 10 to 14½ cents. At some stations it was offered as low as 8 cents.

Seeks Conference

The Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce took a hand today with a statement by President John C. Austin that he will immediately call a series of conferences with leaders of the industry to seek an end to the conflict. His action came on the heels of word from Herbert MacMillan, official of the independent company bearing his name, that he will ask for an investigation by the U. S. department of justice if the war does not end soon.

An independent dealers' organization in San Francisco, which previously asked Governor C. C. Young to act, threatened to sell gasoline at wholesale prices next week unless the market was stabilized. The association asked the governor to declare all producers and distributors as public utilities, placing them under the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission.

Major concerns, however, had no

STATE DEPARTMENT OPENS ROAD BIDS

SACRAMENTO, July 10.—(UP)—Bids for state highway and bridge projects totaling $558,741 were opened here yesterday by the state department of public works. The projects and low bidders included:

Los Angeles county—surfacing 12.6 miles north of Castaic school, Valley highway; Southwest Paving company, Los Angeles, $134,330.

Riverside county — widening 6.2 miles roadbed between northerly boundary and point west of Beaumont, San Bernardino-El Centro highway; Steele Finley, Santa Ana, $34,402.

Body of Cardinal In Dataria Palace

ROME, July 10—(UP)—The body of Vincenzo, Cardinal Vannutelli, law in state today in the throne room of Dataria palace, where the dean of the sacred college had lived the latter part of his 93 years of life.

All Rome grieved at the death of the aged cardinal, although it was not unexpected. He had been in poor health many months, but appeared on the way to recovery when he suffered a relapse, lingered a week, and died yesterday, conscious to the end.

Funeral services will be held Saturday in St. Ignatius' church it was announced at the palace. Full details for the ceremonies were not disclosed.

Suspect Police Of Freeing Lingle Slayer

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—Three Los Angeles police officers were under fire today when investigators learned that the slayer of Alfred J. Lingle, Chicago newspaperman, may have been released by them after he was arrested.

The inquiry was linked with the disappearance of three specially made revolvers similar to the weapon used in the Lingle killing. Frankie Foster, Chicago gangman indicted in the slaying and held here pending extradition hearing Tuesday, allegedly was the original owner of the murder gun as well as the three others. These latter mysteriously disappeared from Foster's luxurious Los Angeles apartment after his arrest in a raid by police.

ALEX PANTAGES SLANDER SUIT IS DISMISSED

Attorney for Russian Actor Drops Suit to Collect $500,000

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—The $500,000 slander suit brought against Alexander Pantages, millionaire theater owner by Nicholas Dunaev, Russian actor, was dismissed today.

Dunaev's suit was based on the charge that Pantages, on the day he was arrested for assertedly assaulting 17-year-old Eunice Pringle, claimed publicly that he was the victim of a conspiracy engineered by the young co-ed, Dunaev and others.

The dismissal was filed in superior court by S. S. Hahn, attorney for Dunaev. Hahn declined comment on the cause of his action claiming that the confidential relations between client and attorney prohibited explanation.

It was rumored, however, that Dunaev received no settlement from Pantages who now is out of jail on $100,000 bond pending the result of his appeal to conviction on the assault charge.

Dunaev, in his action, accused Pantages of having said in the presence of witnesses: "Dunaev is the master mind in this conspiracy to blackmail me."

The dismissal of the Dunaev suit will have no effect, Hahn said, on a similar suit for $250,000, filed by him in behalf of Frederick Wise, state's witness in the Pantages assault case.

In addition to Wise's suit, Miss Pringle has a million dollar action against the showman.

Pantages was convicted of assaulting Miss Pringle when she called at his office seeking a booking for her vaudeville act. He is under sentence of from one to 50 years in San Quentin.

Dunaev was a close friend of Miss Pringle's and was the author of her vaudeville sketch. He was a state's witness at the trial of Pantages.

British Prime Minister and Labor Government Win In Strong Tests

LONDON, July 10.—(UP)—The labor government's survival of three strong attacks in the house of commons yesterday was believed in political quarters an assurance that Prime Minister MacDonald would remain in office at least until the summer recess late this month.

Two other dangerous political reefs must be crossed before the recess, but MacDonald was considered sure of success in both instances, if only by a narrow margin. The conservatives propose a vote of censure of the government's failure to enact what they regard as effective safeguarding barriers, but since a motion would be against the liberals' free trade policy, the liberals undoubtedly would support the laborites, and defeat the motion.

Another attack may be made in the house of lords when it considers again its oft-introduced amendment to the coal bill. The amendment was rejected by the house of commons yesterday for the second time, constituting one of the government's three victories.

The amendment would have spread miners' working hours over 90 hours in a fortnight instead of a straight 45-hour week, as at present.

Commons rejected the amendment by a substantial majority of 296 to 238, but the government's victory on one of the other two measures, both relating to the finance bill, was won by only three votes.

That was on a motion proposed by E. L. Bergen, liberal member, which was rejected 278 to 275. The government would have been defeated if several liberals had not abstained from voting.

Burgin introduced his motion after the commons, by a vote of 278 to 156, had rejected another finance motion by the liberal member, Major H. L. Nathan.

Continue Search For Howard Lamel

LOS ANGELES, July 10.—(UP)—The belief that Howard Lamel, 18, lost his footing and plunged to death down the steep east side of Mt. Whitney, was strengthened today when searchers no longer were able to find foot prints of the missing youth.

A trail which trackers had been following through the snowpatches and up the rugged side of the mountain, ended suddenly today at the base of the uppermost ascent.

Searchers prepared to divert their attention to the crevassed rock below, hope that young Lamel ever will be found alive having virtually subsided.

The youth was lost last Saturday when he separated from a group of companions with whom he was scaling Mt. Whitney. He planned to attempt the difficult east side of the peak while the balance of the party took the easier west side.

Guggenheim to Aid Work On Rockets

NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—For 15 years Professor H. Goddard has been experimenting with rockets to discover for science the mysteries of extreme altitudes.

His tests have proved so successful that Daniel Guggenheim has announced a grant to aid him in continuing the work. Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh is a member of the committee under whose direction further experiments will be made.

Although the immediate object of his rocket tests was to develop a means of getting information about altitudes of from 25 to 250 miles above the earth, Goddard feels that inter-planetary communication by means of large reckets is not impossible.

PAROLE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO TWO RADICALS

Billings Joins Mooney In Declaring That Full Pardon Wanted

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—(UP)—Warren K. Billings, the obscure member of the Mooney-Billings combination, today joined Tom Mooney in declaring that a parole from prison is not desired.

The statement was made in commenting on the recent act of the supreme court in refusing to recommend him for a pardon, this being followed by Gov. C. C. Young's refusal to grant Mooney a pardon.

Mooney has said many times during the years he has been in San Quentin that he does not want a parole, that a pardon or nothing was his goal.

Billings never before committed himself on the parole phase, although his applications for freedom have been requests for a full pardon and not for a parole.

Makes Statement

Billings' statement was made at Folsom prison where he has been for 14 years since conviction of complicity in the 1916 preparedness day bombing at San Francisco.

SHIP BODY OF FILM STAR TO NEW YORK

HOLLYWOOD, July 10.—(UP)—The body of Archie Selwyn jr., 19-year-old son of the noted theatrical producer, will be taken to New York for burial, upon the arrival here of his mother, now flying from the east.

The youth died late yesterday at the Hollywood hospital from injuries received in an automobile accident July 4, when he sustained concussion of the brain. An inquest was to be held today.

Selwyn junior, despite his youth, already had begun a motion picture career as an aide to Samuel Goldwyn, film producer.

Mystery Wound May Solve Murder

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10. —(UP)—A seemingly incongruous head wound led police today to believe that an aged man found dead at the foot of Van Ness avenue may have been murdered before he was thrown from the docks.

Papers found on the body established his identity as John Thurman, 65, of Oakland.

Besides a broken leg and internal injuries, indicating that he may have fell from the docks, there was a gaping head wound, which detectives believed was caused by a gunshot.

Other papers on the body contained such phrases as "you'll have to answer questions if you want the money."

GIRL CLAIMS LOVER FORCED HER TO TAKE POISON WHEN SHE REFUSED TO MARRY HIM

Forced to swallow poison from the hand of her supposed lover, Miss Louise Goemer, maid at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Loescher of 910 East Chapman avenue in Orange, was recovering this morning from the strange happenings at the Loescher home last night.

According to available information, Carl Becker, recent arrival from Germany and unable to speak English, had called on the maid yesterday evening. After leaving, he returned, took some tools from the Loescher garage and pried off the screen to the window of the maid's room. He then asked the girl to marry him and when she refused, he made her swallow poison from a bottle.

Miss Goemer was found this morning in a very serious condition and Dr. W. S. Wallace was summoned. After using a stomach pump to extract the poison, the young girl recovered sufficiently to tell her story. She also is a recent arrival from Germany, coming here last September.

Police authorities have been unable to trace Becker, although every effort is being made to locate him.

Chas. Carroll Suicides By Taking Poison

Body of Wealthy Man Is Found in Den of His Home By Employe

CHARLES CARROLL, 40, wealthy and prominent Anaheim rancher and member of the pioneer family of Carrols at the Mother Colony, committed suicide yesterday afternoon, although the means used had not been determined this afternoon by Coroner Charles D. Brown and Sheriff Sam Jernigan, who were making an investigation of the case.

The body was found this morning by a Mrs. Pazie, who resides on the Carroll ranch, on Lincoln boulevard, just at the city limits of Anaheim. She called J. D. Wallace, Ed Pullman and Paul Yoriby, employes of the ranch and they in turn notified the sheriff's office.

Mr. Carroll's body was lying in the den of his home on a couch. That he had been dead for approximately 15 hours was determined through a statement made by Tim Carroll, his nephew, to the effect that he saw his uncle lying on the couch late yesterday afternoon, but thought he was asleep and did not disturb him.

Leaves Note

All doubt about the death being other than suicide has been removed with the finding of a note left by Carroll, addressed to his wife, Mrs. Rose Carroll, who at the present time is visiting relatives in Maryland, according to Coroner Brown.

According to the coroner, the note simply asked his wife to forgive him for the deed, stating that he was ill and despondent. There had been no family trouble and Carroll and his wife were on the best of terms, Brown said.

Took Poison

Carroll ended his life with some kind of poison in the opinion of Sheriff Jernigan and Coroner Brown, although there was nothing found in the way of a container near the body. Coroner Brown said that the body probably would be posted this afternoon to determine the kind of poison used.

The body has been taken to the Backs, Terry and Campbell funeral parlors at Anaheim, and Coroner Brown said that in view of the note left by the man, that he probably would not hold an inquest.

Carroll was the son of Tim Carroll, pioneer of Orange county and well known throughout the state. He was the inventor of the present method of loading beets into railroad cars and his invention made him known throughout the beet growing communities of the nation.

YELLOW-BIRD FLIER SUES FOR DIVORCE

PARIS, July 10. — (UP)—The trans-Atlantic romance of Jean Assolant and Pauline Parker, which started at Old Orchard Beach in Maine, ended in a Paris divorce court today with all concerned agreed that a divorce decree would be granted in eight days.

Lawyers for both Assolant, who piloted the Yellow Bird on a flight across the Atlantic ocean, and his wife, who formerly was a New York chorus girl, argued separate divorce suits, the result of quarrels between the couple.

Mme. Assolant has been in Paris since shortly after the successful flight of the Yellow Bird.

YOUNG SCORED IN MOONEY DECISION

NEW YORK, July 10.—Governor C. C. Young's refusal, in California, to pardon Thomas J. Mooney and Warren K. Billings brought a denunciation today from the Socialist party as "a thinly disguised act of vengeance."

Comparing the action to "the frightened and defiant conduct of Governor Fuller in the Sacco-Vanzetti case," Morris Hillquit, national chairman of the party, declared:

"When a ruling class becomes brutal and reckless in dealing with its opponent it is always an infallible symptom of weakness. The cases of Sacco-Vanzetti and Money and Billings may yet serve to stimulate a powerful movement of revolt against the powers of oppression and injustice."

Chairman of National Executive Body Meets with Others During Morning

Two Hour Session Today Is Adjourned at Noon Until Later In Afternoon

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(UP)—The meeting of Republican leaders here with Claudius H. Huston, chairman of the national committee, recessed for lunch shortly after noon today, after a two hour session. Huston promised a statement later today. The session was to reconvene at 2 o'clock.

Huston declined to say whether the statement would touch upon his resignation, which is demanded by Republican leader.

The chairman in a conference with newspaper men after the morning meeting, said the subject of his resignation was not mentioned, and said that if it is brought up at the afternoon session today I will release a written statement to the press."

"Will that statement touch on the subject of your resignation?" he was asked.

"I haven't anything to say about that now," the chairman replied. "I will issue my statement later."

After the morning session, Daniel E. Pomeroy, N. J., vice-chairman of the committee, James Francis Burke, general counsel and J. R. Nutt, treasurer, went to the White House to report to the president. Others present at the meeting were J. Matt Chilton, Kentucky national committeeman, Earle S. Kinseley, Vermont national committeeman, Senator Moses, New Hampshire and Representative Wood, Indiana, chairmen of the senatorial and congressional campaign committees, respectively.

Administration Upheld In Vote On London Pact

WASHINGTON, July 10.—(UP)—The senate overwhelmingly supported the administration today in the first test vote on the London treaty by voting 38 to 17 to modify the McKellar resolution which would have made an unqualified demand upon President Hoover for production of secret papers pertaining to the London treaty.

The senate adopted an amendment by Democratic Floor Leader Robinson, Arkansas, a London conference delegation requesting that the president submit only documents whose publication would be compatible with the public interest.

The amended resolution was adopted, 53 to 4.

Arraign Carroll For "Vile" Show

NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—Earl Carroll will have to wait until tomorrow to learn whether he must stand trial on a charge of exposing too much female epidermis on the stage of the new Amsterdam theater where his "Vanities" are playing to crowded houses.

His hearing was postponed until 11 a. m. tomorrow, when called today in Jefferson Market court. Carroll, true to his promise to surrender, appeared in court with Jimmy Savo, chief comedian, and seven other members of the cast, who were arrested after the matinee yesterday.

Alfred Beekman, Carroll's counsel, pleaded for more time to study the complaint which charged violation of the statute against presenting a "vile and indecent theatrical performance."

NO SUMMER MEETINGS

PLACENTIA, July 10.—No special meetings will be held by the auxiliary of the Placentia American Legion post during July and August, it was decided at the regular business meeting held in the chamber of commerce hall Tuesday evening.

Routine business was taken care of and plans were completed to attend the state convention at Sacramento. The next meeting will be held Tuesday evening, August 12.

Allocate $100,000 Of Delinquent Tax Collections

PAYMENTS FOR YEAR APPROACH 100 PER CENT

Of the total amount of $125,105.57 which was collected through the office of County Auditor W. C. Jerome during the fiscal year which closed June 30, as redemption of delinquent taxes, a report prepared by Lester Eckels, deputy auditor, shows that $101,866.13 has been apportioned to various county funds. The balance, according to Jerome, goes to the various cities and special funds whose tax collections are handled through the county. The amount collected during the past year was $21,745.28 greater than that collected through the same channels in the previous year, when the total was $103,360.29.

The payments made on delinquent taxes bring collections for the year 1928-29 almost to the 100 per cent figure in many localities. Search of the accounts reveals that of the taxes for the city of Santa Ana in 1928-29 only one seventh of one per cent of the total taxes levied remains outstanding on the books and unpaid. This amount to $508.85. In Placentia, the uncollected balance amounts to only $11, according to the county auditor.

The cities which share in the distribution of the delinquent taxes and the amounts they receive are as follows: Santa Ana—city, $6,603.02; street improvements, $11,332.01; weed tax, $464.12. Fullerton—city, $1889.57; street lighting, $59.27; weed tax, $28.74. Seal Beach—city, $342.87; street improvements, $440.84; weed tax, $35.33. Laguna Beach—$552.64. Laguna Beach water district, $1106.59. San Clemente—$185.21. La Habra, $65.85. Placentia, $5.72. Tustin, $127.66.

The apportionment to county funds as shown includes the following amounts: county general, $59,212.73; county school, $31,391.59; cemetery districts, $389.92; fire districts, $250.84; county free library, $279.02; special drainage districts, $3302.37; special protection districts, $1237.63; special road improvement districts, $1673.03; special sanitary districts, $767.87; and special county improvement districts, $1713.36. There were also several other accounts which received part of the amount realized from the collection of delinquent taxes, including lighting districts.

MCGEAN SUSPENDED BY STOCK EXCHANGE

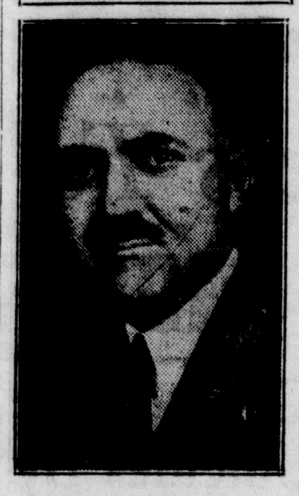
NEW YORK, July 10.—(UP)—James H. McGean, floor member of Sutro and company, one of the largest commission houses in the country, was suspended today from the New York stock exchange for three years, according to an announcement from the rostrum of the exchange.

Sutro and company were immediately retired as clearing members which practically eliminates the firm from stock exchange privileges. Logan and Bryan company will assume open exchange contracts of Sutro and company, the announcement said.

Sutro and company in addition to local offices have branches in Los Angeles, Oakland and San Francisco.

HONOR GUEST

O. D. Brundige, international president of the Loyal Knights of the Round Table was the guest of the local table at a dinner at Ketner's cafe this noon.



HEAD OF ROUND TABLE HONORED BY LOCAL CLUB

O. D. Brundige, of Dallas, Tex., international president of the Loyal Knights of Round Table, was the guest of honor at the noon-day luncheon of the Santa Ana Round Table held today at Ketner's cafe. The occasion was enhanced by the presence of visitors from the Long Beach and Los Angeles tables. A. G. Green, president of the local organipation, presided.

Today's meeting was a repetition of the customary spirit of good fellowship that has long been identified with the social activities of the Santa Ana table. The usual jokes and bits of horse play, in which even Brundige took an eager part, dominated throughout.

Brundidge's address was confined to a resume of the work the order of Loyal Knights of the Round Table is doing not only in this country but in Canada and Mexico as well. He congratulated the Santa Ana table on its progressive spirit and cited as an instance the manner in which the organization helped to make possible the boys camp at Osceola.

"The splindid work the Santa Ana Round Table has done in promoting the interests of those boys who otherwise wouldn't have been able to take advantage of the summer outing, is in itself a true criterion of the sort of things we naturally expect from those who will continue to carry on the standards and principles of our organization."

International President Brundige also reviewed the work of the Phoenix Round Table and the part it has played in helping those tubercular victims who have migrated to the vicinity of Phoenix, hoying that through its beneficial climate, they may be restored to health. He said that the Phoenix table had acquired funds among its own membership and with this money built homes and provided food and clothing for those unfortunates who had no income.

Mr. Brundige closed by saying "Once you visit Southern California, you can't help wanting to come back. I want to thank you for the many kindnesses you have extended me."

In addition to Mr. Brundiges' talk there were short addresses by George Roalfe and G. H. Burlinghame of Long Beach, and Joseph A. Clemmons, lieut. governor of District No. 2, from Los Angeles.

Two well rendered vocal selections by James H. Sewell brought forth rounds of applause. Mr. Sewell was accompanied on the piano by Miss Helen Lutz.

A highlight of today's meeting was the formal welcome tendered seven new members recently admitted into Knighthood. This ceremony was in charge of James H. Sewell and Herman Powell. Those upon whom this honor was conferred were Dr. Edwin D. Kilbourne, Frederick Eley, Lynn Crawford, Al Jones, Earl Wyman, Elmo N. Owen, W. H. Wright, and Walter Swansberger. The latter newcomer was unable to attend in person but his application was read by Secretary Clarence Oleson and endorsed by the assemblage.

It was also announced that the Rev. O. W. Reinus, pastor of the Bridgeville Avenue Methodist church, and delegate to the national convention at Milwaukee, will leave here Monday via plane for the convention city.

Next week, Earl Wyman is scheduled to give an address. Another musical program, in keeping with the occasion, is being arranged.

Last night, 17 members of the Santa Ana Round Table journeyed to Hollywood to participate in the charter program of the recently organized Hollywood Round Table. A pretentious program, enlivened by the presence of President Brundige, marked the formal admittance of the motion picture colony table.

Santa Ana was represented in the musical entertainment by Miss Kathryn Kilbourne who presented two violin solos. Miss Kilbourne was accompanied on the piano by Franz Darvis, well known musician of Los Angeles.

PAROLE IS NOT ACCEPTABLE TO TWO RADICALS

that I will get a parole if I ask for it.

"Aside from everything else, I do not deserve a parole in the eyes of the law. I am not penitent, not contrait. I am not sorry. I have done nothing wrong so I cannot be penitent."

Another reason for not wishing to ask for a parole, Billings said, was that he desired to talk with Tom Mooney, who is in San Quentin. The "talk" would be through mutual friends.

Claims Innocence

"Tom and I have been prisoners for 14 years for a crime in which neither of us is guilty," Billings said. I won't change my plans until I hear of Tom's desires."

Billings refused to become excited about the search for John McDonald, waiter witness who helped send him to prison and who later, by affidavit, repudiated the testimony.

In refusing Mooney's pardon Governor suggested that McDonald be returned to California and tell his repudiation story to the state supreme court. The supreme court, in refusing to recommend Billings' pardon application and Governor Young, in denying Mooney's pardon application, placed faith in McDonald's trial testimony but declined to believe the repudiation affidavit.

ANAHEIM OPENS BIDS ON ROAD CONSTRUCTION

ANAHEIM, July 10.—Opening of bids on bonds for the proposed Lincoln avenue and West Center street improvement projects at the Anaheim city council meeting Tuesday evening resulted in the offering of a premium of $226 for a bond issue of $39,274.85, against acquisition and imprvoement district number two, for the purchase by condemnation proceedings of property to permit the widening of West Center street between Palm and West streets, Redfield, Van Evera and company of Los Angeles being the low bidders and consequently were awarded the issue.

G. W. Bond and Son of Santa Ana were awarded the issue of $16,700 for acquisition and improvement district number three, the widening of Lincoln avenue from West street to the city limits. The premium offered was $11. This same company bid $181 for the above issue.

Other business included in the session was the second and final reading of a new fire hazard prevention ordinance No. 542, regulating the inspection of the fire hazards and prohibiting the transfer of gasoline over certain streets in the business section. The ordinance was passed.

Specifications calling for bids on 15,000 pounds of copper wire, 2000 feet of black and white wire, and 2500 feet of cable were approved and city clerk was authorized to advertise for bids on same to be opened at 8 p. m. Tuesday, August 12.

Approval was made of an agreement with the United States Industrial Alcohol corporation for the leasing of a parcel of land for the purpose of erecting a chlorinator for city use. Approval was also made by resolution of a deed to property sought by the city for alley purposes, north of West Center street and east of North West street, from Jacob and Lydia Wittmer.

Reports from the various departments were heard. Outstanding among which was the report through the accounting department of the city plunge, which revealed that 4425 persons had availed themselves of the use of the plunge during June, with total receipts of $576.10.

Continue Quiz Of Bay City Murderer

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10. —(UP)—The preliminary examination of Theodore Cilley, 20, confessed slayer of David Lindsay, continued today, with the probability that it will be concluded before night.

Cilley, former inmate of Preston Reform school, pleaded guilty to murder yesterday. H esaid that he went for a drive with Lindsay, held him up and shot him when Lindsay tried to flee the automobile. He then put him back in the car and drove to Fleishhacker pool, where he threw him out and escaped in Lindsay's car.

public announcement on their future policies, and the result was that today gasoline on the Pacific coast sold approximately as follows: San Francisco, 11 to 14 cents; Portland, 8½ to 12 cents; Seattle, 11 to 13; San Joaquin valley cities, 8 to 10. Prices included three cents tax in California and four cents in Oregon and Washington.

"Utter chaos," was the description of the war by garage owners in San Francisco. C. F. Butterick, of the San Francisco Garage Owners' association, said, "Tank wagon prices vary hourly. Many more days of such business will force many station owners to the wall."

Observers of the situation regarded the recent gas conservation program inaugurated in California as the underlying cause of the war.

Producers Join

Major companies agreed on a plan of production curtailment designed to prevent the profligate waste of gas resources. In taking crude oil from the ground millions of feet of natural gas were being blown into the air daily in California fields.

Practically all the producers joined the move, but some few refused and continued unstinted production. This failure to cooperate, it was believed, may have led to the coast gas war, starting in Los Angeles and spreading elsewhere.

Equipped with storage facilities to care for surplus stocks, and well backed financially, major companies are able to stand the war, but the smaller independents are being slowly forced out of business, officials of the latter charged. MacMillan's statement asserted the war "obviously was to injure competitors."

Washington was not a member of the Continental Congress when the Declaration of Independence was adopted and consequently he neither voted for it nor signed it.

LODGE LEADERS ARE INSTALLED IN GETTY HALL

At an interesting meeting of Wah Conda council, No. 202, Improved Order of Red Men, held last night in Getty hall, new officers for the coming year were installed, with Florence Mackel as Pocahontas, the head of the official staff.

A degree team whose members were assembled from various Los Angeles branches of the order, put on the installation work in a manner that elicited much praise.

Officers installed to serve with Mrs. Mackel, were Jennie Lewis, prophetess; Bertha Thorp, Wenonah; John Kolb, Powhatan; Grace Gettle, keeper of records; Jewel Jameson, keeper of wampum; Aura Hunton, collector of wampum; Gladys McDonald, Florence Merriman and Charlotte Adams, first, second and third trustees; Persis Branson, first scout; Lucille Carter, second scout; Maynard Thorp, Frank Hess, Laurence McMinamin and Nate Dunstan, first, second, third and fourth warriors, respectively; Julia Ann Hess, first runner; Alberta Duryea, second runner; Nellie Dunstan, first councillor; Dorothy Kolb, second councillor; C. C. Lewis, guard of tepee, and Morris Mackel, guard of forest.

The most distinguished guest of the evening was Lotta Hughes, of Majella council, Los Angeles, a past Grand Pocahontas, who remained for the evening of dancing which followed the business session. Refreshments were served as a finale.

DEATHS

A WORD OF COMFORT

The fact that you may not believe in the sort of a future life which some of your neighbors expect, does not mean that you do not believe in any life beyond the grave.

It is futile to attempt to draw a picture of an existence of which you do not know the details.

Form your own conception of Paradise, if you choose, but do not stifle your instinctive conviction that your dear one lives and loves and knows. True love binds souls together forever and your lives can never become completely separated.

Each one of you goes on developing the finer qualities of your natures and at length you shall walk together again.

INQUEST WILL BE CONDUCTED IN BEACH CITY

F. P. Rowland, 76, of Smeltzer, who was fatally injured yesterday morning when he was reported to have been run down by an automobile driven by J. W. (Pinky) Williams, of 910 Orange avenue, Huntington Beach, died yesterday afternoon at the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

Death was said to have been due to a fractured skull and internal injuries. The body was removed to the Dixon Funeral parlors at Huntington Beach, where Coroner Charles D. Brown said he would hold an inquest this afternoon.

Rowland had stepped across the road near his home to get his mail from the box at the time of the accident. He hesitated and Williams, thinking that he would wait until the car passed, did not stop his car. Rowland then stepped out in front of it. according to a report made here.

The injured man was taken to Dr. Hawes' hospital at Huntington Beach for first aid treatment and then was removed to the Santa Ana Valley hospital.

Beulah Brightwell Secures Judgment

On stipulation of counsel, Judge G. K. Scovel today rendered judgment for the plaintiff in the damage action of Beulah Brightwell vs. G. P. Barus, et al, in amount of $219. The plaintiff had brought suit in superior court asking damages in the amount of $525 for alleged failure to carry out an agreement to purchase certain property on East Fourth street in Santa Ana.

The agreement was entered into on Dec. 23, 1929, according to the plaintiff, and a check for $20 was given as a down payment. This check later was returned marked "account closed" and other terms of the agreement for sale of the property were not complied with, the plaintiff asserted.

BOY DIES AFTER FALL FROM TRUCK

Kaichi Kai, 6-year-old Japanese boy, who was seriously injured Wednesday when he fell from a truck, near Anaheim, died at the Orange County hospital last night, from a fractured skull and possible internal injuries.

The body was taken to the Harrell and Brown Funeral parlors here, where Coroner Charles D. Brown announced that he would hold an inquest at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The child was not believed to be fatally injured when first taken to the hospital, although a skull fracture was apparent, it was said. The lad was riding on a truck with his father when he tumbled to the pavement.

Car Theft Suspect Is Arrested After Chase By Officer

Suspected of grand theft, William F. A. Cullen, 19, of the Waldorf hotel, Los Angeles, was arrested this morning by Motorcycle Officer Lentz and is being held in the county jail. The car he was driving at the time was said to have been registered to Alex Lopez, of Agua Caliente.

Suspicion was drawn to Cullen when he speeded through Santa Ana, officers said. Lentz chased him from Seventeenth and Main streets almost to Orana before the arrest was made.

Cullen claimed that he borrowed the machine from Lopez early this morning and was on his way home in Los Angeles.

Injured Stanton Man Jailed For Asserted Assault

Rafael Lopez, 39, of Stanton, who has been in the Orange county hospital for the past several weeks, recuperating from knife wounds alleged to have been received in a Mexican brawl at Talbert, today was removed to the Orange county jail, where he is being held on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder.

Lopez is said to have shot Ignacio Savala, also of Talbert, through the head, during the fight. Savala also was in the hospital, but recovered sooner than Lopez. Officers declare they do not know who stabbed Lopez but are not of the opinion that it was Savala, who is not being held by officers.

Police News

Reginald Placentia, wanted in Los Angeles county on a charge of violation of his parole, was arrested by Santa Ana police officers, Wolford and Adams, at noon today and was lodged in the county jail. He was found at Fourth and French streets. Placentia has been the object of a search for the past three months, officers said.

Charged with non-support, Leland Saunders, 22, of Norwalk, was arrested by Officers Mozley and Forgy of the sheriff's office this morning and lodged in the county jail.

OFFICERS MEET LAST NIGHT IN SAN CLEMENTE

A dinner meeting of the Orange County Peace Officers association was held yesterday at 6:30 p. m. at the Travaglini cafe in San Clemente. Following the dinner hour, the gathering adjourned to the Social club, where a number of interesting talks and a program of musical entertainment were presented. Chief John Stanton, of Tustin, presided, while Hal Warner, of San Clemente, was program chairman.

Mayor Thomas Murphine, in one of the principal addresses, stressed the importance of courtesy being employed at all times by police officers in their attitude towards the public. Capt. Fred Vallejo, police superintendent of this district, also delivered an interesting talk on the necessity of the schooling of officers at Sacramento if the public is to be afforded any degree of uniform state law enforcement.

Captain Henry Meehan, head of the California highway patrol of Orange county, was another speaker, as were two representatives of the Peoria and Missouri Mutual Life Insurance companies.

Included among the prominent guests who took an active part in the program were Sheriff Sam Jernigan, Sam Collins, candidate for district attorney, Bert West, present district attorney, W. F. Menton, and Lew Wallace. Here and there throughout the audience a generous gathering of ladies was observed.

A report on the proceeds of the vaudeville show held recently at Anaheim was given, showing a large profit.

Walker Case To Be Heard Today

The case of Jack Walker, Santa Ana man who manages Jimmy Rivers and several other well known Santa Ana boxers, was continued in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court this morning until this afternoon.

Walker is charged with grand theft in connection with the alleged theft of a high priced automobile. He was arrested on a warrant at Denver, Colo., several days ago and returned to Santa Ana by sheriff's officers.

The complaining witness in the case is Eugene Douglas, of Fullerton.

Many changes are noted in the ratings of candidates in the big Fox-West Coast-Santa Ana Daily Register popularity contest, following the second counting of ballots last night.

Mario Mercurio, who led last week, again holds the top position among the boys with 241,050, doubling his number of votes since last week, while Norman Paul, who was in second place last week, showed considerable strength during the week. Ted Newcomb, a newcomer want into third place.

Sue Verburg, Santa Ana American Legion Drum corps candidate, went into first place in the girls' division with 92,350 votes, while Luvina Layton Schade took second place in the contest, just 10,000 votes behind the leader.

Dorothy Aileen Loyd, who was the leader of the girls at the end of the first counting, was down to third place in the contest, although all three of the leaders were in a bunch at the top of the column.

Ballots in the contest are to be counted each Wednesday and Saturday and the standings of the candidates given at that time, it was announced by Norman Sprowl, Fox theaters manager, who is conducting the contest.

Three New Entries

Three new candidates entered the contest late yesterday and will be in the running by the time the ballots are counted next time, hey announced. The new candidates are: Everett Conkright, of 356 South Center street, Orange; Martin Bowman, of Mitchell avenue, Tustin, and Marjorie Adams, of 1220 South Ross street.

With the additional candidates, there are now a total of 24 entries in the big prize winning campagn, a total of 14 girls and 10 boys. Several more are expected within the next few days.

The contest is just getting under way. It runs until August 24, and there is plenty time for any contestant to get into the campaign and win. The contest is only 10 days old at this time.

Nine big prizes have been offered, the first prize being leading parts in a big feature motion picture which is to be made in Santa Ana by the Fox West Coast theaters. Votes can be obtained by purchases from any of the merchants offering prizes in the contest, through subscriptions to the Santa Ana Register and through admission tickets to the two Fox theaters here.

IN SECOND PLACE

BRIDE WHOSE 'DOUBLE' GOT LICENSE FOR HER TO SOLVE PUZZLE WITH NEW MARRIAGE

Solution of a tangle that developed recently when one girl substituted for another at the office of County Clerk J. M. Backs in securing a marriage license, seems to be well under way, according to developments today.

Hassell Maguire, 17-year-old Whittier girl, whose anxiety to marry Frank Stratton, 21, also of Whittier, in spite of parental objection, led to the application for the legal papers by her chum, Ophelia Montgomery, who used the Maguire girl's name, has filed again through the clerk's office, this time appearing in person. The first effort resulted in conferences with the district attorney's office by the Maguire girl's father, who signed a complaint in the matter, after his daughter and Stratton had been married on the papers obtained by the appearance of the Montgomery girl in place of the bride-to-be.

Re-marriage after securing the legal documents in the regular manner, was the solution recommended by authorities as the best way out of the tangle, and the fact that the couple has filed the notice of intention to marry is regarded as proof that this advice is being followed.

New Libel Trial Will Be Sought

Included on a full calendar for superior court tomorrow is the motion of Attorneys W. F. Menton and Nick Meyers on behalf of Charles Carillo for a new trial of his libel action filed against the Orange County Printing and Publishing company, publishers of the Register, which Carrillo lost several months ago, after a trial in superior court before Judge Ruben H. Schmidt, of Los Angeles. Judgment in the case was entered for the defendants by the court and costs totaling $434 were assessed against Carrillo. A motion to re-tax the costs is also scheduled to be heard tomorrow.

TUSTIN JUNIOR BOOSTERS HEAR J. C. NAPERMAN

J. C. Haperman, of San Clemente, addressed members of the Tustin Junior Chamber of Commerce in the K. of P. hall last night. Haperman, a world traveler, spoke on the progressiveness of the people, and their future prosperity.

The meeting was in charge of A. H. Holford, president, who also introduced Mr. Stateler, of Los Angeles, a representative of the Union Metal company, who spoke on "Ornamental Lighting Systems." His speech was heartily endorsed by memebrs, who went on record as suggesting a new lighting system for Tustin. It was also voted to install a new sewerage system in Tustin in the near future.

A good attendance was recorded, as the meeting was open to the public.

HUME WEST HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Hume West, 27, son of Attorney L. A. West, of 2117 Victoria drive, was badly injured at 9:30 o'clock last night when the automobile he was driving ran off the road and crashed into a telephone pole on Ocean avenue, west of Garden Grove.

He was brought to the Santa Ana Valley hospital, where it was said he suffered a fractured jaw and severe cuts and bruises about the head. His skull was not fractured.

West was alone at the time, on his way to Long Beach. Another machine forced him from the road and in trying to turn back onto the pavement, the car left the highway and struck the telephone pole, it was reported.

Court Notes

C. A. Branch today filed a complaint against Lena Branch, asking the court to dissolve the bonds of matrimony. The plaintiff charges desertion as basis for the granting of a divorce.

The trial of Kathryn Sullivan vs. G. C. Richardson, W. A. McCord, S. H. Woodruff and the Dana Point company, in which the plaintiff seeks $20,250 as damages for injuries sustained in an automobile accident, got under way today in the court of Judge James L. Allen. The accident occurred Jan. 30, 1930, at the intersection of Tustin and Fairhaven roads when cars operated by McCord and Richardson crashed. It is alleged that McCord was an agent for the Dana Point organization. Mrs. Sullivan, who was riding in the McCord car, is alleged to have sustained severe and painful injuries, including three fractures of the pelvis. She is represented in court by Col. M. B. Wellington.

The jury which heard the evidence in the trail of the damage action brought by Price Bullock against G. H. Morrison, in which the plaintiff is seeking to recover $1,000 for alleged malicious prosecution, received the instructions of Judge G. K. Scovel and retired to consider its verdict at 10:30 o'clock this morning, but had not returned a verdict at noon.

The United States frigate "Constitution" maintained American rights on every ocean and sailed 500,000 miles in her 84 years of active service. The ship was one of the first three built for the American Navy.

EXCESS ACID SICKENS—GET RID OF IT!

Sour stomach, indigestion, gas. These are signs which usually mean just one thing; excess acid. The stomach nerves have been over-stimulated. Too much acid is making food sour in the stomach and intestines.

The way to correct excess acid is with an alkali. The best form of alkali for this purpose is Phillips Milk of Magnesia. Just take a spoonful of this harmless, almost tasteless preparation in a glass of water. It works instantly. The stomach becomes sweet. You are happy again in five minutes! Your heartburn, gas, headache, biliousness or indigestion has vanished!

Know Phillips Milk of Magnesia and you're through with crude methods forever. It is the pleasant way—the efficient way to alkalinize the system; to relieve the effects of over-acidity.

Phillips Milk of Magnesia has been standard with doctors for over 50 years. 25c and 50c bottles at all drug stores. Be sure you get the genuine.

"Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered trade mark of the Chas. H. Phillips Chemical Co. and its predecessor, Chas. H. Phillips, since 1875.—Adv.

HER ESSAY WINS

Lona Barry, eighth grade, San Clemente grammar school student, whose essay on "Temperance," won the city, county and state honors. Her essay was entered in national W. C. T. U. contest.

In 1902 a 100-mile automobile endurance test was held on Long Island. The average speed was about 15 miles an hour.

ANNUAL CHURCH CONCLAVE WILL BEGIN FRIDAY

The First Evangelical church of Santa Ana, of which the Rev. E. W. Mats, is pastor, will observe its annual summer assembly July 11 to 20 at the Evangelical church assembly grounds, Bristol and Fairhaven streets. Bishop L. H. Seager, D. D., of La Mars, Ia., has been secured as the assembly speaker.

The conference will open formally tomorrow at 7:30 p. m. and full programs have been arranged to follow for the next two weeks. Starting Monday, the California convention will be in session and there will be point meetings afternoon and evening. Mrs. L. H. Seager will be the special assembly speaker and in addition other well known figures in the church world will grace the various programs.

Bishop Seager will conduct daily Bible studies, chief among the themes selected for these sessions being "The Supreme Imperative," "The Conservation of Faith," "The Soul's Answer to Love," and "How to Live in This Present World." More than ordinary interest has been aroused in their feature of the assembly and it is assured that large audiences will greet Bishop Seager.

The annual assembly serves to combine the camp meeting with a joint convention of the Sunday school, Evangelical league, Woman's Missionary society and the School of Leadership Training. No detail has been overlooked by the committee in charge and one of the most successful conventions in years is openly predicted.

Sunday's program will commence with Sunday school at 9 a.m. followed by the regular morning service at 10:30 a.m. Bishop Seager will speak at this time. There also will be two additional services afternoon and evening, together with a young peoples meeting.

Various phases of educational church progress will be studied carefully and various methods devised to stress the widespread importance of conscientious religious training.

Ralph Stull Is Held To Answer

The case of Ralph Stull, Orange man, charged with failure to render aid after an automobile accident and with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, was heard in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday afternoon, after which Stull was held to answer to the superior court on both counts. Bail of $1000 was demanded in each case, which the defendant made.

Stull was arrested by state traffic officers on July 4 after the car he was said to have been driving crashed into three Santa Ana persons at Newport Beach, injuring two Santa Ana girls.

BREAKFASTERS HEAR TALENTED CHILD ARTISTS

A group of talented children entertained the members of the Breakfast club at its meeting this morning, when dancing, readings and musical numbers, the participants evidencing remarkable art in their respective parts.

The greater portion of the program was offered by pupils of Miss Gertrude Stebbins, operator of the Santa Ana School of the Dance and Expression. Mrs. T. R. Wood presided at the piano.

The entertainment included a reading, "Seeing Things at Night," by Gwendolyn Griffin; an old fashioned dance, and a recitation, "An Hen" by Betty Ellen Mitchell; readings, "Grandma Stepping Out For Tea," and "I Am An Uncle," Helen Nenbold; hula dance and mokery dance, by Lucille Andrew; military tap dance, Beverley Weindorff; and reading, "Betty at the Baseball Game," and a pianologue, Lois Nenhold.

The program was concluded with two well executed piano numbers by Olive Schweitzer, the talented little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schweitzer. The little miss executed in excellent manner "Idylle in D Major" (Andre) and "The March of the Little Tin Soldiers" (Pierne).

Decision was made to put on an initiation at the meeting next Thursday morning and Jesse Elliott, P. S. Roper and R. G. Cartwright were named to the committee to complete the arrangements.

The program committee for the next meeting is composed of Jess Elliott, Sam Jernigan and Dave Wettlin, all candidates for office in the coming election.

TEMPERANCE UNIT MEETS IN CHURCH

Members of the Women's Christian Temperance Union heard Mrs. Elizabeth Clark review the life of Mary H. Hunt, founder of temperance instruction, at a meeting held recently in the Congregational church. There was an estimated attendance of 50.

Following Mrs. Clark's address, prizes were awarded the winners of the essay and poster contests which were sponsored by the local organization during the recent school year. Students in grades three and nine were eligible.

The essay contest was won by Ruth Dohner, whose work was favored over that of 3154 other aspirants. Miss Dohner was also awarded the county prize. The poster contest was won by Virginia Mustol. Both girls are ninth grade students in Santa Ana.

A good English waiter is said to be the best servant in the world.

FANTASTIC GUARD

This fantastic rock formation stands guard at the Lava Beds National Monument entrance in Modoc and Siskiyou counties just south of the California-Oregon line. Entering the lava country from the fertile fields of the Tule Lake valley, the motorist sees scores of such grotesque figures, caused by the cooling off process centuries ago.

SPANISH NIGHT BAND PROGRAM IS ANNOUNCED

Lovers of vividly colorful Spanish music and dancing are looking forward to the program which will be presented for public enjoyment in Birch park today at 7:30 p. m., by Santa Ana Municipal band, under the direction of D. C. Cianfoni.

"Spanish Night" will be featured at this time, with band selections chosen from the works of Spanish composers, while appearance of Miss Faustina Lucero, well known Spanish dancer, and Miss Louisita Yorba, soprano of San Gabriel Mission play, will be added features of special attraction.

The program that has been arranged by the band follows in full:

1—March—"La Sorella," Borel.

2—Overture—"Il Guarany," Gomes.

3—Suite Espagnole—"La Feria," Lacome, (a) Los Toros; (b) La Reja; (c) La Zarzuela.

4—Vocal—"Estrellita," Ponce; "La Paloma," Louisita Yorba, soprano.

5—Valse, "Espana," Waldteufel.

6—Spanish dances—"La Jota," "Estudiantina," Miss Faustina Lucero.

7—(a) "Horas de Melancolia"; (b) "La Golondrina."

8—"Valse Espanita," Rosey.

GARDEN GROVE FARM CENTER WILL MEET

A meeting of the Garden Grove Farm center will be held at 7:30 p. m. today in the women's clubhouse of that place. A. A. Brock, county agricultural commissioner, will be the principal speaker and has chosen as his subject, "War on Pests." W. W. Cory, acting county farm advisor who is on the speaking program and his talk will deal with the "Underground Water Table."

A musical program has been arranged to precede the speakers and at the conclusion of the talks, refreshments will be served. Due to the unusual amount of interest created by these meetings a capacity turnout is assured.

MARATHON PASSES 350 HOURS TODAY

Still going strong and with new events coming up, the marathon contest at Third and Ocean avenue, Huntington Beach, passed its 350th hour of continuous motion at noon today. During the past week two more contestants dropped out, leaving eight couples still on the floor.

Every night the contest is broadcast over KREG for an hour's time.

Every night there will be a specialty number. Saturday night is always "whoopee" night. In addition to "whoopee" making on Saturday, July 12th, the manageemnt is going to sponsor a kiddie kar contest. The contest is open to anyone over 18 years of age. Contestants mustbring their own vehicles, and must be in good physical health. It is to last 30 hours, with a rest period of 20 minutes each hour.

The winner is to receive a silver loving cup. Contestants ride the baby cars around the same floor that the marathoners are using. Tuesday, July 15, will be a fashion show, featuring all the latest gowns. Wednesday night is athletic night, boxing, tumbling and other features. The program for Thursday will be announced over the radio.

DELEGATES TO BE PICKED BY LEGION GROUP

Election of delegates to the state convention of the American Legion at Sacramento August 17, 18 and 19, and nomination of candidates for officers of Santa Ana Post No. 131, American Legion, will feature the meeting of the organization to be held at the Legion hall, starting with a dinner at 6:30 p. m., today, to be served by the auxiliary.

Officers of the organization and those directing the campaign for new members will stress upon the membership tonight the necessity for increasing the membership by at least 35 if the post is to have the same number of accredited delegates to the convention as it had at the annual conference last year, according to Lester Steinkopf, second vice commander. The membership today stood at 590 with 625 necessary to entitle the post to 14 representatives, the number for last year. Steinkopf pointed out that July 17 is the last date upon which members can be admitted to have influence upon the number of official delegates.

"Self-Introductory" buttons will passed to the members who attend tonight's meeting. Entertainment will be provided by the "Old Fiddlers."

Eddie Brown is the new master of ceremonies, replacing Bob Lee last Tuesday.

Students Are To Tour Farm Areas Of Orange County

University of California students pursuing summer school work at the citrus experiment station at Riverside will hold a special session Saturday under the direction of Professor R. W. Hodgen, head of the division of sub-tropical horticulture.

The class will make an extended tour through various Orange county farm centers, chief among which will be a visit to the Santiago Orange Grower's association packing house and the San Joaquin Fruit ranch. A complete inspection of orange groves, avocado and persimmons plantings in the district will occupy a major portion of the day's program. It is also planned to visit the La Habra Heights district and the Orange county insectary.

The proposed tour of inspection is part of the summer school routine and affords students an opportunity to study at close hand conditions that might otherwise be merely a matter of classroom theory.

FREEDOM FROM STOMACH DISTRESS

Mateer's Drug Co. Has the Remedy and Gurantees it to End Indigestion or Gastritis

You can get one bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin and if after you take it you do not say it did you more good than anything you ever used before, your money will be waiting for you.

This delightful and effective elixir not only gives instant relief from gas, fullness, acid stomach and distress after eating, but taken regularly for a short time will turn your weak, run down stomach into a strong, healthy one able to perform its duties without help.

It ends indigestion, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach and does it in a surprisingly short period of time.

Dr. Wm. W. Morgan, a prominent dentist of Bridgeton, N. J., writes: "After suffering severely with gastritis and other stomach troubles, a friend gave me a bottle of Dare's Mentha Pepsin. I had obtained little relief from other remedies, but four bottles entirely ended the trouble." Get it at Mateer's Drug Co. and all regular druggists everywhere.—adv.

FIND McGUFFY READERS FROM MANY SOURCES

CHICAGO, July 10—The famous old McGuffey readers and spellers, contrary to popular opinion, are not extinct, although it has been many years since they were as much a part of the schoolroom as birch rods and slates.

The fact that these ancient educational aids still are saved, if not used, is attested to by the Ohio Society of Chicago, which has received more than 300 of the readers and spellers. They came by mail and even special messenger in response to an appeal published in newspapers of Ohio and other states offering to purchase the works collected and published by Professor William McGuffey.

These texts were wanted for an old fashioned school stunt to be used in conjunction with the recent "McGuffey Night" celebration of the society.

Charles E. Sherman, president of the society, was just as surprised as were the other members.

"We expected a few and we got hundreds," Sherman said, "some of them dating back to the '30s and '40s, with boyish inscriptions scrawled all over them.

"We have a letter from Miami university at Oxford, O., where McGuffey once was a professor stating that a copy too valuable to mail is on the way in the hands of a messenger."

Although the McGuffey readers contain many of the classic works still used in modern editions, they were more complete in content. They were styled "electic," in as much as their contents were culled from the works of many prominent writers. Thumbing through the pages, one could read the remarks on temperance of Henry Ward Beecher, a 'moral' story of Jacob Abbott, or a number of articles from domestic and foreign magazines.

Wadsworth, Bryan, and other contemporary poets were spread liberally through the pages of the early McGuffey. Scripture was sometimes deemed worthy of attention from the student of reading.

That pronunciation was a problem even in that early pre-radio age is shown in the inclusion of "errors" at the end of lessons in the readers. Pupils were warned to avoid saying 'kivered' when they meant covered. 'Ile' was likewise deplored as a careless substitute for the word, oil. And one was entirely out of order if he said 'jestice' instead of justice.

GRETA GARBO IN "ROMANCE"

An entirely new Greta Garbo is seen and heard in the star's newest all-talking picture, "Romance," which comes to the Fox Broadway theater here next week, starting Monday. Greta never has been seen in a role where she portrayed the demure type. In "Romance" she is just the opposite of the Garbo that the world knows. The film is said to be one of the best she ever has produced.

HALF MILLION GIVEN SCHOOL DISTRICT HERE

The Santa Ana high school district building fund was enriched by the amount of $519,715 today when a check for that amount was received by County Auditor W. C. Jerome for the bonds of this district which were delivered today to the representatives of the successful bidders, the National Bank of Italy company, the Anglo-London-Paris company and Weedon and company.

Jerome commented on the fact that the entire amount realized from the sale of the bonds, including the premium of $25,715, was made available for the building fund under the new school code, which was enacted by the 1929 state legislature. Previously the amount of the premium was required to be used in the fund for retirement of bonds and interest. The provision of the new code which makes the entire amount available for use of the district building program is contained in section 4.1026 on page 229 of the school code for California as compiled by the state superintendent of public instruction, Vierling Kersey, according to Jerome.

The county official also referred to the school code as authority for his recent statement that the high school tax rate was restricted to 75 cents per $100 of assessed valuation. "The code specifically sets up the limit in section 4.563 on page 201," Jerome said. "This section reads as follows: 'The total tax for high school purposes shall not exceed 75 cents on each $100 assessed valuation, exclusive of bond and interest rate'."

Prior to the enactment of the new school code, Jerome pointed out, the state supreme court made a ruling based on certain provisions of the political code, which held that the 75 cents limit held for the first year after the formation of a district but did not apply thereafter. The legislature specifically repealed the three sections of the political code on which the court based its ruling and set up the limit in the new code, on which there has as yet been no rulings, he stated.

Jerome declared that he did not render an opinion on the law, but that he had merely made a statement concerning the law as it stands on the statutes since the enactment of the school code by the last legislature.

President Arthur Corey gave a resume of an address on International Relations with reference to Chile, South America, which was delivered before the Whittier Kiwanis club, Tuesday noon.

A telegram from Kiwanis International was read, giving list of the new officers and the awards of prizes for the year. The California division received a large percentage of the awards.

Announcement was made that the next meeting, July 14, will be held in Irvine park.

Town Complains of Too Many Births

EL CENTRO, Calif., July 10.—(INS.)—Fire hazards in this near-border town have been reduced to a minimum, but by comparison, financial "losses" incident to repeated visits of Doc Stork have reached alarming proportions.

During April there were but two fires, total damages amounting to less than $50.

In the same period, the stork paid 41 calls. The cost per visit, it was estimated, was $350, or a total of $14,350.

"It's driving us bankrupt, but we like it," said City Clerk John C. Neale.

PIANIST WILL TEACH PUPILS WITH DIRECTOR

Josephine Powers, pianist, who will play over KREG from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. today on a program with Velma Browne, singer, recently came to Santa Ana from the San Francisco bay district and will be associated with Eugene Browne, KREG program director, in handling the growing class of piano students which he meets at 122 South Birch street.

The pianist, who has exceptional ability as an artist and teacher, will begin her work with Browne in teaching the Waterman method, on August 1. She has been associated with him in musical activity for a number of years, having appeared as relief organist for him at a number of theaters in which he formerly played.

On tonight's program she will play three selections, while Velma Browne, daughter of the program director, will sing three numbers in the appealing manner which has characterized her work over KREG, and which was amply recognized at her last appearance, when she received nearly a score of individual requests.

A woman can legally qualify for the presidency of the United States or any other federal office.

Tells How Fat Men Can Lose Half a Pound a Day

Here's a simple way to get rid of that corporation and quickly feel in both body and mind the joy of living.

It's the safe way, too—for every day you continue this easy method of losing unwanted and unneeded flesh you'll gain in energy, vigor and endurance.

Nine times in ten obesity means inactivity—it means that your blood is starving for the six vital salts your internal organs need to keep you youthful, active, ambitious and keen in mind.

When you take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts every morning in a glass of hot or cold water you get these six vital salts which modern foods and cooking do not supply.

Start taking Kruschen Salts—that's the common-sense way to reduce—but don't take them with the idea that they possess reducing qualities in themselves.

This is what they do—they clean out the impurities in your blood by keeping the bowels, kidneys and liver in splendid working shape and fill you with a vigor and tireless energy you'd most forgotten had existed.

The urge for activity will be so marked that even at the end of a hard day's work you'll feel ready for any social activity or recreation—you can play as hard as you work.

And after two weeks your excess flesh starts to go—you'll know it—feel it—see it—the scales will tell the story.

As one, once corpulent man remarked—"I feel so energetic that I want to get up with the lark and I'm just as lively as a cricket."

Kruschen Salts is not a purgative or a cathartic, but a real system conditioner and for those who are the victims of constipation or toxemia, its daily use soon means blissful regularity.

Get an 85 cent bottle of Kruschen Salts—last 4 weeks—at Mateer's Drug Co., and Givens & Cannon, or any druggist in the world.—Adv.

"It's toasted"

Your Throat Protection—against irritation—against cough

*In his famous book entitled "Foods For the Fat," Dr. Yorke-Davies gives this advice: "Any system for reducing fat will be of no avail if the patient persists in eating between meals." We do not represent that smoking Lucky Strike Cigarettes will bring modern figures or cause the reduction of flesh. We do declare that when tempted to do yourself too well, if you will "Reach for a Lucky instead," you will thus avoid over-indulgence in things that cause excess weight and, by avoiding over-indulgence, maintain a modern, graceful form.

KREG PRAISED BY WINNER OF FROLIC PRIZE

A tribute to KREG, Voice of the Orange Empire, was received today from Billy Ayers, of Butte, Mont., who won a $20 prize when the Santa Ana radio station staged a special test frolic recently and offered an award to the listener from the most distant point who wired the station that he had heard the program.

Ayers telegraphed the station while the program was on the air and won the prize. His letter of thanks follows:

"I want to say I consider myself lucky. Was testing out a new tube and picked up four stations in California. But you were the only generous one on the air.

"The program had plenty of pep. I especially like Hawaiian music and the trio came in great. In fact it was all fine—real artists, and I wish to thank one and all for this check.

"I have my mail general delivery as I am traveling, selling radio and automobile accessories."

Ayers added a postscript complimenting Marie Dolor, under whose direction the Santa Ana Merchants program is put on the air over KREG, and also praised the voice of Tiny Burkholder, another KREG entertainer.

'THREE BEARS' TO BE HEARD TONIGHT

"The Three Bears" will talk tomorrow to the children who listen in on KREG for the daily children's hour program, under the direction of Inez Moore, from 4 to 5 p. m.

Two talented young entertainers will present the famous story. Frances McInteer, a pupil of Alice Folsom, will provide the piano "atmosphere" for the story as it is told by the Three Bears themselves, through Phyllis Luther, a pupil of Estelle Card Beeman. Phyllis will do the talking but her listeners will be surprised, for her imitation of the Three Bears will thrill them.

WOMEN'S CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL PARK PICNIC

ORANGE, July 9.—Members of the second household economics section of the Orange Woman's club enjoyed a picnic dinner at Irvine park Tuesday. Dinner was served on the long tables in the pleasant shade of the live oaks and bridge was played during the afternoon.

First prize at the bridge game went to Mrs. C. C. Bonebrake and second to Mrs. Gwendolyn Thompson. The picnic is an annual affair.

Plans were made for the next meeting of the section which will be held at the summer home of Mrs. Ernest Ross, 113 29th street, Newport Beach, on July 12. Members are to meet at the Woman's club house at 10:30 a. m.

Those sharing yesterday's enjoyable event were Mesdames Scott Elmer, A. E. Schooley, John Hirst, Ernest Ross, N. T. Edwards, Raymond T. McCarthy, Edgar Chapman, Frank Drumm, George Smith, T. Condon, C. C. Bonebrake, Gwendolyn Thompson, Clarence Lush, James F. Lewis jr. Guests included Mesdames Frederick Durbin, Mrs. J. Shafer, of Santa Ana; Mrs. M. Callahan of Orange, and Miss Shirley Workman and Miss Barbara Lewis.

LA HABRA

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Walker have returned from their vacation in the northern part of the state. Their motor tour was shortened by the illness of their daughter, Evelyn, who broke out with measles en route.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Church and Mr. and Mrs. Grover Colley with their respective families will leave Friday for two weeks' motor tour of the northern part of the state.

Postmaster George Eaby and wife will leave Monday for Portland, Ore., to attend the postmasters' convention. They expect to visit several points of interest before their retun.

Miss Irma Gabriel of Fullerton is working at the local post office during the vacation period.

Several La Habrans enjoyed a camping trip near Oceanside, having returned this week after spending the holidays there. In the party were Mrs. E. R. Hanson, Mrs. Birdie Ramos, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Enyart, Mr. and Mrs. John Estill, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Cooley of Bellflower.

Nelson Khehbiel of the U. S. S. Oklahoma was a guest at the C. L. Strong home Wednesday evening.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. Dundas, pastor of the Methodist church, left this week for a vacation in the Bay district.

Mrs. R. Salling was hostess Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Marthea class of the Baptist church held at her home. Mrs. W. P. Mills, vice president, was named president of the class and Mrs. H. A. Luallin was named vice president. Following the short business meeting conducted by Mrs. Burt Hampton, teacher of the class, a social hour was enjoyed and was followed by the serving of refreshments by the hostess. Fourteen ladies were present.

Light Noon Rain Dampens Orange Trees and Grass

ORANGE, July 10. — A light shower yesterday noon sent people taking a noon day rest in the plaza, hurrying to benches under the trees. The shower was slight but enough rain fell to spatter the walks and to slightly dampen hats and clothing.

Rain pattered on the roofs the night previous, a number of residents declare, and the shower was hard enough to wake them from their sleep.

68,000 PEOPLE USE SCALE IN ORANGE STORE

ORANGE, July 10.—In the past six months 68,000 persons have weighed themselves on the weighing machine in front of the J. F. Lewis clothing store, 118 North Glassell street, according to a record automatically kept by the machine. More than the entire population of the city is weighed monthly in this spot, says J. F. Lewis jr., who watches the process of weighing each day with interest.

One of the most unusual occurances observed by Lewis was that of a woman who was evidently determined not to weigh quite so much as the scales indicated, and who therefore held up her skirts in her hands in an effort to bring down the weight recorded.

Many persons take off their coats and hats and then get on scales and hold these articles in their hands,, says Lewis.

About the same proportion of men as women are interested in determining their weights, Lewis believes, after an observation of half a year's time.

BREA

BREA, July 10.—Mrs. George White and daughters, Phyllis and Loraine, are leaving tomorrow for a summer vacation with Mrs. White's parents in Rattoon, N. M. They will return for the opening of the fall school.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Smith are residing in Brea, occupying the property of L. A. Will on South Orange street. Mrs. Smith is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ward are enjoying a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Nelson, of Oregon, the former a brother of Mrs. Ward. The Nelsons are visiting in several points in Southern California for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Gordon and family have moved from Date street to the Ross property on South Walnut, the home recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Miller. The Millers are now on a motor trip through Yosemite and the Lake Louise district, a trip which is eventually to end at their old home, Pittsburgh, where they expect to reside in the future.

MOVIE PEOPLE GET COSTUMES AROUND ORANGE

ORANGE, July 10.—That a number of the coats and gowns seen in moving pictures are purchased in Orange, is a fact not generally known. Owners of ready-to-wear shops here state, however, that buyers for the film companies make regular trips to this city and nearby towns in search of garments they need for studio wardrobes.

These buyers, who are experts in judging materials, are constantly on the lookout for unusual models or garments fashioned of materials especially needed for production purposes.

Sometimes the gowns they buy are a bit too unusual to appeal to the ordinary woman customer, sometimes they may be of unusual proportions, or for some other reason they may not move readily and consequently are snapped up by the picture company representatives.

OLIVE BOOSTER GROUP ENTERS COUNTY C. OF C.

OLIVE, July 10.—An important step was taken by the Olive Improvement association this week when it passed a resolution to join the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange county, giving the activities of the Olive association a wider scope. President L. A. Bortz presided at the meeting.

Several important committees were appointed, including membership, Thomas Broderick, H. L. Stinchfield, Gus McClintock; entertainment, C. O. Heim, Don Feemster, Fritz Meyers; public improvement, H. L. Stinchfield, Jake Imken, Robert Cole; auditing, Ben Cole, M. Payan, August Lemke; finance, C. O. Heim, H. T. Moennich, Fritz Meyers.

Much time was given to the consideration of eliminating the traffic danger at the intersection of Canyon Way and Anaheim boulevards. Last week a survey of the intersection was made by Willard Smith, chairman of the county supervisors, and William F. DeWolf, engineer of the Orange County Road department. Several improvements have been recommended including several signboards, telephone poles and trees, which obstruct the view to be removed, curbing installed, and the speed limit reduced from 20 to 15 miles per hour. Pedestrian lanes are to be painted on the street, and no-parking signs to be erected, to give the west-bound traffic a clearer view of the intersection.

The Association took steps to endeavor to secure a reduction of telephone rates for the Olive community. August Lemke, Ben Cole and H. T. Moennich will work together with President Bortz in an effort to gain this purpose.

Providing a public tourist camp in Olive, fire and police protection, and uniform parking regulations were other items taken under advisement.

The completely revised laws of the association were presented and adopted. Dr. J. D. Thomas, one of the oldest residents of Olive, and the Rev. E. H. Kreidt, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, were presented with an honorary membership in the association.

The next regular meeting will be held at the hall on August 4.

Abandon Plans To Move Bible Class From Orange Show

ORANGE, July 10.—Plans to move the meeting place of the Men's Community Bible class which has been under consideration for some time, have been abandoned as the necessity for the contemplated change has been removed, it was learned this morning. The class has been meeting in the Colonial theater since it was organized.

The Rev. M. L. Pearson is the teacher of the group which meets every Sunday morning. The group is especially for men who do not attend any other church but who get enjoyment of having a religious hour together.

RETURN FROM SAN FRANCISCO

Sherman Gillogly and daughter, Helen, returned Sunday evening from a trip to San Francisco having left last Wednesday. They visited at Berkeley, Sacramento and Roseville. At Sacramento they were joined by Miss Florence Gillogly, who has been in the Pease Conservatory of Music for the past year. Miss Florence Gillogly will spend her vacation at her home, 137 East Maple street.

FIRST MEETING IN HALL HELD BY NEIGHBORS

ORANGE, July 10.—Members of the Royal Neighbor lodge met yesterday afternoon in the A. R. Smith hall on South Glassell street. The meeting was the first to be held in the new quarters and the attendance was the largest for some past.

The hall has recently been refinished making a pleasant setting for the event. Walls have been retinted and the hardwood floors refinished. Mrs. M. Fletcher, district deputy of Long Beach was a guest of the organization.

Slater, oracle, who is in the east, the meeting was in charge of Mrs. Amanda Amos.

Plans for several coming events were made during the business session. A Royal Neighbor party was held this afternoon in the home of Mrs. Gladys McDonald with Mrs. Fred Baier as co-hostess. A picnic is planned for July 30, at the Anaheim city park. A plunge party and dinner will be pleasant features of this occasion.

Another social occasion for which arrangements were made, was an all day affair in which lodges of the county will take part and which will be held soon at Irvine park.

SCEPTER CHAPTER TO MEET

Scepter Chapter O. E. S. No. 163 of Orange will meet Thursday at 8 o'clock at Masonic temple. This wwil be Brother's Night of the order.

The Spirit of Progress is a famous statue on the original Montgomery Ward & Co. Building, Michigan Boulevard, Chicago. For generations it has been a symbol of leadership and inspiration for this great world-wide organization.

The Spirit of Progress Guides Montgomery Ward & Co.

Starting as the original mail order house and now operating the world's largest general merchandise chain, we continue to strive to realize the ideals of leadership which our symbol represents

18,000,000 people will see this announcement in more than 650 of the nation's leading newspapers this evening.
You are personally interested in this important message and will be well repaid for the time you take to read every word.

Leadership demands action. A great deal has been said and written about unemployment and poor business. You read much about the reduced purchasing power of the average citizen—but what about his paying power?

Despite the unemployment, the present average weekly payroll of America is estimated at $840,000,000. In addition, the registered savings accounts total over twenty-seven billion dollars and are steadily increasing. Yes, there is ample paying power. But we believe that general business will improve only when the buying public are satisfied that prices to them (and that means to you) reflect the new low commodity levels.

In our judgment, commodity prices are scraping bottom today. We do not say that there will not be some further declines, but broadly speaking, current prices are the lowest in years, in some cases the lowest in 15 to 20 years.

Leadership Demands Action

Montgomery Ward & Co. is placing orders for millions of dollars worth of merchandise at these new low commodity levels. There are 120,000,000 American people to be fed, clothed, sheltered and entertained; and regardless of unemployment, poor export business, low agricultural prices, etc., the requirements of the American nation total a huge sum.

New Fall Prices Now

For many years it has been the custom of Montgomery Ward & Co. to make Fall prices effective when our Fall and Winter Catalogue is distributed, about September 1st.

Months ago we cut prices. During the past 60 days there have been further declines in the cost prices of many items of merchandise—and all these low prices we are making effective at once—so that as far as Montgomery Ward & Co. customers are concerned, they need not wait for lower prices. Ward's prices are down NOW to the new commodity levels.

How Do You Judge a Low Price?

Only by the dependable quality you receive.

There is nothing cheap about Montgomery Ward & Co. merchandise. We have never sacrificed quality to make low prices, and despite the surprising savings that are possible on thousands of different articles which we sell through our catalogues and Retail Stores, you can buy from us with complete confidence.

There is a good deal in the papers now about the Byrd Antarctic Expedition. They used more than 7,000 articles selected from our regular stocks and they used them under conditions where quality and dependability meant life itself. Their verdict was radioed to us in March from Dunedin, New Zealand, "Satisfactory in all respects."

Our method of doing business can be stated in one phrase—

"You Must Be Satisfied"

The goods you buy from us must be "satisfactory in all respects." Leadership demands action. In making our Fall prices effective now, we are doing something definite to establish public confidence in new price levels and we are taking this constructive step to stimulate the use of your buying power.

For years we have recognized the conveniences and advantage of the Time Payment method. We are selling annually many millions of dollars of goods on Easy Payments. Basically the American Public is honest, meets its just obligations. On that belief we have never hesitated to sell on time. Over a period of many years, our experience has been thoroughly satisfactory and our bad debt losses negligible.

Now, for the first time in the history of American merchandising, a national institution offers this Time Payment opportunity

Beginning today and continuing until September 15, Montgomery Ward & Co. will sell you any merchandise shown in its catalogues or Retail Stores (excepting groceries) on the Easy Payment Plan, provided your order totals $25 or more

We have begun the mailing of 10,000,000 announcements to our customer list, giving full details. Visit the Ward Store in your neighborhood for complete information. We know this offer will bring us additional business. It will make us new friends. It will acquaint great numbers of people with the dependable quality and the low prices that are the foundation of our business.

We consider it a constructive move (one of the very few that have been made thus far) to stimulate consumer buying. Even a small upturn in demand will start orders to factories, wheels turning, unemployment lessening and a resultant upward trend to our general business structure and prosperity.

Many will praise us for this move, some will criticize us. I hope that other institutions, large and small, will follow with their constructive plans to persuade the public to use its paying power. In his first daily newspaper article of July 1st, Calvin Coolidge said,

"My countrymen, it is time to stop criticizing and quarreling and begin sympathizing and helping."

Prices based on the new low commodity levels, quality goods of absolute dependability, our policy of "You must be Satisfied" and now this great 60-day Easy Payment opportunity. Surely these combine to bring you economy, convenience and satisfaction in your buying.

Yours sincerely,

George B. Everitt
President.

BASEBALL IGNORANCE

It is surprising sometimse just how little baseball men and others connected with the game know about the rules.

The case at hand is La Habra's protest of the game it lost to the Santa Ana Stars Friday night—but the same thing applies to almost every manager in the National Night Baseball league.

If you don't think so, ask George Peterkin, president, who has been asked to rule on nine protests already this summer.

Peterkin investigated every one thoroughly, found but one of the nine to have any basis.

Baseball rules state expressly that there is absolutely no appeal from decisions based on an umpire's judgment.

Ninety-nine out of a hundred squawks that you hear from night ball bosses are traceable to ignorance of that rule.

TURNER TALKING AGAIN

Tom Turner is talking again.

The loquoacious leader of the Portland Beavers, who headed two spring training expeditions into Santa Ana, was on the wagon for several months after his famous statement that he was going to be president of the Boston Braves, a fact which was fiction to say the least.

But he's talking again.

The other day he broke out with a story that the Portland Beavers were for sale. The next day he said he was just giving the newspaper boys something to write about.

There is nothing more harmful to sport than somebody who "pops off" out of turn. The muzzle should be applied or the gag rule put in effect when fellows like Turner are dealt with.

A HARDY TAR

Joe Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith of Santa Ana, is on the high seas somewhere between here and Honolulu.

He is a member of the crew of Morgan Adams' yacht Enchantress, largest of the boats in the annual San Pedro-Honolulu race.

This is Smith's fourth season on the Enchantress. He graduated from high school here in 1921, later attended the University of Southern California.

It is 2300 miles to Honolulu—a lot of deep, blue, rough water.

You must be a real tar to go that far in a sailing yacht.

JOHN WARD TURNS PRO

Big Johnny Ward, Garden Grove behemoth, has signed to play professional football with the Minneapolis Redjeckets this fall.

He will report about September 1.

The big fellow is also going to embark on a professional boxing career this fall, and present plans call for him to make his debut in the ring during the gridiron season.

Ward is now grawing wheat at Follett, Texas. He has 200 acres coming along nicely—about ready to harvest.

Johnny played with the University of Southern California Trojans four years—three with the varsity and one with the freshmen. He was a front flight tackle all the way and would have had his name in the headlines at some college where the material isn't as plentiful.

Although married, Ward made virtually his entire way through the university.

In addition to playing football he was intercollegiate heavyweight boxing champion, too, so he took an active part in college life.

His friends here hope he becomes another Jack Dempsey.

OLYMPIC SIGNS CHAVEZ

Zenaydo Chavez will "make" the Olympic again next week.

The hard-punching Santa Ana Mexican welterweight has signed to box Harry Rollins in a special event at Jack Doyle's big arena Tuesday night.

Aside from his poor work against Jack Stewart at Wilmington a few weeks ago, Chavez has looked like a world-beater since he resumed pugilistic activity a few months ago.

BUSY BANTAMS RATED EVEN IN EVERY RESPECT

Rated even in every respect, even to experience, Clayton Gouyd and Pastor Calope, 120-pounders, meet in a main event at the Orange County Athletic club again tonight.

The rematch between the Hollywood "Lon Chaney" and the tiny Pasadena Filipino is for eight rounds—or less.

The outcome is strictly a tossup, although Gouyd has been made a slight favorite in some quarters.

Promoter Henry T. Foust today indicated that he would endeavor to match Gouyd with Speedy Dado—if Gouyd wins or makes an impressive showing and this may be the incentive that will send the hard-looking little chap over the hump.

Dado To Box Here

Dado, probably the best bantam in the west, has virtually agreed, through his manager, Frank Churchill, to box at Delhi some time during the summer, Foust said. The bout is tentatively set for August.

Calope is automatically barred from a match with Dado because of Foust's policy of never pairing countrymen in main events. Like Calope, Speedy Dado is a Filipino.

Gouyd may win, but he knows he will have a terrific fight on his hands. He had to "shoot the works" to earn a draw with Calope June 12 when the bantamweight buzzsaws mingled here the first time. Calope has a great uppercut that makes up for what Gouyd may have on him at in-fighting.

Dempsey Meets Avila

Baby Jack Dempsey meets Clem Avila, a Pomona Mexican featherweight, in the six-round semi.

Dempsey is favored to win, possibly by a knockout. Few small club fighters can wing 'em to the jaw like Baby Jack who, however, has a notoriously weak chin himself.

Leroy Haynes, black light heavyweight, faces Jack Gilmore in a special event between 180-pounders. Haynes stopped John Grigsby here a few weeks ago and is given the edge over Gilmore.

Cliff Burrier, Santa Ana lightweight, is picked to beat Joe Vasquez in the second bout, a four-rounder.

FORSTERS RETURN

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. John Forster returned Monday evening from a stay at their summer home in the mountains at Big Bear lake, near Arrowhead. While there they had as their guests the George Forster family. After a short stay on their beautiful ranch near San Juan Capistrano, they will return to Big Bear for the rest of the summer.

Ed Walsh Says Lively Ball Ruins Pitching

NEW HAVEN, Conn., July 10.—"Bid Ed" Walsh, one of the greatest pitchers of all time, believes the lively ball has ruined baseball for the pitchers.

"The pitchers haven't got a chance nowadays," declared the former White Sox hero today. "It's a rare day when a pitcher goes the limit. The edge is all with the batsman who stands up to the plate flat-footed and whales away to his heart's content. I tell you it's a condition that is doing the game no good.

"I believe that a young fellow who hopes to make baseball a livelihood is a sucker to go into the pitching department."

MAJOR LEAGUE OWNERS BREAK WITH MINORS

CHICAGO, July 10. — Baseball's high commissioner, Kenesaw Mountain Landis today was believed awaiting an opportunity to open negotiations which would settle the differences that caused American and National league owners to sever relations yesterday with the five "non-selective" minor leagues.

The minors affected by the severance of relations are the American association, International, Pacific Coast, Western and Three-I leagues, each of which have sent many players to the majors. Fifteen of the 16 major league owners at a joint session yesterday voted to neither purchase any players from the five leagues in question nor release any players to them unless they adhere to the selective draft agreement made nine years ago.

Breaking off of relations with the five minor leagues hits directly at the major league clubs which own interests in the smaller teams and depend largely on them for new playing material. The Chicago Cubs for instance, will be forced to abandon their connection with the Los Angeles and Reading, Pa., clubs, both under the same ownership as the Cubs.

Commissioner Landis was absent from the major league owners' meeting at which the severance resolution was adopted. It was believed he would await the reaction of both major and minor league teams affected before making any move to heal the breach.

The present break between the major and minor leagues has brewed since 1921 when the selective

SCHUCHARDT TO JOIN ANAHEIM: BAN 'JUMPING'

Orville Schuchardt, stormy petrel of the latest Santa Ana-Anaheim night baseball feud, no longer was a "man without a country" today.

Reinstated by President George Peterkin of the National Night Baseball league, Schuchardt now belongs to Anaheim and will be eligible to pastime with George Pace's Valencias in two weeks.

Santa Ana gave Schuchardt his outright release last night prior to a red hot meeting of National Night Baseball league magnates in the offices of the state traffic department at the courthouse here.

Schuchardt's release was the outstanding development of the gathering which also saw the following action taken:

(1)—President Peterkin's ruling which disallowed La Habra's protest of the game it lost Tuesday night to Santa Ana.

(2)—An order for Santa Ana to play Orange after the close of the regular season to make up for the game previously forfeited by Orange because of a misunderstanding about the Fourth of July date.

Shakeup In Beach Club

(3)—Release by Huntington Beach of seven players—Maylin, Neal, Champion, K. Williams, D. Williams, Shaw and McClure—and the release by Orange of John Lutz. These men will be eligible to join any club in the league in two weeks. It is understood that Maylin and Neal will sign with Long Beach. Joe James, former night ball umpire, was announced as the new Huntington Beach manager.

(4)—Acceptance by all managers of a new rule which will do away with further transfer of players this season. Athletes may be released at the will of the manager but they will not be allowed to join any other team in the "A" circuit.

(5)—Action which is expected to halt the widespread and in most instances foolish protests of lost games. Hereafter any team that protests must accompany its written complaint to President Peterkin with a $10 check which will be refunded if the protest is granted. If the protest is denied the money will be added to the National Night league's treasury.

Pace Charges S. A. Conspiracy

Discussion of the "Schuchardt Case" waxed exceedingly warm, although John Wilcox, Santa Ana's representative at the session, handed the president Schuchardt's release before the meeting opened.

Pace, the Anaheim manager, accused Santa Ana of 'conspiring to obtain the services of Pitcher Joe Ochoa in exchange for Schuchardt." He not only accused the Stars' management and officials of the firm here which employs Ochoa with having a part in this alleged "con-

'THE HAIG' THREATENS BOBBY

When the returns are added up next Saturday night at Interlachen, it may be discovered that the 1930 U. S. open champion is Bobby Jones. Or, it might be another fellow—Walter Hagen, if Hagen can get up early enough in the morning to meet the starter on Hole No. 1. Sir Walter has been holding secret practice in Australia with Joe Kirkwood. His putter started playing queer pranks during the winter in the west, resulting in his decision to forego the Brtish open which he won last year. Friends who have seen Hagen since his return to America say he has restored to his brazen putter much of its ancient charm. Which means that he didn't go to Minneapolis just to watch Bobby Jones play.

HORTON SMITH, HARRY COOPER BOTH SHOOT 72

BY FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)

INTERLACHEN COUTRY CLUB, Minn., July 10.—Showing what he was, as a champion should, Robert Tyre Jones jr., British and American open titleholder and British amateur titalist, as well, took an early lead today over the field which seeks his crown at Interlachen, shooting his first round of the present open championship in 71 strokes, one under par.

Playing through terrific heat and bothered by one of the largest and most troublesome galleries of open championship history, the Atlantan bettered par by two strokes for the first nine.

Drops Stroke Coming In

Bobby dropped just one stroke to par on his homeward journey and finished with a 71.

His card:

Par, out	443	534	445	—36
Jones	443	434	444	—34
Par, in	455	344	434	—36—72
Jones	555	344	434	—37—71

This was the best of all the early efforts.

Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo., Harry Cooper of Glen Ellyn, Ill., and George Smith of Lake Forest, Ill., were the first to press Bobby with par 72.

Others who finished fairly well on Jones' heels were Irwin Ottman, Louisville, Ky., 73; Eddie Williams, Cleveland, Ohio, 73; Willie MacFarlane, Tuckahoe, N. Y., 74; Johnny Golden, Orton, Conn., 74, and Jack Burke, Houston, Texas, 74.

In maintaining his pace out in front of the field of 141 contestants and setting a mark for them to shoot at—his favorite method of attack—Bobby Jones played careful, consistent golf. Seldom did the Atlantan take a chance, and seldom did he find the rough.

Hits Rough On No. 10

The tenth was Bobby's only hole in which he took more than par. Here he drove into the rough by a scant foot, and as a result his recovery shot found a trap guarding the green and he took a five.

For the most part, it was one par hole after another, although he took advantage of opportunities at the fourth and ninth holes of pick off birdies.

The intense heat took a severe toll. Cyril Tolley, the usually immaculate and rather superior Englishman, former British amateur champion, perspired his way around the first nine in 42 strokes.

Tolley fussed and fumed his way to an inglorious eight at the 352-yard seventh hole. His card was not one of the best.

Little Henri Ciuci of Stratford, Conn., who had been burning up the course in practice was another disappointment today. Ciuci, who equalled the course record for Interlachen with a 69 two days ago and bettered par yesterday, started shaking and was three over par for his first time three holes before he settled down.

Jones Nonchalant

Bobby Jones, who rated an 8 to 5 choice to defend his title and win his third major championship of the year, did not put in an appearance until a few minutes before his starting time.

If the Atlantan felt the strain of his stiff battles for the championships abroad, he showed no

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
(I. N. S. Sports Editor)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 10. —Just as the immortal little Corsican once stood on the shores of Normandy and looked with speculative gaze westward toward the only world as yet unconquered, so stood another squat but mighty little man this morning.

He stood on the eminence of the first tee and he looked not on the unrest of the stormy channel but over a sea of rolling, billowing fairways toward the seventy-second and final hole of the National open golf championship and the goal of his heart's desire.

Would Reconquer Own

Bobby Jones, the corcerer of golf, was face to face with the great issues of his life. Unlike the first Napoleon, he had subdued England not once, but twice, in its amateur and open championships, and now, having conquered all else, he was back home attempting to reconquer his own. He was more than defending the title that was his. This would have been a negative, defensive roll, whereas his was to be the conscious aggression of the man who seeks world dominion.

Jones was to prove, starting with the 18-hole rounds today and tomorrow and ending with the final 36 holes on Saturday whether his golf was supernatural and beyond the influence of human events or the subject of whims and vagaries jurt like other institutions of this world.

Victory for Jones would mean a virtual monopoly on competitive golf the world over. Winner in May of the British amateur championship and winner in June of the British open for the third time, July finds him ready to parlay his winnings right into the American open title and the highest honor within the gift of the sport. No man ever has held the trinity of major titles in one and the same year. But Jones will begin trying today and, when Jones tries, the rest of them often find that there is little to be done about it.

Pro Out To Beat Bobby

This time, a field of 147 golfers, most of them the greatest professionals in the world doubtless is prepared to die in its own blood, rather than have this amazing amateur make a further show of its inaptitude. Not a quiescent, submissive field, this one.

Indeed, it gives every appearance of being a greatly desperate one and so, with Walter Hagen, Gene Sarazen, Leo Diegel, Horton Smith, and Johnny Farrell as its spokesmen, it will endeavor to deliver an ultimatum to this unfeeling amateur that will act both as a solace to its vanity and a rebuke to himself.

They mean business this time, these bread-and-butter men of golf. Hagen, the great master of other and better years, now down to his last chip competitively speaking, and ready to wager it as vividly and grandly as only Hage ncan. The man has been making himself ready for this test of power for months. So has little Sarazen, another former champion. He wouldn't go to the British open because he wanted to get Jones here. Diegel, denied of his birthright in other championships, is prepared to claim it in this one.

CITY LEAGUERS END HALFWAY RACE TONIGHT

Santa Ana City league baseball teams reach the halfway post in their 1930 pennant argument tonight. Games between the Auto Club of Orange County and the Orange County Builders' exchange at 6:45, and the Pacific Telephone company and the Richfield Oilers at 8:15, will wind up the regular schedule for the first half of the split season.

Two tussles which had no bearing on the pennant race were run off in the Bowl last night.

The American Legion beat the Eastern Oil company, 5 to 3, and the Excelsior creamery defeated Peek's market, 7 to 3.

Earl Jones, Legion pitcher, glanked the Eastern Oilers for six innings but weakened a little in the seventh and was rapped for three tallies. Bacon's walk, singles by Thiery, Smith and Miller and a couple of infield errors on Angell and Suddaby accounted for them.

The Legion got one in the second on Gibson's double and Murillo's single, another in the third on Nelson's single, an error and Wood's single, and three others in the sixth on Muckenthaler's single, passes to Gibson and Murillo and a couple of fielders' choices.

"Tex" Bergman kept the Peek Butchers popping up in the pinches in the afterpiece. He was tagged for eight hits but none of them did any damage until the last of the ninth. Bergman aided his own cause with a home run off Estes in the first frame.

HOOKS and SLIDES

by William Braucher

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

Max Schmeling hardly will be pleased with his victory over Sharkey since he hadn't shown much qualifying him for a true champion, according to the Berlin Vossische Zeitung . . . and the Berlin Tempo regrets that Herr Maxie won in a passive manner . . . the Deutsche Tageszeitung states the next few rounds very likely would bring a change in the tide of battle favoring Schmeling. . . . John McGraw asks if you can imagine Johnson, Jeffries or McCoy throwing away a fight like that. . . . Elwood English looks so good at third for the Cubs that he may stay right there, instead of short. . . . Charley Root is just getting into shape after a long illness and that is not good news to the other National league teams, either.

THE BASEBALL TIDE

When Shakespeare wrote that line about there being "a tide in the affairs of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune," he expounded a great lead for a baseball yarn. There is a moment in a baseball game when victory hangs upon a single act, and the result may be a winning or losing streak of many games.

The Cleveland Indians furnish a grand example. They fought their way to the top of the league, beating the Simmonsless Athletics three straight. Then the New York Yankees came to town. The Yankee reputation for power evidently had made a deep impression upon the young Indian pitchers, for in every tight spot, with the big guns facing them, they issued walks to the batsmen. You cannot go on issuing bases on balls, you know, and win ball games. The result was disaster.

BATTERS GET WISE

The Yankee batsmen sensed the concession that was being made to their power. It gave them a pyschological edge on the enemy. And in three days they rolled up something like 40 runs against the team that had just beaten the A's three straight.

The effect of the Yankee rout did not end there. The Indians, after dropping their series to the Yankees, went to Washington and dropped another series. They slid from the top right down the ladder, past Washington and the Yanks.

Billy Evans, the former umpire, who is now general-managing the Indians, was out on the coast looking at ivory specimens when the rout took place. Upon his return I ran across him, and asked how a team that looked so good one day could be so abject the next.

"They're young fellows," said Bill, "and the steadying influence of our injured veterans lige Fonseca and Luke Sewell was missing. That Yankee attack just shot their morale all to pieces.

"Some little thing may happen in one of the games, and it may turn the tide and they may win a whole lot of ball games in a row. I've seen it happen time and again.

THE SIMMONS TOUCH

"It happened just this year. Remember the recent series between Washington and the Macks? In the very first game Washington had the A's beat right up until the last inning. Two out and Al Simmons steps up and clouts a home run. The Macks take the whole series—after being a doormat for the Senators in previous games.

"Something of the same kind happened in that well known 10-run inning in the last world series, and, oddly enough, it was Simmons who stepped up there and spilled the onions. That wallop over the left field stands in Philly lifted the Macks right out of it.

"It's hard sometimes to get a team started winning, and once they get going, it's hard to stop 'em."

That's what Shapespeare might have written if he ever had scored a ball game.

SCHUCHARDT CASE AIRED AT MEETING

spiracy" but also included members of the Santa Ana city council.

Himself accused of "tampering" with Schuchardt, a man under official contract to Santa Ana, Pace denied that he had any part in arranging for Schuchardt to transfer his affiliations. He said that Anaheim players had obtained employment for the outfielder and that he knew nothing of the matter until Schuchardt himself came to him and asked whether he could "use his services if I get my release from Santa Ana." Pace said he naturally replied in the affirmative.

Peterkin Plans Vacation

Pace did not deny, however, that he had personally agreed to trade Ochoa for Schuchardt. It is understood that after he made this arrangement, he was overruled by Anaheim city officials who are interested in the Valencia club.

President Peterkin announced he was leaving immediately on a vacation of two weeks and that until July 26 he "didn't want to hear another thing about night baseball." He will turn over all executive tasks to Lee C. McClelland of Olive, secretary of the league.

A long expected shakeup in Peterkin's staff of umpires broke when the hard-toiling head man went into a huddle with his guessers. He announced the release of Umpires Hollis Leake, Leo Seiffert and Jack Dillon. They will be replaced with men who have been obtaining experience in the Orange County "B" league—J. W. Witbeck of Santa Ana, Trafford Watson and Harvey Stoner of Olive, "Rube" Hall of Anaheim and Bill Jenkins of Fullerton.

Peterkin announced that Umpires Clair Head and Ernest Y. Johnson would begin work in the "B" loop.

sign of it today. Jones strolled up to the clubhouse, smiling and apparently unconcerned, attired in a light grey suit and wearing the unfamiliar cap he has donned as protection against the blazing Minnesota sun. The latter had burned its way through the light clouds when Bobby arrived and the tightly baked fairways appeared to be aflame with the heat as viewed from the clubhouse on the hill.

"I'm feeling fine," Bobby said cheerfully in answer to the questions of his friends who crowded around to wish him luck in defense of his title. The back of his neck still was a fiery red from the sunburn attained earlier in the week.

The first sensation of the championship today was provided by Jack Burke or River Oaks, who also was first to start. Burke, unaffected by the heat, proceeded to do a little burning up himself on the outside nine, reaching the turn in 34, two strokes under par.

MAJOR LEAGUES IN WAR WITH MINORS

draft agreement was made. The agreement provided that major league clubs should be allowed to select players from the minors at prices ranging from $5000 to Class AA minor teams down to $1000 to Class D minors.

The minor leagues, however, have refused to sell players at the set prices and the major owners have charged they were asking exorbitant sums. Major league declared this policy was unfair both to players, who deserved advancement and to organized baseball in general.

SEAL MAGNATE OPPOSES UNIVERSAL DRAFT

SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—The threatened big league war on minor league clubs will be met with strong opposition by members of the Pacific Coast league, according to George A. Putnam, manager of the San Francisco Seals.

"Of course I speak only for the Seals," Putnam said, "but I feel confident that other managers in this division are in agreement with me. We have no intention of submitting to the so-called 'universal draft.'

"Should the big leagues insist on the new agreement and refuse to buy from and sell to us, the Pacific Coast league will develop its own players for itself and in a few years will be as strong as the major league aggregations," Putnam said.

EXCHANGE CLUB HEARS NEWS OF HICKMAN CASE

NEWPORT BEACH, July 10.—The thin thread of evidence which was woven half across the continent and finally hanged William Edward Hickman, the notorious "Fox," in the Marion Parker kidnaping and murder case in Los Angeles two years ago, was told to members of the Newport Beach Exchange club at their weekly luncheon at the Yacht Club yesterday by Lieut. H. L. Barlow, of the identification bureau of the Los Angeles police department.

Barlow told the members about several interesting cases, and stated that finger-printing not only convicts the guilty but frees the innocent, citing the Jimmy Preston case in Los Angeles as a case where an innocent man was convicted and served more than a year in the penitentiary before being pardoned when finger-prints established the guilt of another.

The first real clew in the Hickman case was when finger-prints on letters mailed by "The Fox" to Marion Parker's father were photographed and tallied with those left on the rear view mirror on a stolen car, which was traced back to Kansas City, where it was stolen a month before. Taking the prints from the auto mirror was a long chance, but it turned out to be the needed link.

Barlow spoke in the place of James E. Davis, former Los Angeles police chief, who was unable to attend. M. G. Gaskell, Barlow's aide in the identification bureau, accompanied him.

Dr. G. M. Grundy, city health officer, stated that there are no cases of infantile paralysis here. This was in reply to a question by President Hodgkinson of the club, who said that wildly exaggerated stories about an alleged epidemic are being given out.

The club decided to continue to meet during the summer months, a proposal having been made that it discontinue until fall. The meeting of August 6 will have to be held some other place than the Yacht Club, however, owing to the regattas to be staged here that week.

Court Notes

Declaring that certain funds realized from the sale of crypts in which Charles Eygabroad acted as trustee for a group of six persons who had purchased a block of crypts in the Anaheim Community mausoleum, are not accounted for in the distribution of moneys received for the sale of certain crypts, the Bank of America of California, as executor of the estate of Charles Eygabroad, was made defendant in a suit that has been filed in superior court. Judgment is asked in the amount of $3586.66, which it is set up in the complaint is the amount unaccounted for as the difference between sales totaling $8942.85 and payments to the members of the group in the trust agreement, which totaled 5100, less the share to which Eygabroad was entitled, of $256.10.

MALCOM REUNION

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—The John Malcom home has been the scene of an interesting family gathering during the past week. Mr. Malcom, who is superintendent of the Capistrano union high school, had the pleasure of acting as host to members of his family from Los Angeles and Glendale, for a family gathering over the week end. Seventeen guests gathered at the Malcom home, in San Juan Capistrano, early on the morning of the Fourth; a beach party was enjoyed, followed by a picnic dinner under the trees on the lawn. Those meeting for the reunion of the Malcom family were Mrs. Mary E. Malcom, of Los Angeles, Mr. Malcom's mother; Prof. Roy Malcom, of U. S. C., his wife and children; Mrs. Walter Legg, a sister of Mr. Malcom's, and her husband, of Glendale, and Miss Sylvia Behymer, also of Glendale, and Miss Josephine Swiggett, of Glendale, who was a house guest from Wednesday until Sunday, in the Malcom home.

VACATION IN EAST

BREA, July 10.—Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sutton are leaving tomorrow for a three weeks' vacation, Mr. Sutton stopping at Denver to attend the Lions' convention and Mrs. Sutton continuing on to Chicago for a visit with relatives. Mr. Sutton will join her there and together they will visit other points in the middle west. His work at the Pacific Electric railway office here will be done by Mr. Winslow, substitute agent.

WILL GIVE RECITAL

Miss Elizabeth Skiles of El Modena, a voice pupil of Rev. Joseph G. Reece for the past year, will give a recital Friday evening, July 11, at 7:30 o'clock at the Villa Park church. Miss Skiles, choir director of the Villa Park Congregational church will be assisted by Mrs. Harry R. Tritt, violinist, Mrs. Joseph Reece, pianist, and Mrs. Harry L. Skiles, pianist. She will give a program of sacred selections and ballads.

Walker Arraigned In Justice Court

Jack Walker, Santa Ana manager of several well known fighters here, charged with grand theft in connection with the disappearance of an automobile, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday on the charge.

The preliminary examination was set for July 10, and Walker was released on his own recognizance. Walker was arrested in Denver, Colo., several days ago.

CAPISTRANO MESA TURNED INTO GARDEN

CAPISTRANO BEACH, July 10.—Development of the Capistrano mesa, overlooking the ocean at the top of the palisades is rapidly taking place. A winding driveway leads from the Coast highway along the fact of the palisades, to the top and along the sides of the bluff are seven levels of flowering plants and veins, making bright lines of color against the rocky wall of the palisades.

Extensive landscaping has transformed the upper line of the palisades into a park of unusual beauty. Canons have been swung across with dustic bridges and lines of rustice fences protect the passerby from falling into the depths below. A rustic pegoda graces the most outstanding point of the palisades, commanding a view of the ocean, the towns of San Clemente to the south, and Dana Point to the north and west, the valley lands wherein are located Serra and San Juan Capistrano, the Coast highway and Roosevelt highway, leading through Dana Point.

Nearby a canon has been remodeled into a perfect bowl, making one of the unique pieces of landscaping beauty to be found on the cost. The bowl swings aroung three sides, facing the ocean, and a circular pegoda carpeted with a mass of flowering moss, makes a perfect setting for the fourth side of the bowl, and an ideal observation point for an unexcelled ocean view.

In landscaping the Capistrano bowl and gardens many rare plants have been introduced, and masses of color add to the natural beauty of the park. Salvia Greggii, Cassia Artemsiodes, jasmine, lilies of many kinds, rare varieties of acacia, lantana in pink scarlet, yellow and white, flowering mosses of several kinds, scarlet and pink hybiscus, blue and pink hydrangea, masses of ornamental shrubs, pines and many other varieties of shade trees, all contribute to make the par both unique and beautiful.

SELLS GARAGE

BREA, July 10.—Sidney Potter has sold his business known as the Brea garage. The purchaser is Mr. Schock, formerly of Orcutt, where he has been employed for several years with the Union Oil company. Mr. Potter has already given possession and with Mrs. Potter will shortly leave for an extended motor trip into the northwest. They plan on camping a week with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rudd in the redwood district but their summer will be spent in a lake resort near Vancouver. Mr. Potter has been the owner and operator of the Brea garage for the past ten years or more.

Husband Had to Do Her Work

"When my baby was a month old, I took a heavy cold and after that I felt miserable. Could not lift anything. My husband had to help me with the housework. I was so weak I could not do a washing. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the Kittaning paper and I gave it a good trial. Before I had taken half a bottle, I found the difference. I do all my own work now and I have told others how much this medicine helped me."—Mrs. Alice Bassett, Cadogan, Pennsylvania.

—look at him with a knowing grin and say:

"Sure! We know— You're Napoleon!"

LEADERSHIP is the coveted prize in every industry, and the rubber industry is no exception.

So it is only human that our aspiring friends occasionally indulge in the thrill of talking about Leadership, whether they have it or not.

We mention this in all good humor, and merely to explain the somewhat confusing advertising you see now and again, in which one rubber company or another blithely forgets its definitions and shoots the works.

The justification for such a fling is that the use of the term Leadership in most cases is qualified, even if obscurely, by being based on some subordinate phase of the business in which the advertiser claims to excel.

BUT what's all the shootin' for—is Leadership really an important matter?

We think it is, as the most dependable indorsement of a product that the public can find upon which to rely.

When a plurality of the world's motorists, for example, year after year singles out one make of tire as the highest representative of value and merit, that is tremendously important.

It affords the average buyer the finest and safest possible guidance in his purchasing—and for his good and our own we desire to keep that guidance clear.

DISPENSING, then, with equivocal claims, evasions, qualifications and adroit expression, what company actually holds Leadership in the rubber industry?

The public has decisively answered that question in concrete terms of dollars and cents, and has conferred the award upon Goodyear.

Goodyear in turn submits to you the solid facts which support its Leadership.

It does this in no spirit of boastfulness; on the contrary with a privileged sense of the responsibility which its outstanding position entails:

In both volume and value of annual sales, Goodyear is the largest rubber company in the world.

Goodyear consumes 1/6 of all the crude rubber used annually in the world—approximately 50% more than any other manufacturer.

Goodyear builds more than 1/4 of all the tires sold in America, the remainder being divided among some forty manufacturers.

For years Goodyear has factory-equipped between 1/4 and 1/3 of all the new motor cars manufactured.

Goodyear exports approximately 40% of all the tires exported from the United States and Canada for other parts of the world.

Goodyear maintains the largest development laboratories and corps of experimental engineers of any rubber company in the world.

In the last seven years Goodyear's annual production of pneumatic tires has increased 172%, as against an increase of approximately 75% for the industry as a whole.

WITH special reference to tires, Goodyear holds Leadership because:

Goodyear has made more tires for motor vehicles than any other manufacturer—by millions.

Goodyear is making, today, more tires than any other manufacturer in the world—by millions.

Goodyear's tire business has increased faster in the last five years than any other manufacturer's—by millions.

More people ride on Goodyear Tires than on any other kind—by millions.

THERE'S the story, good people, figure it out for yourselves.

Certainly it means that in Goodyear Tires the average user finds a quality and a value which he cannot equal elsewhere.

Certainly it means that when you buy a Goodyear Tire you buy something good enough, outstandingly good enough, to have won a special and unrivalled place in the confidence of the public.

And when any other rubber company confuses you with talk about Leadership, just treat yourself to a knowing grin and say: "Sure! We know—You're Napoleon!"

ORTEGA OFFERS ARE ANNOUNCED BY DIRECTORS

The complete list of bids on the first construction work on Ortega highway, which were opened yesterday by the board of directors of joint highway district No. 15, in charge of the work, and which resulted in awarding the contract to the H. W. Rohl company, of Los Angeles, at a price of $173,256.20, has been announced by D. C. Spears, resident engineer of the work and assistant to A. C. Fulmor, of Riverside, the engineer for the district.

Of the 15 bids the highest one was approximately $200,000 above the lowest bid. Appropriations that were made by Orange and Riverside counties and the state of California for the first work total $225,000.

Work to be done constitutes grading and surfacing with decomposed granite sections "C" and "E". Section C is 900 feet long, located at San Juan Hot Springs, and includes the construction of a steel truss bridge, 70 feet long. Section "E" covers three miles in Orange county and three miles in Riverside county. The completion of this work, according to the engineers, will make the road passable its entire length between San Juan Capistrano and Elsinore, a distance of 32.5 miles. The other shortest route between these two points is 72.5 miles, according to Spears, or 40 miles longer.

The road is to be 22 feet in width with a two foot gutter at the side. Through cuts the gutters will be located on both sides, making the over-all width 26 feet. Curves will be widened on the inside in accordance with recommended practices of the state highway department.

The list of bids for the work follows: H. W. Rohl company, Los Angeles, $173,256.20; Eltinge T. Brown and company, Los Angeles; Lang Transportation company, Los Angeles, $204,665.40; J. P. Holland and company, San Francisco, $209,740.44; Macco Construction company ,Los Angeles, $210,418.90; J. W. Breedlove corporation, Los Angeles, $240,716.50; Gist and Bell, San Diego, $257,493.50; George Pollack, San Diego, $259,145.80; Robinson-Roberts company, Los Angeles, $262,087.10; O. A. Lindeberg, Vernon, $272,722.90; Lewis Construction company, Los Angeles, $282,777.20; Yglesias Brothers, incorporated, San Diego, $332,626.60; Monroe-Travers corporation, limited, Los Angeles, $339,448.18; J. G. Donovan and Son, Los Angeles, $348,220.12; Watson and Sutton, San Diego, $370,201.40.

Bar Association To Meet Tonight

Members of the Orange County Bar association, their wives and friends, will gather for a dinner meeting of the organization at St. Ann's inn at 6:30 p. m. today. A large attendance is expected at the affair, which is in the nature of an annual ladies' night.

An interesting address by a capable speaker is assured those who attend the dinner. The speaker will be John L. Mott, prominent Los Angeles attorney and member of an old California family, who will speak on "Early California History," according to the program chairman, Fred Forgy. Judge Frank C. Drumm is president of the association.

Pearson Club To Be Launched Here

Friends of James M. Pearson, chief of police at Fullerton, who is an active candidate in the race for sheriff in the approaching primary election, are planning the organization of a "Pearson for Sheriff club" in Santa Ana. The first meeting of the group is to be held next Monday evening, when plans for further activities will be made.

HONOR FOR EDISON

"For your outstanding contributions to science" . . . An old and coveted award, Philadelphia's John Scott medal, was added to the world honors heaped upon Thomas A. CAMP OSCEOLA VISITORS ARE IMPRESSED WITH ACTIVITIES CARRIED ON BY 'Y' GROUPS

The Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. boys' camp at Osceola was visited yesterday by the Rev. Moffett Rhodes, member of the Y boys' work committee, and General Secretary R. C. Smedley, who were accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Smedley and Miss Betty Smedley.

The visitors reached camp Tuesday in time for dinner and the camp fire program, which featured a talk by Ivan Scott, an Indian legend by R. H. McArthur, a story by D. H. Tibbals, a talk by the Rev. Mr. Rhodes and the reading of the daily "Osceola Grumbler," the camp newspaper, of which George Munro is edtior.

The Rev. Mr. Rhodes and Smedley were permitted to visit the ceremonial at which John Hoy was invested with the "red rag," an advanced honor, coveted by all Y. M. C. A. campers, and awarded only to those who show notable ability in camp craft and the spirit of service. It was a most impressive ceremony which occurred on "Raggers' Point," a secluded spot near the camp, which is visited only by members of the order of Raggers.

All reports by the visitors are most enthusiastic concerning the conditions at the camp, and the work being done by the boys.

"I have visited many camps for boys," said the Rev. Mr. Rhodes, on his return, "from the expensive camps for wealthy boys on the Atlantic coast to our own camps on the western mountains and beaches and I can say frankly that never have I seen any other boys' camp which so strongly appealed to me as an ideal place for boys to spend vacation time in recreation and inspiration. The atmosphere of the camp is one of friendly helpfulness and kindly co-operation. All problems of discipline, which are few, are handled by the boys themselves, through their camp council. The leaders are in the role of big brothers and counselors, rather than guardians or masters. The boys are busy from morning to night with a varied program of educational activities, in which they are intensely interested. There is a spirit of true devotion and of high ideals that is good for any one. I believe that any boy who has the privilege of spending the two weeks at Osceola is to be highly congratulated on his opportunity. My only criticism is that they ought to stay three weeks instead of two."

The boys are organized for their camp life according to their cabin groups. Seven boys and a leader compose a cabin group. Each cabin elects a representative to the camp council, and these representatives are Bob Spurgeon, George Munro, Chauncey Arnold, Robert Tannenbaum, Howard Quiggle, Lloyd Gibbs, Willard Noe, Don Lentz, Darrel Gaebe, and Bill Turner. The council elected Bob Spurgeon as mayor, a position which he is filling with ability.

George Munro is editor of the Daily Grumbler, and he is assisted by an editorial group composed of Charles Spicer, Elbert Stewart, Walter Kring, Christie Demetriou, Max Norman, Frank Ashleigh, Hubert Nall, James Noe, Morris Lycan and Tarver Motgomery. The day's edition is read at campfire each night, giving the news and comment of the day.

Harold Lutes is doing good work as camp bugler, and he is kept busy sounding the calls from 6 a. m., when reveille is sounded, clear through until taps, at 9:30 p. m.

The group working at airplane models is being instructed by Walter Kring, and as one of the boys says, "he knows his pinions." A glider built in camp stayed in the air for two minutes on its trial flight. Several clever planes have been assembled.

Health conditions at camp have been of the best. Dr. Saulsberry, the camp physician, has little to do except for first aid for cuts and bruises. The dining room is better than ever, and the provisions for work and play are highly satisfactory. A number of the boys are working for their "rags," and several have been awarded.

ANAHEIM OPEN AIR CONCERTS BEGIN TONIGHT

Thousands of Orange county residents will avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the free summer concerts which will open tonight at Anaheim's open air theater with the appearance of Charles Wakefield Cadman, American composer-pianist, in his new song cycle, "White Enchantment," with quartet. Beginning at 8 p. m., with Cadman at the piano, the original song cycle, the text of which was written by Nelle Richmond Eberhart, will be sung by Harold Kellogg, bass, father role; Rosalie Barker Frye, contralto, mother; Margaret Messer Morris, soprano, daughter; Otto Ploetz, tenor, lover.

A synopsis of the numbers to be rendered on tonight's program is as follows: Quartet, "Fire on the Hearth"; recitative and bass solo, "The Ladies of the Harem"; recitative and soprano and contralto duet, "Window Shopping On the Avenue"; recitative and tenor solo, "Three Harps Make Songs to Heaven"; recitative and contralto solo, "Mignonette"; recitative and solo, "The Plunderer"; scene and quaret, "Love's Language"; recitative and tenor and bass duet, "Lull Us No Longer"; recitative and contralto solo, "Like Wind Upon Water"; recitative and soprano and tenor duet, "In Some Cold Hour"; scene and quartet, "Love is a Blossoming Bough."

The concerts will be presented each week for eight consecutive weeks, each bringing artists of national and international note.

SOME FLAT CAR*

LONDON, July 10.—One of the largest flat cars in the world was recently exhibited here at the showing of London and Northeastern Railway company. The car, the largest and heaviest in Great Britain, weighed 155 tons, and on its 28 pairs of wheels it carried a weight of 150 tons. It was designed to carry huge metal castings.

HUGE EASTERN CONTRACT WON BY FLUOR FIRM

The last of 20 Orange county men in the employment of the Fluor Construction company, left last night for Louisburg, Kans., where they will begin work on the Missouri-Kansas Pipe Line company compressor station. The bid for the contract was awarded the company, in competition with many other large eastern concerns.

The $2,000,000 project which will be located in Kansas, Missouri and Illinois, will require the services of approximately 300 men, and will take eight months to complete. The project is under the direction of P. E. Fluor, of Anaheim, who is general manager.

Local men who left last night were N. L. Edson, of Tustin, and Frank Evans, Dan Adams, A. Dutton, and Tom Morris, of Santa Ana. The first camp was opened last week in Liberal, Kans. The next one will be located in Louisburg. The third camp will be situated somewhere in Illinois.

In addition to the Fluor company offices in Anaheim, other branch offices are in Los Angeles, Kansas City, Dallas, Tulsa, Okla., Houston, Tex., and New York City.

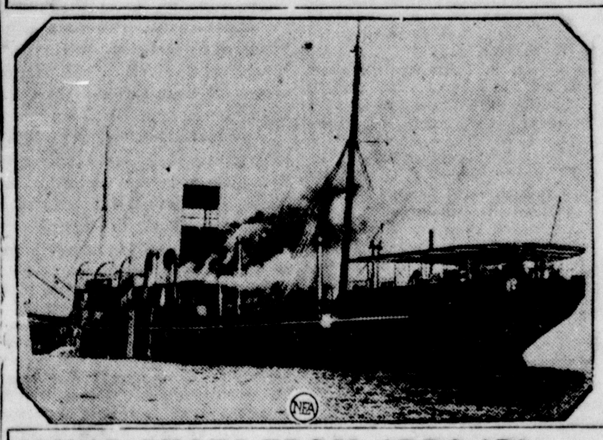
LAUNCH SAFETY ORGANIZATION ON PLAYGROUND

A special feature of activity on the Santa Ana summer playgrounds that is new this year is the appointment of safety committees, according to L. W. Archer, supervisor. This feature of the program is being promoted and sponsored by the Automobile Club of Southern California. The personnel of this committee is carefully chosen for dependability and leadership, and assists the instructors in the promotion of the proper habits and ideals of play, especially where the safety idea is involved.

Following are the appointments that have been made to date on the playgrounds: Lincoln playground, Roderick Dresser, Fae Ward, Irwin Youel and Norma Carr; Edison playground, Virginia Cyr, Blanche McCuistian, Russell Johnston and Leo Lyons; Spurgeon playground, Irene London, Virginia Vogler, Bobby Vogler and Elizabeth Rohrs; Franklin playground, Frances Crowther, Florence Seeber, Alvin Cass and Robert Schwarm; Lowell playground, Ralph Lambert, Beryl Bates, Machille Schanefelt, Charles Glotzbach and Neil Gammell; and Roosevelt playground, Bruce Harnois, Lloyd Race, Vivian Elliott and Barbara Speed.

BRITISH SHIP ABLAZE

Flames raging in the hold of the British India line steamer Masula, as pictured above, off Gibraltar, threatened a major sea disaster. But passengers were safely landed and the fast-burning vessel, with fire licking its cargo of oil, was beached.



'SNAP SHOTS FROM ABROAD' FEATURED AT KIWANIS MEET

Louis Danz, of the Danz Music company at Anaheim, entertained the Kiwanis club here yesterday with a hasty recital of many of his observations and experiences on his recent trip to Europe. "Snap Shots Abroad' 'was the subject of his talk.

Presentation in a witty way of some of his experiences kept the Kiwanians in a hilarious mood throughout the address. He recounted his impressions and his personal feelings as he encountered some of the historic places of Europe, and emphasized the point that in crossing national border lines one stepped into a section where the habits and thoughts of the natives were entirely different from that section from which the traveler passed. He said there is no continuity of thought and declared this more or less responsible for wars in the foreign lands.

He said that when he entered Paris the atmosphere was so different from that prevailing in America that it seemed to him that the people on the street were caricatures rather than human beings. He described the difference between the people on the east and the west sides of the Siene river in Paris, and asserted that in their cultural development the west side residents were about 1000 years behind those of the east side. He commented on the fact that a directory of the city of Paris revealed to him the information that 40,000 persons there are seriously bent on the production of art.

Frank Lansdown was program chairman and he introduced as part of the entertainment program, Miss Harriet Morris in two reading numbers.

TREASURY HELD $4,053,612 AT END OF PERIOD

Showing a larger actual cash balance on hand as of July 1, than ever before at that time of the year, the monthly statement of the amounts and kinds of money in the county treasury, which is posted in the office of County Auditor W. C. Jerome, shows that over $4,000,000 was in the county treasury as the fiscal year came to a close at the end of June. The total of actual cash, according to Jerome, is $4,053,612.31. The statement shows an additional sum of over $900,000, which it is explained is represented by warrants in the treasurer's office that have been paid, but not cleared through the books.

The largest item on the statement is $2,241,000, which it is set forth on the statement, is loaned to banks at 3 per cent interest. The next largest item is the checking account balance, which amounts to $950,318.03. Other items shown on the statement are currency, $860,522; money in transit, $1600; U. S. silver coin, $152.28; U. S. gold coin, $20.

The balance at the corresponding period last year was $3,149,862.45.

The statement is signed by Willard Smith, chairman of the board of supervisors; Z. B. West, district attorney, and W. C. Jerome, auditor.

The funds include money from bond issues for construction projects, most of which are schools, including programs in Santa Ana, Garden Grove, Costa Mesa. State gas tax and school money also are included in the unusually large balance, which is to be used in the budget for the ensuing year.

Bridge Club of Three Cities Entertained Yesterday

That lively little group of Santa Ana, Orange and Anaheim matrons banded together as the S. O. A. club for a semi-monthly afternoon of bridge, was entertained yesterday in the pleasant Anaheim home of Mrs. C. A. Sisson, where a 1 o'clock luncheon preceded the interesting bridge session of the afternoon.

Mrs. Sisson arranged her luncheon table in the dining-room, centering the expanse of snowy linen with exquisite rosebuds. The colorful little cards by which places were indicated, later served as tally cards for the game. Covers were laid for the hostess, Mrs. Sisson, and for Mrs. Palmer and Mrs. J. P. King of Anaheim; Mrs. George Merriman, Mrs. F. M. Higgins and Mrs. William Batt of Orange, and Mrs. D. H. Thompson and Mrs. Daisy McGee of this city.

Mrs. Thompson scored high in the afternoon's play, receiving the attractive first prize. Second prize was awarded Mrs. Merriman, and consolation went to Mrs. Higgins.

The next S. O. A. meeting in two weeks, will be with Mrs. Leland Ewbank of North Bristol street, Santa Ana, who will have returned by that time from a vacation visit in Reno and other Nevada points upon which she and Mr. Ewbank left yesterday morning.

Sewing Circle Enjoys Musical Program at Luncheon Meeting

To the spacious charm of the Graham home in Garden Grove, yesterday was added the beauty of many dahlias, when Mrs. Cora Graham rifled her garden of its choicest blooms to make her home attractive to the Sewing Circle members of Calumpit auxiliary, assembled to spend a busy day.

Mrs. Maude Brown, Mrs. Anna Springer and Miss Bertha Belt were co-hostesses with Mrs. Graham in planning for the day, and each member of the guest group added one prepared dish to the luncheon menu which provided a pleasant interval in the day's program of needlework. This was especially enjoyable because of the setting given the small tables which were arranged on the wide verandah, and were centered with bright hued flowers.

Sewing was resumed in the afternoon, when the Circle members devoted their time to needlework for Spanish war veterans now at Sawtelle. As they stitched away busily they were entertained with music, their hostess, Mrs. Graham, adding a number of songs. Her voice is one of much beauty and training, and she sang such numbers as "I Love You Truly" and "Perfect Day" by Carrie Jacobs Bond, "The Path to Home Sweet Home," etc., playing her own accompaniments.

Those present for the all-day session included in addition to the hostess group, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Brown, Miss Belt and Mrs. Springer, the Mesdames Grace Deck, Ruth Deck, Frances Deck, Jane Winter, Gertrude Rowe, Marie Lindquist, Lillian Hubbard, Katherine Reagan, Frances Dresser, Estelle Dresser, Julia Williams, Emma Kellogg, Eleanor Shaw, Elvira Kurtz, Elva Hunt and Elizabeth Erickson.

Miscellaneous Shower Is Compliment to Miss Harnois

As one of the most popular of Santa Ana's college graduates, Miss Charlotte Harnois, whose marriage to Chester Seigel of Ventura is to be an event of the very near future, has been the incentive for innumerable showers and parties since the announcement of her engagement early in June. One of the loveliest of these was that of yesterday, when Mrs. R. Dean Smiley, Elizabeth Beall and her mother, Mrs. R. W. Beall, were co-hostesses at a miscellaneous shower in the latter's home on East Third street.

Bridge was played amidst an attractive arrangement of dahlias and other mid-summer blooms grouped in baskets throughout the rooms. When tallies were checked it was revealed that Mrs. Donald Dearth held high score, for which she was awarded a charming linen doily of Italian cut work, while Miss June Goodwin received a linen towel of the same design, for holding second high score.

The refreshment course was most enjoyable and was served at the small tables, covered with crisp white cloths, and centered with crepe paper nut baskets in various tones of pink. They were shaded by miniature umbrellas covered with drooping silver streamers. It was at this time that the honoree, Miss Harnois, was presented with the array of lovely gifts, when they were borne in on a tea wagon. She was more than delighted with the ingenuity her friends had shown in their choice of gifts.

Those invited other than the honor guest, Miss Harnois, were the Misses Mildred Lukins, Laura Cooper, Blanche Seigel, Edith May Breckenridge, Eva Marshall, Nettie Jones, Enid Twist, Grace Richards, Louisa and Della Hampton, Frances Knudson, Frances Braag, Jean and June Goodwin, Jean Nicholson, Santa Ana; Eva McNiel and Catherine Lamond of Los Angeles; Kate Benton of La Cresenta; Hazel Johnson of Norwalk; and Mesdames Lawrence Cox, of Orange; Charles Hunt of Anaheim; Harold English, Robert Belding, C. M. Ulery, John Seigel, of Newport Beach; Donald Dearth, Ray Finley, of Westminster; L. A. Turner, Clifford Cole, Donald Dunbar, Earl Walker, and Mrs. Marshall Harnois of this city.

Quill Pen Members Hear Original Stories

Variety continues to be the spice of Quill Pen club meetings, as evidenced by the varied nature of the manuscripts read at Tuesday night's session held in the home of Miss Pearl Camblin, 911 Olive street.

For Mrs. Maude Goff contributed a story titled "Fifty-Fifty Split;" Mrs. Frank Was read a juvenile thriller calculated to make any child's scalp prickle with superstitious awe; Mrs. Harry M. Smith added a poem, "Prohibition," and read one written by Mrs. S. P. Marshall which appeared recently in the Los Angeles Times, titled "Trillium Ovatum," and Miss Dorothy Clarkson read a short story, "The Enduring."

Each reading was followed by the usual period of criticism and the program finally ended with a social hour during which Miss Camblin, with the assistance of her mother, Mrs. Camblin, served a daintily appetizing menu course.

The next meeting of this group of writers will be in two weeks with Mrs. J. D. Campbell of Orange.

Those present at the latest session in addition to the hostess, Miss Camblin, were Mrs. Blanche Brown, Miss Dorothy Clarkson, Mrs. Maude Goff, Mrs. Frank Was, Mrs. S. B. Marshall, Mrs. Marshall Harnois, Mrs. R. A. Cushman, Mrs. J. D. Campbell, Mrs. Herman Reuter, Mrs. Harry M. Smith, and Mrs. Camblin.

Orange Announcement Party of Interest To Local Friends

Santa Ana and Orange friends of Miss Florence Gillogly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly of Orange, will be interested to learn of the announcement of her engagement to James E. Donegan of Sacramento. The interesting news was told last night at a bridge party given in the Gillogly home, 137 East Maple avenue, Orange.

Decorations for the lovely affair were arranged in pastel tints, yellow, pink and blue predominating. Baskets of gladioluses in these colors were placed about the rooms and rainbow hued candles were tied with tulle bows.

Before the bridge game a radio program was enjoyed and when a station seemingly from Sacramento, broadcast a program, it was found that one of the numbers was a record, "I Love You Truly," sung by Miss Gillogly. Later it was disclosed that the program from the northern city was a series of records given by means of a new recording equipment, invented by Don Hetrick of this city.

Mr. Hetrick made records of songs sung by the group of guests and afterward they had the unique experience of listening to their own voices.

Prizes at the bridge game were awarded to Mrs. Carl Dole, first, Mrs. William Newell, second, and Miss Ruth Gulick, third.

Refreshments were served at the close of the card game with fortunes as the individual favors. Miss Gillogly's fortune revealed the news of her engagement in a clever verse. As the forecasts were being read a messenger boy arrived with a corsage of gardenias to which was tied the lovely engagement ring. The gardenias were sent by Mr. Donegan.

The engagement of Miss Gillogly and Mr. Donegan had previously been announced to Sacramento friends of the young people at an afternoon affair in that city.

Last night Miss Gillogly wore a frock of blue chiffon in receiving her guests and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly wore blue flowered chiffon. Miss Helen Gillogly was in peach chiffon.

Miss Gillogly is a graduate of the Orange union high school and of the Progressive Music Series college of St. Louis. For the past two years she has been a member of the teaching staff of the Pease Conservatory of Music of Sacramento. Mr. Donegan is a graduate of the Roseville high school and Sacramento junior college and is employed by the Southern Pacific Railway company.

The wedding will be an event of early winter.

Those present were Mesdames S. B. Edwards, L. R. Wilson, J. D. Campbell, Richard Robinson (Hester Claypool), Charles Robinson (Vera Hagerman), Gerald Schyrock, Loren White (Anna Griffith), Robert Hartman, Kenneth Reynolds (Ina Hagerman), Clyde Bennett, Carl Dole, John King, Hal Brown, Cecil Chambers, William Newell of Glendale; Frank Nuslein, Ross Purdue and Ross Stuckey and the Misses Margaret Gulick and Miss Ruth Gulick of Los Angeles, Margaret Rust, Elizabeth Gile, Lola Merrick, Florence Riddle, Esther Ratcliffe, Elsie Kolkhurst, Josephine Hardin, Mildred Griffith, Helen Gillogly, Florence Gillogly and Mrs. Sherman Gillogly.

Church Group Picnics At Corona Del Mar

Motoring to Corona del Mar on Tuesday evening, members of the Young Married People's class of the United Presbyterian church enjoyed a picnic amidst the attractions of the popular beach resort. While they were seated around the bonfire partaking of the picnic supper, they were much impressed by the solemn beauty of the rocks silhouetted against the sunset sky, already brightening with the almost full moon.

After the jolly supper, the merry-makers returned to Santa Ana where they played a round of golf on the picturesque Tom Thumb course on South Main street, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Dixon. A sudden shower coming late in the evening interrupted the players, and provided an interesting finale to the affair.

Those present were the Rev. W. H. McPeak, and Messrs. and Mesdames W. W. Hoy, Carlyle Dennis, Ralph Raitt, Charles Berry, J. Peterson, Paul Olmstead, Robert Day, Herbert Dixon, Carson Smith, Harold Finley, J. C. Elmore, W. C. Olson, W. C. Schmidt, T. Grey Johnston, Paul Ebey, Herbert Klitzly, E. T. McFadden and Harry Woodward.

The committee in charge of the picnic plans were Messrs. and Mrs. Carson Smith, Herbert Dixon, Robert Day, J. C. Elmore, T. Grey Johnston and Charles Berry.

Wedding in Anaheim Is Of Much Interest In This City

Santa Ana friends of Miss Dorothy Cunningham of Alva, Okla., a teacher in Central school, Anaheim, were warmly interested in details of her wedding on Sunday, July 6, to Henry C. Schneider Jr., progressive Anaheim business man.

The new home which the young people will occupy for the summer months on East Orangethorpe road, north of Anaheim, provided charming setting for the nuptials conducted by the Rev. C. R. Hudson of Arlington Avenue Christian church, Los Angeles, a close friend of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geddes Cunningham of Alva, Okla. A bower of ferns and palms, mingled with blossoms in pastel tones, and placed at the entrance to the sun room, made a colorful background for the rites, which were preceded by a program of nuptial music. Mrs. Walter Ross of Anaheim sang "Love's Coronation" by Potter, and Cadman's "At Dawning," with Mrs. Rhea Kenrick at the piano.

Mrs. Kendrick then played the Mendelssohn Wedding March, and two pretty little girls, Mamie Ruth Faris, niece of the bride, and Shirley Justice, one of her pupils, unwound wide pink satin ribbons to provide an aisle to the improvised altar. The little maids were gowned alike in apple-green taffeta with sashes and headbands of orchid, pink and yellow tulle, harmonizing with the decorations, and with clusters of sweet peas to which their ribbons were attached.

Miss Cunningham, entering on the arm of her brother-in-law, Henson Faris, was gowned in silk lace in the very palest of flesh tints, with a silken veil in the same faint coloring, caught cap-wise to her hair with orange blossoms. Her flowers were bride roses and white sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Dorothea Harvey, wearing a formal bridesmaid's gown of orchid silk net, and carrying pale yellow roses. Mr. Schneider was accompanied by his best man, William Pistorius.

Mrs. Henson Faris, sister of the new Mrs. Schneider, and who was married just ten years ago by the Rev. Mr. Hudson, presided as hostess at the reception which followed, and was gowned in chiffon shading from palest pink into deep rose tones. Refreshments were served from a table bearing four tall tapers, each festooned with pastel blossoms. Favors were small boxes of wedding cake and pastel tinted bags of rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are honeymooning at Yosemite valley, Carmel and Santa Barbara. When they took their departure, the bride wore poudre blue wool crepe talleur with blouse, hat, scarf, and shoes in eggshell tones.

Mr. Schneider's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Schneider sr., reside in Schwerin, in Mecklenburg-Schwerin, Germany. After he completed his education in Germany and graduated from a technical school as a watchmaker, the young man came to this country, living first in Texas. After two years he came to Orange county in 1925 and has been associated with the Kendirck Jewelry store, Anaheim.

His bride graduated from Anaheim Union high school in 1922, after which she returned to Alva and was granted her A. B. degree from the Northwestern State Teachers' college in 1927. She is a member of the Sigma Sigma Sigma national educational sorority. For the past three years she has taught at Central school, in Anaheim, making her home during the school year at the Faris residence, 214 East Adele street, and returning to Oklahoma for vacation days with her parents.

STANTON

Mr. and Mrs. S. Spencer of the Murphee estate visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Jenkins, on Saturday. They were all rejoicing over the birth of little William Spencer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Spencer, born at the Murphee Memorial hospital June 22. The child is a great grandchild to Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins.

Mrs. T. W. Clark and Mrs. K. Rutledge visited William Mrowfki at the Orange county hospital on Saturday and found his improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Korn left last week for a trip to Germany. They will visit relatives in Illinois and other places before sailing.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Clark entertained relatives over the week end. Those there were Mr. and Mrs. W. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson an dtwo daughters of San Gabriel, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hatcher of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Ben Guptil and Mrs. Charles Guptil drove out from Chandler, Ariz., reaching here on Friday. A family reunion was held on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ben Guptil's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones on the Garden Grove road. Besides the family and two visitors Wilmer Jones, accompanied by Miss Beeson of Los Angeles, Mrs. Mabel Lanterman of Riverside and some friends from Puente were present. Mrs. Ben Guptil will remain two weeks visiting her paents near Garden Grove and her husband's mother, Mrs. Guptil and sister, Mrs. Rea here at Stanton. Mr. Lanterman moved to Riverside last week where he has employment in a dairy.

The MIXING BOWL by ANN MEREDITH

A Dish For The Anaemic

An acquaintance whose tubercular husband requires a diet rich in fats and proteins has evolved a dish which I think very clever, and one the individual who is anaemic and underweight could use to good advantage.

She uses cooked spaghetti, macaroni, or cheese for the base, varying them for a change each time. The dish used is a small, rather deep casserole. After buttering it generously she puts in a layer of macaroni, then one of cheese, and so on, until the dish is almost full and cheese tops it.

For each cup of spaghetti she breaks a whole egg over the top, allowing the unbeaten white to seep down through the layers and the yolks stay whole on top. Milk is then poured in to fill level with the spaghetti and the dish is baked in a medium hot oven until it is creamy and like custard all through.

The making is facilitated if the milk is first heated. A good chunk of butter added to increase the food value would be advisable in most cases. The recipe has generous portions for four, the calorie value of each being a little over 500 energymaking units.

TODAY'S RECIPE

Muck Melon Frappe
(for 6)

6 small nutmeg melons
1 pint whipping cream
2 egg whites beaten dry
powdered sugar
pinch of salt

The success of this frappe depends entirely on the melons. They must be juicy, thoroughly ripe without being mushy, and full of favor. Choosing melons that are just right is not the easiest thing I know of . . . the fruit-stand man's admonition to "pincha' da cocoanut, notta' de banan' " fails to hold good here. I have pinched many a melon and got badly stung when I cut it open. Judge muskmelons by the rich fruity odor.

Cut a thin slice off the top of each melon, scoop out seeds and membrane and drain off the juice which is in them (it goes into the frozen part). Then with a spoon take out all the edible part of the melon, dice it fine and drain off whatever juice can be saved. Put the diced melon on ice until later.

Whip the egg whites very stiff, the cream the same. To the egg whites add the pinch of salt, and as much powdered sugar as you think best, then fold the two together and whip in the melon juice for flavor. Put this cream into the freezing pan or pack in a mould in ice and salt and freeze.

At serving time fill the shells with alternate layers of frozen cream and diced melon pulp and serve with plain cake.

The calories total 3730 but not all this amount will be charged against the six who eat the melon frappe. Some of the cream filling will not be used at this serving, but 500 calories per person will not be out of the way. By reducing the cream to 1 cupful and using 4 egg whites the fat calories can be materially reduced without harming the cream.

Mr. and Mrs. Haan Are Home From Shrine Convention

A most impressive ceremony, whereby a monument to world peace was dedicated amidst a vast crowd of onlookers numbering among its ranks, governors of various states, ambassadors, and other high officials, was witnessed in Toronto, Canada, recently by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Haan, 830 South Birch street, who have just returned from an extended six weeks' tour of the United States. The occasion was one of the highlights of the North American Shrine convention, held in the Canadian city.

During the conclave, Mr. and Mrs. Haan report that fifty acres of tracks were in use as grounds for the trains in their capacity as hotels, as the number of tourists swelling the population was so great that there were insufficient housing accommodations.

Leaving Santa Ana late in May, Mr. and Mrs. Haan were aboard the special convention train with its renowned passenger, Leo Youngworth, Imperial Potentate of the Shrine. Among pleasant features of the journey, they visited Vancouver, and stopped at Lake Louise for some time. As passengers on a large boat, they enjoyed a trip up the St. Lawrence river, and stopped at Montreal, Can., and Detroit, Mich. Just before their return home they spent several days at Yellowstone National park. The travelers report that it was especially warm during the greater part of their journey.

FUERSTENAU HOME SCENE OF PARTY

ORANGE, July 10.—A lovely social affair of the week was the party given by Mr. and Mrs. George Fuerstenau, 232 South Lemon street, when Mrs. Cora Tracy of Jacksonville, Tex., was the guest of honor. Mrs. Tracy is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. C. N. Murphy, 414 Marietta Place.

The evening was spent in conversation and delicious refreshments were served. Decorations were carried out in pink with pink carnations and lovely clusters of pink hydrangeas being used about the home.

Those present were Miss Dorothy Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Hamil, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Connell, Mrs. C. N. Murphy, Mrs. Tracy, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. George Fuerstenau.

The new study of hair, known as the science of trichology, is having widespread results. Hair found in old tombs and caves is throwing light upon men and animals of past ages.

COOPER STARS IN BROADWAY DRAMA

Gary Cooper, who is fast becoming one of the biggest stars on the screen, and who was seen here recently in "The Virginian," comes to the Fox Broadway theater tomorrow for three days in his latest all-talking venture, "A Man From Wyoming."

It is a story of the war. Cooper with Regis Toomey are at work as engineers in Wyoming when the war broke out. They enlist and go to France with a regiment of engineers. Here Cooper is in command of a regiment when a girl ambulance driver, tired of her dull routine, wanders out into no-man's land and draws enemy fire to Cooper's troops.

He falls in love with her, but has her arrested. Later they are married and after a three day honeymoon in a little village back of the lines, he returns to the front. A short time later his regiment is in a big battle and he is reported killed in action.

The girl, June Collyer, retires to a small town and soon is notorious for her wild parties, given in a hope that she can forget her great tragedy. Then Cooper shows up and misunderstands her actions. The picture's ending is a surprise for all.

Ending a four day run at the theater tonight is Lon Chaney in his first all-talking picture, "The Unholy Three." The picture has been playing there since Monday.

The "man of many faces" takes on the title of the "man of many voices" in this film, for Chaney plays five different parts and uses five different voices—all of them his own.

The story well known, is that of a ventriloquist, a midget and a giant who band themselves together for the purpose of robbing patrons of their side show.

ELECTRIC VIOLIN

LONDON, July 10.—An electric violin, the notes of which are amplified by radio tubes, is causing no little comment in music circles here. The violin has no sound box, although there are four regulation strings. When the violin is played, amplifiers and transformers cause the tube circuits to emit perfectly pure tones of far greater volume than those produced by an ordinary violin.

DOUBLE FEATURE BILL TO CLOSE

The double feature program at Walker's State theater is closing tonight.

Columbia Pictures corporation drew on the best Broadway talent to produce "Broadway Scandals," the musical comedy scintillating with mirth and song. Emmet Grant, for many years one of New York's outstanding directors of dance ensembles, supervised the chorus the principals, Sally O'Neil and Jack Egan and the specialty dancers in this ambitious Columbia production.

Tired business men and wide-awake business men will be equally entertained with "The Kiss," Greta Garbo's starring vehicle.

Every effort was made by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer to furnish Miss Garbo with a story, director and supporting cast equal to her position as one of the foremost screen actresses in America, and the results have been more than satisfactory.

Woman In Court On Theft Charge

Mrs. Joe Russell, 43, of 814 Garfield street, arrested on a burglary charge, was arraigned in Justice Kenneth Morrison's court yesterday. Her preliminary examination was set for July 15 and bail of $1000 was made.

She was arrested on a complaint signed by Merle Graham, alleging that several days ago, Mrs. Russell broke into a house on the Graham lease for the purpose of robbing it.

BYRD FILM WILL CLOSE ON FRIDAY

Only two days are left to see and hear "With Byrd at the South Pole," Paramount production, which has been showing all this week at the Fox West Coast theater, unless it is decided to hold the picture over throughout the week, as the case may be. The picture is booked to close here on Friday night.

An epic in motion pictures, a picture that from an educational standpoint never has been equalled, it is the actual flight pictures of Commander Richard Byrd over the south pole. It shows the entire trip, from the time Byrd and his men left New York until their return, and some of the shots made in the region of the pole are said to be the most wonderful ever made by a motion picture camera.

Hundreds of Santa Ana persons who have seen the show declare it to be the best picture they ever have seen. There is no plot, there is no "make believe" in the film, yet the drama of it is unsurpassed. The hardships the men encountered, the snow scenes in the ice covered regions about the pole and the actual planting of the American flag on the pole are some of the features of the film.

Byrd talks in the picture, and the details of the trip are explained as the picture is unfolded. It is like taking the trip yourself without the hardships, for you see everything that Byrd saw, you get his thrills and you go through his adventures.

Aside from the feature, a Fox Movietone news reel, and an all-talking comedy also are shown.

THE TINYMITES

STORY by HAL COCHRAN—PICTURES by KING

The Tinymites left their caravan and Clowny said, "Well, now we can just loaf around this city. I'm for walking very slow. It's rather hot. Why get tired out, by rushing wildly all about? Let's take it mighty easy now, no matter where we go."

"Oh, goodness, you're a lazy lad," snapped Scouty. "Rest is all you've had. Why, you've been in a basket sound asleep for quite a spell. Now that we're here, with thrills in store, you merely want to loaf some more. It seems, no matter what we do, you always have to yell."

This hushed up Clowny very quick. He figured he had better stick with all the rest and do just what the others wished to do. The Persian youngsters they had met were glad to play a while. You bet! The Tinies showed them tag and other games they never knew.

Soon Mister Travel Man said, "Boys, you're really making too much noise out on the public highway. You had beter say good-bye to all the little Persians. We've have lots and lots of sights to see. Perhaps we'll find some sights brand new if we start out and try."

So, down a narrow street they went and 'bout a half an hour was spent in looking over this and that. Most everything seemed queer. The Travel Man then said, "We'll hike down to a place I know you'll like. I know an old rug maker who lives very close to here."

The old rug maker soon was found and she was sitting on the ground beside a monstrous rug frame. She was working very fast. The Travel Man explained that she was just as clever as could be. Said he, "The rug she's making now, for years and years will last."

(The Tinymites meet a strange bread man in the next story.)

RULES

1. In playing golf on the Missing Letter Links the object is to change one word to another in a given number of strokes which is par. For example, to go from TEE to PIN in three strokes sounds hard but isn't: TEE-TIE-PIE-PIN. It's probably more difficult on a real course.

2. Change but one letter at a time and be sure the word you have used is one in good usage.

3. The order of the betters cannot be changed.

WITH to HOLD—Don't WITHHOLD any of your trick shots when shooting this hole. They are all required to get that par five.

Laguna Beach To Decide School Question Tonight

GIVE REPORTS ON GRADES AT MASS MEETING

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—From all indications definite instructions will be given the trustees of the Laguna school district, regarding forming a high school district when citizens meet in adjourned mass meeting this evening. The first meeting was held about three weeks ago.

Two committees are expected to report. One of these, headed by Rev. Raymond I. Brahams, is expected to recommend that a ninth grade be established in the grammar school this year as a part of the Tustin union high school, of which this school district is a part. About 40 pupils are eligible to enter and a canvass showed a majority of the parents willing to have a ninth grade here.

The other committee, headed by Mayor J. E. Bishop, with other members being A. B. Marshall, president of the chamber of commerce, and Roy W. Peacock, president of the Realty board, will report on suitable grammar school sites, one in the northern, one in the southern part of the city.

The proposition discussed is to convert the present grammar school into a high school, building two grammar schools to take its place. An additional five acres of ground would also be purchased near the high school.

Men's Club Hears San Clemente Band

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—The San Clemente band, with J. C. Thompson, directing, gave a concert for the Men's club at that organization's meeting on Tuesday night at the Social club. The program was arranged by Thompson through J. C. Herbsman, chairman of the entertainment committee. Mrs. O. R. Robertson gave a vocal solo accompanied by a trio of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson and son, Clair W. Thompson.

The band will give its first public concert on the lawn at the Social club this evening between 7 and 8 o'clock.

Coast Association Meet At Catalina

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10.—Golfers of the Orange County Coast association will hold their regular monthly tourney in competition for Tom Talbert's sow, Press-Telegram set of irons and other trophies at Catalina on Monday, July 28. This was the announcement made today by Hal Warner, chairman of the sports committee of the association.

It is planned to have the coast association niblick artists leave for the island on the afternoon boat on Sunday and play the tourney on Monday morning. The trip back to the mainland would be made on Monday afternoon. Warner estimates about 25 will compete in the Catalina tourney.

Tom Talbert will take care of arranging for the tourney and minor details will be worked out by Warner and his committeemen, G. Scherck, George Macleod and K. P. Frederick.

PLAN IMPROVEMENT OF MISSION HILLS

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—A meeting was held Monday in the Capistrano Hotel, of the property owners of the Mission Hills district, the city planning committee, and Nat Neff, county road engineer, for the purpose of making final arrangements for the improving of the Mission Hills residential section. The county engineer will submit figures in the near future, to cover estimated cost of macadamizing and curbing the streets. The work will come under the road improvement act. Meeting with Engineer Neff were Carl Hankey, chairman of the planning committee; Fred Steffel, Ferris Kelly, H. Halladay and Fred Stroscheim, of the committee, and a number of property owners.

LEAVES FOR MOUNTAINS

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—The family of John Malcolm, superintendent of the Capistrano union high school, will leave next week for a three-week camping trip in the mountains above Sacramento, with Lake Alminor as their destination. Mr. Malcolm will spend the time fishing, and the family will enjoy the freedom of camp life.

GOODYEAR 'BAG' TO FLY OVER LIGHT TOURNEY

NEWPORT BEACH, July 10. — Another new air feature is assured for the twelfth annual Tournament of Lights in Newport Bay Saturday night, following the announcement by H. L. Sherman, general chairman of the event, that the Goodyear company's non-rigid type dirigible, the "Volunteer," commonly known as the Goodyear blimp, will sail over the big aquatic parade between 8 and 10 p. m.

The blimp will arrive here early in the afternoon, probably at 1 p. m., landing on the Irvine property between the bay and the Coast highway, and will take up passengers during the afternoon. The Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce is guaranteeing 20 passengers during the afternoon. It will take two at a time, and will make a trip over the bay area. It will be the first time this or any other dirigible will have been in this part of Orange county.

With the big army anti-aircraft searchlights from Fort MacArthur shooting their mighty beams in the air at both the blimp and the Richfield Oil company's plane, bearing a Neon sign, during "the lights," and the musical part of program being by radio, this year's tournament will have novel air features.

The music is to be broadcast by station KGER, Long Beach, by remote control from the Rendezvous ballroom to three radio sets on floats in different parts of the parade, from which it will be given the public by loud speakers.

At yesterday's meeting of the Newport Beach Exchange club, six members told Sherman they would take rides in the blimp Saturday.

MRS. TALBERT RESIGNS

..Mrs. T. B. Talbert has resigned as a member of the public library board where she has served for a number of years. The resignation of Mrs. Talbert has been accepted by the city council. Her successor will probably be named at the meeting of the council in August. The position is one of honor, carrying no salary. The library board consists of five members.

Hubbard Students To Give Recital

SAN JUAN CAPISTRANO, July 10.—A number of the piano students of Esther Allen Hubbard will give a musical recital in the parlors of the Capistrano hotel on the evening of July 1. Mrs. Hubbard, who is head of the music department of the Capistrano union high school, is an excellent musician, and the recital is looking forward to with interest.

The program follows:

Duet, "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin, by Mary Emma and Barbara Malsolm; group, three numbers, by Mary Emma Malcolm; group, three numbers, by Robert Cook; group, two numbers, by Sarah Louise Otstot; group, three numbers, by Barbara Malcolm; duet, "Invitation to the Dance," by Emma and Barbara Malcolm; group, four numbers, by Frederick Stoffel; Sonata, Opus 2, No. 1, Beethoven, by Harriet Crumrine, and group, two numbers, by Pearl Alice Barnett.

REHEARSE FOR OUTDOOR PLAY AT BEACH CITY

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—Rehearsals are being held regularly for the production of "Pruntlla" in Fairywood amphitheater for three successive week ends in August, under the direction of Oswell Leonard Jackson. Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Los Angeles musician who composed the special score for "Prunella," was in this community this week discussing music with Mrs. Nellye Schwankovsky, who has charge of the music.

Those composing the cast are Miss Hargot Sangster, Marshall Ford, Mrs. Susan C. Kimball ,Mrs. Nina McMillan, Mrs. Ella June LaPiere, Miss Ida Harris, Miss Stella Harris, John Marriner, William W. Riddell, Charles Radford, Arthur Whipple, Stanley Newcomb, Vesterman E. Stanley, Frederick Schwankovsky, Chris Valente, Miss Elinor Hinchman, Rex Hoover, Mary C. Hinchman, Miss Ruth Collins, Mrs. LaRue Mayer, Miss Mary Williams, Miss Helen Caldwell, Miss Ruth Walter.

Making Costumes

Those who are making costumes, and who have nearly completed their work, are Mrs. R. L. McCrea, Mrs. M. B. McMillan, Mrs. L. F. Kimmell, Mrs. C. J. Coll, Mrs. Alice Sangster and Mrs. Jackson. Mr. Coll and Andrew S. Hall are in charge of advertising.

This is the first outdoor production attempted for two years.

BUENA PARK, June 10.—Miss Mildred Bacon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Bacon of Grand avenue, Buena Park, and John Mitchell, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell of Western avenue, were united in marriage at a pretty home wedding at the bride's home, Tuesday evening at eight o'clock. The Rev. S. F. Hilgenfeld, of Anaheim, read the service.

Robert D. Bacon, brother of the bride, played "I Love You Truly" as a baritone solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Charlotte Greenawalt, preceding the service, and also the Lohengrin wedding march.

The bride wore a beautiful old ivory white satin gown, fashioned with a tight fitting bodice, and a full skirt, with puffed sleeves. The long lace veil was caught to her head with a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower boquet of white roses and lillies of the valley. Her traveling costume was of blue flat crepe ensemble with blonde accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony, when the bride's cake and ice cream were served. The happy young couple left for a two weeks motor trip, without announcing their destination. Upon their return, a lovely new home is awaiting them on the ranch of the bride's parents, on South Grand avenue.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bacon and son, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Jones, and Mrs. Newell Rochford, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Van Loenen and Jane Whittington of Los Angeles; Rev. and Mrs. S. F. Hilgenfeld of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Duce and sons, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell, the Misses Jennie, Cornelia and Edna Mitchell, and James, Ira and George Mitchell, Henry Legari, Mrs. Rose Hartman and children, Esther, Ida Mae and Harvel, of Buena Park.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell have been residents of this community practically all of their lives. Mrs. Mitchell was assistant in the Southern Counties bank in Buena Park for several years, and Mr. Mitchell is a prominent local electrician.

LAGUNA OFFERS FREE TRAINING IN LIFE SAVING

LAGUNA BEACH, July 10.—Extending beach protection to the training of young folks in first aid and life saving, Miss Louella Marshall and Virgil Cole, Red Cross students, with Life Guard Dana Lamb will give instruction daily.

Swimming, life saving and first aid classes will be started Friday of this week and Wednesday of next week on a schedule which is expected to give all who desire to join the classes training which will make them ready to be called on in emergencies. Boys and girls between the ages of 12 and 17 will be given class work from 10 to 11 a. m. daily and seniors over 17, from 4 to 5 p. m. daily, these classes to be held on the beach. Certificates will be given those successfully passing examinations in the first class, certificates and emblems to those of the senior class.

An advanced course in life saving and first aid will be held from 5 to 6 p. m. daily on the beach, with a night training course covering six weeks on Wednesday evenings. This begins July 16. This course is for men and women over 17. Swimming classes will be held from 11 to 12 a. m. with classes for beginners from 10 to 11 a. m. daily.

TEMPERANCE IS TOPIC IN MEET AT PLACENTIA

PLACENTIA, July 10—Mrs. Pearl Hess, head of the state department of scientific temperance instruction of the W. C. T. U., was speaker at the July meeting of the Placentia W. C. T. U. which was held this week at the home of Mrs. W. W. Blackmer, 25 members being present.

Mrs. Hess first displayed posters from the schools, some of them winning state and other county prizes. Many of them were from the Stanton Mexican school where one of the fifth grade students had supervised the work, which was remarkably fine.

School Children Better

Mrs. Hess told of the decision of the National Education association at their recent convention at Atlantic City to keep scientific temperance instruction in the schools, and told of their investigation of the behavior of high school children during the period 1920-1930 which was bringing out the fact that children are improving in behavior and that there is less drinking among them.

She touched on legislation, ending with the remark that "whenever the Christian forces of this nation begin the exercise of their citizenship, it begins to hurt the opposition."

Speaks On Politics

Mrs. C. E. Utt of Tustin spoke on the various candidates for public positions, and made a talk on allowing criminals to reproduce their kind, stating that we "discriminated against undesirable Europeans but did nothing about limiting our own criminal population."

Mrs. Estelle Harper, county president, was present, and announced the state official board meeting at Pacific Palisades Wednesday, July 16 and the county picnic at Irvine park July 29 when John G. Adams of Torrance would be the speaker, and Dr. M. Lien Hutchinson, candidate for secretary of state, would be present.

It was voted to have the August meeting at the home of Mrs. Blackmer as a pot luck picnic at 12:30 p. m.

Mrs. Milton sent in a request for old clothes to sell the Mexicans, and Mrs .Cohoe will take names of those having them to donate.

Thomas Trenery Given Reception

WESTMINSTER, July 9.—A reception was tendered Thomas Trenery on Tuesday evening at the regular Rebekah lodge meeting when friends bid him farewell as he is leaving on Friday for a visit of at least one year in his old home, Truro, England. It is 45 years since Mr. Trenery left his native land the the last 18 years have been spent in this vicinity, he having come here from Norway, Michigan.

The reception which followed the lodge business session was held in the dining hall where refreshments of ice cream and cake and coffee were served. A lovely cake with icing representing the ocean waves and centered by a miniature silver ship and bearing the words "Bon Voyage" was placed at the honorees place as a special favor, the clever idea originating with Mrs. Robert Falcke, a fellow lodge member.

A hose shower was a surprise feature arranged, one of a pair being presented by each of Mr. Trenery's friends present and he was left to match them. A song "Socks and More Socks" in parody of "Smiles," composed by Mrs. Alice Hare, was sung by the company when the presentation was made.

Attending the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Falcke, Mr. and Mrs. John Nankervis, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mansperger, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Trenery, Mr. and Mrs. Goble, Mr. and Mrs. William Cozad jr., Mrs. Nell Morgan, Mrs. Wm. Schmidt, Mrs. Alice Hare, Mrs. Richard Arnett, Miss Lillian Arnett, Miss Ruth Goble, Mrs. Charles Parr, Mrs. Chas. Murdy, Miss Iola Murdy, Mrs. Evelyn Wardlow, Mrs. Beatrice Knapp, Mrs. Winifred Morris, Mrs. Nellie Groeschner, Miss Ella Murdy, Mrs. H. O. Chamberland, George Abbott, J. O. Pyle and the honoree, Mr. Trenery.

COAST GROUP TO MEET AT SAN CLEMENTE

SAN CLEMENTE, July 10. — More than 100 members of the Orange County Coast association will meet at A. Travaglini's cafe in San Clemente on Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the regular monthly meeting of the organization. Members from Long Beach on the north to San Clemente on the south will attend the session. Committee chairman will make reports, according to V. D. Miller, Seal Beach, president.

The progress made in seeking government aid in keeping the beaches of the county free from oil polution will be revealed. The government has commanded all commanders of the coast guard service to see that in the future ships do not dump oil and bilge into the water within the territorial limits of the United States. The meeting on Tuesday will pass a resolution urging the government to set aside patrol boats for this purpose alone.

The advertising committee will report on progress made to secure an additional sum from the board of supervisors for the All Year Club of Southern California for national advertising stressing the importance of Orange county and its coast as a lure for tourists.

At the board of directors' meeting at Balboa on Tuesday the board went on record as endorsing Frank C. Drumm for appointment to a federal judgeship in Southern California. This question will be brought before the meeting.

The August session of the association will be held in Laguna Beach.

AWARD CONTRACT

BREA, July 10.—Massey and Thaxton have been awarded the contract for building the new domestic science addition to the Brea grammar school and work will begin shortly. The consideration is said to approximate $15,000.

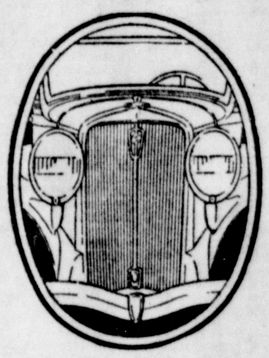
World Champion
PRESIDENT EIGHT
Now 122 horsepower
130 inch and 136 inch wheelbases
$1850 to $2600 at the factory



World Famous
COMMANDER EIGHT
Now 101 horsepower
124 inch wheelbase
$1585 to $1785 at the factory

free wheeling is here!

STUDEBAKER, Builder of Champions, presents improved, enlarged, more powerful editions of seasoned Eights—the world champion President, the world famous Commander—plus free wheeling.

Free wheeling is a triumph of that same Studebaker progressiveness that pioneered the popular priced Eight—seasoned it and proved it to the satisfaction of over 100,000 owners. Today the whole industry is following the Eight trend that Studebaker inaugurated three years ago.

A New Experience

Prepare to drive the most unfettered, yet most obedient car in the world—a car that literally floats along, in gear and fully controlled, yet free and silent as though there were no gears!

You shift with silence and safety from high to second, back and forth, at any speed—forty, fifty miles an hour—and never touch the clutch!

The instant you lift your foot from the throttle, no matter how swiftly you may be traveling, your engine drops to idling speed—with no forcing of the engine by car momentum—with no sensation of "piling up".

You know, of course, that Studebaker Eights hold many world records for speed and endurance and more American stock car records than all other makes combined. But the increased power of the great Studebaker Eight engines which drive these new cars is a revelation.

Save Money, Too

With free wheeling, you save 12% on gasoline, 20% on oil—and the heavier the traffic the greater the saving. Carbon is reduced. The terrific reversional strains thrown on rear axle, clutch and transmission of an ordinary car are utterly unknown.

You are ready for any emergency of road or traffic on the instant. No sudden grabbing of the new Duo Servo brakes—no swerving. Instead, a smooth and reassuring drop in speed—swift as your need dictates.

Your steering gear rights itself after a turn—automatically the car swings to "straight ahead". Your car, floating at each spring-end on oil-sealed ball bearings, rides friction-free.

Enviable in Appearance

All the new delights of free wheeling are yours as the crowning achievement of Studebaker's 78 years of manufacturing integrity. They are yours in new bodies, utterly bewitching in eye appeal. Visit the nearest Studebaker salesroom. Drive one of the New Series Studebaker President or Commander Eights. Get a first hand experience with free wheeling. We promise you the thrill of your life!

Shift from high to second at Forty···Fifty miles per hour and never touch the clutch!

Saves 12% on gas, 20% on oil—even more in heavy traffic···· Reduces carbon, lessens strain on engine and transmission

You don't have to touch the clutch except to start or back up

Your car momentum never forces your engine — no sensation of "piling up" when you decelerate···You literally glide along

Your car is surprisingly quiet in every speed···· uncannily silent when you're free wheeling

You are safer because you have absolute control of your car··· You can shift at any speed···· There is less hazard of skidding!

NEW YORK CURB

NE WYORK, July 10.—(UP)—Curb stocks turned irregular after a steady opening today when traders who had picked up various issues at recent lows for a turn switched to the selling side.

Trading continued very quiet, however, and price movements generally were confined to narrow proportions. The market still was devoid of public interest, pending the return of outside factors. Trading continued largely professional in character.

After scoring fractional gains in early transactions, the leading public utilities sold off under large offerings and small declines took place in issues like Cities Service, United Light A, American Superpower, American Light and Traction, and Nigaara Hudson Power. Electric Band and Shrae maintained a fractional gain on good support.

Cross currents also developed in the oil shares, with Houston and Missouri Kansas Pipe Line in supply, while Standard of Indiana and Vacuum ruled firm on good demand. Investment trusts eased under lead of Transamerica, which extended its rceent losses by a drop of more than 2 points to a new low for the year.

After advancing a point in initial transactions, Deer and Company sold off to a net loss of 3 points. Dresser Manufacturing continued strong, advancing more than a point in further reflection of award of a recent large contract to supply parts for a major pipe line enterprise. Prices in other industrial issues backed and filled in a narrow range.

CHICAGO BD OF TRADE

CHICAGO, July 10—(UP)—Wheat closed a nervous and erratic session on the Board of Trade today after easing sharply from its early highs on heavy selling by houses with southwestc onnections, believed to be hedging presure. July corn and oats showed resistance, with the deferred corn deliveries weak and oats deliveries about steady.

At the close wheat was 1¾ to 1¼c lower, corn was ⅝ lower to ⅞c higher and oats were ½ to ½c higher. Provisions were weak on lards and strong on bellies.

L. A. STOCKS

LOS ANGELES, July 10—(UP)—A bearish attack that found little opposition sent Transamerica corporation down to a new 1930 low today on the Los Angeles stock and curb exchanges—the second time this week the stock has fallen to a new low.

The low record in an early session today was 25⅛, two points under the previous level.

With the market centering around TAC activity little trading of consequence was done maong other issues, although oils experienced a brisk spurt shortly after the board opened.

Oil quotations were for the most part stronger but with little activity. Standard was up to 61 and a fraction while Union and Union associates were about steady with yesterday's closing marks.

Banks, industrials and utilities were slow with variable prices.

PRODUCE

LOS ANGELES, July 10—(UP)—Trading continued inactive today and prices for vegetables generally continued to weaken while most fruits were steady.

Apricots were in moderate supply but met slow demand, small local and Banning fruit bringing 25-35c a lug.

Local blackberries in 30-cup crates were a shade weaker at $2.00-$2.25. Cantaloupes are becoming increasingly plentiful with Imperial valley stock being pushed into the background by liberal receipts from points in the San Joaquin valley. Prices for Turlocka nd Delano cantaloupes weakened today to mostly $2.00 for Jumbo 36s.

Venice celery continued draggy and weak at $1.25-$1.50 a crate.

Local green corn held unchanged at 60-75c a lug for good stock.

Figs have been somewhat less plentiful the last two days, especially Mission figs from the San Joaquin valley, which bruoght 75-90c for good stock in 6-lb. flats. Imperial valley seedless grapes were unchanged at 5-8c a lb. Lettuce was plentiful but good stock was rather scarce and prices held about steady, good dry pack lettuce from San Luis Obispo and nearby points bringing $2.00-$2.25 a crate.

A few nectarines from the San Joaquin valley were sold at 6-9c a lb.

Local white rose potatoes met slow demand but prices were firmly held at $.225-$2.40 per cwt. Local strawberries were still fairly plentiful and dull at $1.50--$2.00 for 30-pint crates.

EVENING SALUTATION

—Richmond Barrett, author.

THE LONDON TREATY

Yesterday we took occasion to point out that our senators at Washington have the privilege of personally seeing the correspondence in relation to the London treaty. The refusal to place this correspondence before them is causing the outbursts against the President and the treaty.

The basis, of course, of this action by the senate is its right and obligation under the constitution to advise and consent to the treaties made by the President. The constitution provides: "He (the president) shall have power by and with the advice and consent of the senate to make treaties, providing two-thirds of the senators present concur."

This treaty was forwarded to the senate on May 1st last. It had been signed on the 22nd of the previous month by the plenipotentiaries of the heads of the United States, France, Great Britain, the king of Italy and the emperor of Japan. Our delegates to London were Charles G. Dawes, who is ambassador to London, Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy, Joseph T. Robinson and David A. Reed, senators respectively from the states of Arkansas and Pennsylvania, Hugh Gibson, ambassador to Belgium, and Dwight W. Morrow, at that time ambassador to Mexico.

At the time the American delegates went to London in January of this year, to take up this matter of naval strength of the nations, the American fleet of cruisers consisted of 11 ships in commission, totaling 80,000 tons. The British fleet consisted of 54 cruisers, totaling 327,000 tons. The British thus had more than four times the tonnage of cruisers that we had. The Japanese fleet consisted of more than twice as many ships and more than double the tonnage of the fleet of the United States. This is important in the light of the present discussion concerning maintaining a ratio with Great Britain and Japan.

There never had been an agreement upon cruisers, though there had been upon battleships. The ratio of battleships had been 5 for the United States, 5 for Great Britain, and 3 for Japan, but the ratio was not to be reached until 1942. In the mean time, Great Britain was to have a stronger battleship fleet than we were to have. At the present time she has 20 battleships to our 18 and Japan's 10. There were other complications in that treaty. The present treaty provides for immediate parity in battleships with Great Britain and a 5 to 3 ratio with Japan. Were it not for this treaty, this parity could not have been reached until 1942, so it advances the parity time by 11 years.

Further than this, the treaty provides that none of us shall build battleships between now and 1936. As a battleship costs in the neighborhood of $40,000,000, certainly the taxpayers of the United States and of Great Britain and Japan are the gainers.

In the cruiser line, there is the provision that we shall continue through the next six and a half years building up our large cruisers, that is 8-inch gun cruisers, of which we have one at the present time, and Great Britain 15 and Japan 8, until at the end of the six and a half years, we will have 18, Great Britain, under the provisions of this compact will have 15. Japan will keep her present number of ships, 12, the eight which she has, and the four which are in the process of building.

When it comes to the 6-inch cruisers, at the present time the United States has 10, Great Britain has 39, and Japan has 21. Under the terms of this treaty, Great Britain is reduced to 35, while the tonnage of the United States is permitted to be doubled. The size of the vessels can be larger or smaller as we choose.

It is recognized that much of the objection that has been raised to this treaty has come from the admirals of our navy. There has been much technical testimony given in respect to the value of various types of ships, but certainly when looking upon it as a layman, we have never been able to see the grounds for objections to the treaty by the "big navy" men.

The naval board wanted the right to build 21 big cruisers against Britain's 15, whereas the treaty allows 18 for us, as against the British 15. The argument of the navy men hinges about the relative power of the 6-inch and the 8-inch cruisers. In the opinion of those who represented the United States, that which America achieved was preferable over that which the opponents would have had us try to get.

What appears to be a serious objection of the opponents to the treaty is that while on the face of it, it would appear that there is parity reached between the United States and Great Britain on battleships, owing to the fact that Great Britain has recently built two ultra-modern battleships, in order for us to reach a real parity, a modernization of our old battleships would be necessary which would cost approximately $118,000,000, and therefore the saving to the taxpayer is only apparent, it is not real. This is true if we would modernize our battleships and make them equal to those of Great Britain. But as a matter of fact that objection would have obtained under the provisions of the other treaty or the treaty now in operation, plus the fact that we would not have reached parity before the end of 11 years.

The basis of the argument against the treaty lies primarily in war psychology, and on the planning for war. It certainly is not carrying out the spirit of the Kellogg-Briand peace pact.

COMPANIONATE MARRIAGE CONDEMNED

A Colorado court has just rendered a decision which nullifies all contracts made by the parties entering into a companionate marriage. In the particular case before the court, an agreement had been made by the man and the woman to live together only as long as it was mutually agreeable, and all marital rights and obligations ceased when they separated. This particular couple separated, and shortly after the man died. The woman sued for her widow's rights. The lower court decided such rights were abrogated by the prenuptial contract, and dismissed the appeal.

When the appeal was carried to the higher court, this decision was reversed. In granting the widow's rights to the woman, the court stated that the "sacred character of the marriage relation is indissoluble, except as authorized by legislative will and by the solemn judgment of a court. It cannot be annulled by contract, or at the pleasure of the parties."

We believe that this represents the general concensus of opinion. The social consequences of any pact has a large bearing upon that act. There are individual rights which cannot be maintained when the consequences are detrimental to the welfare of society. The abrogation of marriage through the whim of the individual cannot be sanctioned. The stability of marriage is essential to the well being of society. Here, says the court, and rightly we think, the individual must bow to the mandate of the state. If this decision stands, we shall have heard the last of companionate marriage as a legal institution.

In France there are 10 times as many bicycles as autos. The same proportion might exist here if we also had an opportunity to handle bars.

PENETRATING TO OCEAN DEPTHS

Dr. William Beebe has invented a bell whereby it is hoped that men will be able to sink to previously unexplored depths of the oceans. Already Dr. Beebe, in apparatus similar to that in which he and Otis Barton, both of the American Museum of Natural History will experiment next year, have sunk to a depth of 1400 feet, at a point near Bermuda, establishing a record for depth penetration.

In a few years we will probably be viewing moving pictures of the forms of life which exist at 1400 feet under the sea and more. Judging by the replicas in the American Museum of Natural History of the sea life which has been observed, the sights from greater depths will be worth viewing.

Daylight Saving a Fad

Riverside Enterprise

The California Daylight Saving league is scattering state propaganda in behalf of the initiatory measure which will be voted on at the general election in November, bringing about compulsory daylight saving in California.

"Daylight Saving" is a catchy phrase which is very greatly misleading. As a matter of fact it does not accomplish what it pretends to. There are just as many hours of daylight whether we have this law or not and the manner in which each individual puts that time to beneficial use is largely his own affair and can be made as effective as he cares to make it under present conditions.

Anyone who has travelled in the east where the daylight saving is now in effect can appreciate the great inconvenience experienced when it is necessary to keep two separate time pieces in order to keep an accurate line on what is going on, and the confusion is always very disconcerting until the people become thoroughly familiar with the system. Then it continues to be inconvenient to people from other parts of the world where this freak idea is forced upon them.

In New York state, the standard train time remains the same while daylight saving is one hour earlier through a portion of the year. It is almost impossible for people to keep clearly in mind what the train schedules are. It is necessary, however, for trains to maintain standard schedules throughout the United States and this same inconvenience will be felt wherever it is forced upon the public.

The farmers are particularly opposed to daylight saving because they are already early risers and are frequently through work in time to come to the city before the stores close. Under the daylight saving plan, stores would close an hour earlier than at present and this would force the farmers to come to the city an hour earlier to do such trading as they may care to do before the closing time.

We have had enough freak legislation in California and other parts of the Union without attempting to keep father time jumping back and forth to suit the theories of people who imagine that it is possible to set the clock ahead and accomplish more than can be done now.

Journalism and Good English

Christian Science Monitor

Stanley Baldwin, recently addressing the delegates to the Imperial Press Conference in London, pleaded for the use of good English in journalism. The appeal is appropriate, both on account of the immense influence in matters of culture wielded by the British press, and because of the illustrious literary heritage that the English papers of today enjoy. Shaw, Barrie, Kipling, Swift, Carlyle, Matthew Arnold and Dickens are among British men of letters who have at one time or another in their careers been connected with newspapers.

It has been suggested that in the less exalted and ambitious forms of literature English standards have not been so rigid as French, because France possesses the guidance of an Academy. Not even an academy, however, can keep a language completely and pendantically free from inaccurate expressions, for the French still talk of "closing the door" instead of "closing the room," as the Academy, in its zeal for complete linguistic purity, once desired that they should. Nevertheless, the existence in the capital city of the kingdom of a body like the Academy does give to French journalism a guarantee of the maintenance of literary standards to which, at least until recently, England could show no counterpart.

Whether the British Broadcasting company will ultimately develop into a linguistic authority in any way comparable with the French Academy there are as yet no means of knowing. But the committee on pronunciation which it has set up, and the talks and debates on good English which it frequently radiocasts, are concentrating public opinion on the question of preserving the purity of the English tongue in a way that in the future will undoubtedly form a most useful check upon the carelessness which the popular press occasionally displays.

Bringing Up That Lindberg Baby

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE CALL OF THE WILD

Australia needs more hunters to rid her farms of her native wild animals.

If wealthy I should ever be
A and need not labor any more
I'm going to sail across the sea
To far Australia's alien shore.
And there at leisure I shall shoot
As many native hunters do
The pademelon, bandicoot
And wallaby and kangaroo.

A kangaroo of course I've seen
A most ungainly brute, but fleet
Which often grows morose and mean
And kicks one with its long hind feet.
But never have I chanced to spy
Much less engage in the pursuit
Of pademelon, wallaby
Or any wayward bandicoot.

But were they stuffed and mounted in
The parlor of my little flat
And people murmured with a grin
When viewing each one: "What is that?"
I'd lay my hand upon the brute
And murmur with a quiet sigh:
"A pademelon, bandicoot
A kangaroo or wallaby."

And through the neighborhood would run
The story of my new born fame
And how I, with my trusty gun
Had bagged all this unheard of game.
And girls would smile into my eyes
And whisper gently: "Aren't they cute—
Those pademelons, wallabies
And that just cunning bandicoot!"

What Is Overproduction?

By WILLIAM TRUFANT FOSTER and WADDILL CATCHINGS

Unemployment, it now appears, has not been so widespread since the major business depression of a decade ago.

Production is curtailed; factories are running part time; furnaces are banked; commodity prices continue to weaken, and stock prices take a new slump in sympathy. Why?

On every hand we hear one answer, above all others: GENERAL OVERPRODUCTION.

Our chief economic aim is increased production. Yet the moment we begin to succeed, we fear that we are about to fail. If we do what we are trying to do so well that we are producing steel at 85 per cent of capacity, we regard that as a sign of impending trouble. In Wall Street it is a bear argument. Indeed, one statistician has produced a record of the rise and fall in the number of blast furnaces in operation, which he declares shows that a rise above a certain per cent invariably forecasts a recession in business.

What does this mean? Does it mean that the country already has all the bridges and subways and machines that it can use? Does it mean that all the houses are adequately heated and the farmers supplied with all the tractors that they can run to advantage?

Far from it. It means only that the country has not yet found any way of distributing to those who would like greater wealth, the additional wealth it is able to produce.

Indeed, throughout the world the conviction prevails of a limited market, a market which cannot possibly expand rapidly enough to absorb all the enjoyable things the world can produce, a market so limited that increased production breeds increased unemployment.

This is the only sense in which GENERAL OVERPRODUCTION is possible. Consumers as a whole, as a result of their joint productive efforts, cannot possibly produce more goods than they would like to consume. All that they ever succeed in doing is to produce more goods than those who want the goods have the money to pay for.

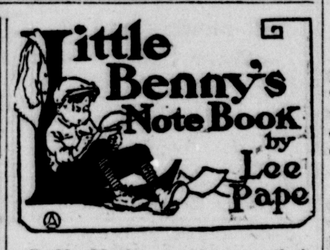
Little Benny's Note Book by Lee Pape



Reddy Merfy gave me a push in the face in frunt of his fathers milk and ice store this morning, and this afternoon I still remembered it on account of it being an exter hard push, and he was fixing the bell on his bysickle and I stod there watching him a while, saying, Hay Reddy, would you consider it a insult if I called you a one legged hippopotamist?

Id consider it a insult to be called any kind of a hippopotamist, Reddy sed, and I sed, Then I wont call you one.

You better not, Reddy sed.

Wich I dident, and pritty soon I sed, Would you consider it a insult if I called you a funny face pazooky?

What the hecks that? Reddy sed, and I sed, It aint anything special, thats why you mite not consider it a insult to be called one.

Well I would just a same, because I dont like the sound of it, and anybody that calls it to me is going to get a bust in the snoot that will nock their frunt teeth down their back throat, Reddy sed, and I sed, Well then I wont call you a funny face pazooky.

And after a while I sed, Would you consider it a insult if I called you a nock kneed parrot toe?

Hay look at here, you cut that out, Reddy sed, and I sed, Why, what's a matter, dont get sore, I dident call you a nock kneed parrot toe, did I?

No, and if you want to keep your good helth out of the hospittle you better not, Reddy sed, and I sed, All rite, dont get ixcited, I wont call you a nock kneed parrot toe, or a one legged hippopotamist or a funny face pazooky either.

Well then shut up about them, and if you ask me about another insult Ill give you a kick in the slats just for good luck, Reddy sed.

All rite, G, dont get sore, I sed. And I wawked away feeling pritty neer as good as if I had axually called him everything insted of just asking him.

In the Long Ago

From the Register Files 14 Years Ago Today

JULY 10, 1916

Santa Ana Cannery, operated by J. E. Taylor and company, has finished its run upon apricots, green walnuts, cherries, blackberries, strawberries, loganberries, orange marmalade, and grapefruit marmalade. Today the plant is busy upon plums.

At a meeting of the Orange County Taxpayers' League Saturday, W. L. Grubb, of this city, was selected as one of a committee of three to draw up resolutions aiming to start a movement for a charter for the county.

Deputy County Clerk J. M. Backs leaves on Wednesday for Denver, Colo., where he will attend the National convention of the Woodmen of the World as one of eight delegates from Southern California.

Figures compiled by a Los Angeles magazine indicate that in the matter of building during the first six months of the present year, Santa Ana outstripped Whittier, Calexico, Riverside and Redlands.

Miss Doris Robbins of the Home Mutual Building and Loan association is spending her two weeks' vacation at Yosemite, joining her sister Edna there.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By GLENN FRANK

THE CENSUS AND POLITICS

The 1930 census reveals an American growing less and less rural and more and more urban.

In 1830 the United States was 7 per cent urban and 93 per cent rural.

In 1840 the United States was 9 per cent urban and 91 per cent rural.

In 1850 the United States was 13 per cent urban and 87 per cent rural.

In 1860 the United States was 16 per cent urban and 84 per cent rural.

In 1870 the United States was 21 per cent urban and 79 per cent rural.

In 1880 the United States was 29 per cent urban and 71 per cent rural.

In 1890 the United States was 35 per cent urban and 65 per cent rural.

In 1900 the United States was 40 per cent urban and 60 per cent rural.

In 1910 the United States was 46 per cent urban and 54 per cent rural.

In 1920 the United States was 51 per cent urban and 49 per cent rural.

In 1930 the United States is 62 per cent urban and 38 per cent rural.

These figures, approximately correct, mean, as I suggested in this column some time ago, the probability of far reaching political alignments sooner or later.

There is today more in common between the city men in both parties and the country men in both parties than there is between the city men and the country men in either parties.

The Democratic donkey and the Republican elephant are each in a psychologic condition, suffering from a split soul and confused by its dual personality.

Each party is more or less hamstrung by the necessity of more opportunistic horse-trading between rural interests and urban interests, with the result that we are suffering from an increasing paralysis of statesmanship.

This cannot go on indefinitely. I hope the result will not be a rural party and an urban party, but, at any rate, I doubt that the nation will be content to go on indefinitely with both is major paries relatively paralyzed by this internal conflict of city and country.

OUR CHILDREN

By ANGELO PATRI

LOOK OUT; NOT IN

There used to be a line in the King's Daughters motto that read, "Look out, not in." I would like to write that line in every mother's heart, in the heart of every child, every teacher, in the land. "Look out, not in."

If a child can learn to do that he will be healthy, wealthy and wise, and much beloved into the bargain.

"I'll take, Sonnie, but I won't take Margie."

"O, poor Margie. What has she done?"

"I can't stand her constant complaints. It's one thing after another. She never opens her mouth except to complain about her discomforts. It's, O gee, wait. I got a skeeter bite; m-m, goodness this is a terrible place to come; I got my foot wet; you hit a big bump, Aunt Carrie, didn't you? I felt it right through my stomach; goodness, isn't this sun hot? Why didn't you park on the other side?"

"Those are only a few of the million complaints listened to last trip. This time she stays home."

Staying home is one of the penalties such a child must pay. Everybody is longing to tell his woe to the waiting world and the back of the world's hand is toward him who gets his wail in first and loudest. Most of us learn to keep still but also, some never do. Begin early to teach a child to look outside himself for thoughts, ideas, and words.

This teaching will discipline the body and soul of a child for good. It does none of us the least good to fret about our troubles. The best way to get over a bite is to forget you had it and if you tell yourself persistently that it doesn't hurt, it soon will be the truth! It simply drops out of consciousness and ceases to hurt.

Then make the teaching positive. Instead of thinking of yourself and your troubles, think of the other fellow and say something cheerful. Say a good word for his driving. Point out the beautiful view.

Next, do something cheerful, kindly and unselfish. Give the better seat to somebody else. Share your lollypop, or better yet, buy some sweet that can be shared. Keep busy seeing that everybody else is having a good time, keep reminding yourself that your good time is giving them the happiest hour of the day.

Keep looking out toward the other folk and before long you will have mastered the old secret, "He who loseth his life shall find it," and be happy ever afterward.

Take a little time and trouble to teach the carping child this bit of truth. Teach him to belittle his bites and bumps, his illfortune and mishaps. Keep pointing him away from himself. Keep teaching him the little rule that is so big. "Look out, not in."

BLACKSTONE'S BIRTH

On July 10, 1723 Sir William Blackstone, great English jurist and law writer, was born in London, the son of a silk dealer.

Though he had been called to the bar and appointed to a minor judicial office at an early age, it was not until he was 30 that he attracted wide attention. It was his course of lectures on English law at Oxford which brought him into prominence.

When, a few years later, a Mr. Viner endowed a chair of English law at the university, Blackstone was appointed first Vinerian professor. His lectures here won him such fame that he was made king's conusel and later a member of parliament.

Despite his success at the bar, Blackstone's fame rests largely upon his writings, particularly his "Commentaries." This work, until recent times, was considered a legal authority and an indispensable part of the education of every lawyer. The Commentaries still form a part of the regular work of instruction in many American law schools.
